Life Progressions

We are born into an existing progression of change, through which we evolve and grow during our lifetime. Being conscious of our position in this succession of change helps us more clearly define and understand ourselves. An awareness of our current life situation relative to a larger, evolving chain of events helps us negotiate the challenges that confront us in our daily lives.

This Life Progression report (based on the technique of Secondary progressions) describes experiences and understandings relative to particular aspects, thus depicting the effect of these planetary aspects on an individual. The report covers a period of at least one year. The time period covered by the text varies according to the nature of the astrological event associated with each paragraph. A paragraph referring to a progressed Moon will cover a much shorter period than one referring to the zodiacal sign on a progressed house cusp. This report is intended to enhance the natal chart, not to replace it. The two go hand-in-hand. The progressed chart brings to fruition the promises of the natal chart.

Report for Yasser Arafat Your Life Progressions for Apr 01, 2002

Virgo on the First Cusp

Diet, health foods, or vitamins enter into your vocabulary and take on new meanings. You may feel an urgency to change your eating habits because you feel uncomfortable in your snug-fitting clothes. Your immediate environment is also given close scrutiny, as you busy yourself with painting, fixing, and enhancing your home. It is possible that some of your work-related duties may undergo a change. You may be confronted with large amounts of detailed paperwork with your present company or perhaps through new employment. It appears, at this point in life, that you have the capacity to handle methodical tasks. This will prove to be an asset later, when details are required in assisting someone with work or health benefits. Co-workers may play an active role in your life. The affairs of an aunt or uncle may entwine with yours or you may assume the responsibility of a domestic pet. Minimize stress conditions, when possible, to avoid intestinal upsets. The condition of your progressed ascendant ruler, Mercury, can provide additional insight into new circumstances and motivational influences touching your life at this time.

Ascendant Sextile Pluto (Prg-Nat) Feb 12, 2002

New changes, phases, and alterations of personal affairs are likely to affect conditions and circumstances in your immediate environment. New contacts or relationships may alter and improve present situations. There is a possibility of relocation, change of vocational interests, a new style of dress or hairdo, and in some cases -- even corrective plastic surgery. There is the urge to renew or rejuvenate the image you project to others, and you may unconsciously begin to change your personality. There is a likelihood of gain through joint finances, insurance, taxes, workers' compensation, alimony, or lottery winnings.

Libra on the Second Cusp

Money gravitates more through the resources of others than through your personal action. The social and public side of life will also react upon personal finances. If used constructively, it is possible to make valuable contacts that will aid in increasing your income. Your productivity is greater when you are working in collaboration with others, rather than alone. Relying on another can assist in financial increase; however, a poor choice of business or marriage partner can bring reversals, resulting in heavy losses and worry. Beautiful surroundings and a comfortable existence will have greater appeal at this time.

Sun in Scorpio

A psychological change is occurring with a strong emotional intensity that carries one to the extreme in loving or hating. It is a big jump from the soft docile sign of Libra to the turbulent nature of the Scorpio sign. There may be a charismatic and sensual quality to your nature that was not evident before. There is a new awareness, interest, or obsession with sex, life after death, and occult subjects. A major change in one's lifestyle or career is generally associated with this sign. You are likely to close the door on one area of life, only to open the door to a new one. There will be less reliance upon other people. Your dauntless courage will assist you in conquering the most difficult of tasks. The range of men that touch your life during this trend can go to the extreme -- from the very religious, the medical, and sympathetic to the possessive, jealous, and domineering type.

Sun in the Second House

Financial interests will be constructive regarding the handling of monetary affairs. Individuals of influential positions and those in authority will be a source of gainful assistance. There may be the temptation to over-spend, and quality (rather than quantity) will be the rule. If you cannot afford the best, you will strive for second best. Personal possessions have no real meaning unless others notice and appreciate the value of what you own. No matter how much your nature leans toward extravagance, you always seem to manage your budget according to your acquired wealth. Your father, a child, or men in general, can have a positive or negative effect on personal finances.

Sun Quincunx Jupiter (Prg-Prg) Mar 5, 2002

This is not the time to become involved in too many diversified projects. You may be opening yourself to considerable strain in your attempts to complete them all. New ventures should not be undertaken, no matter how lucrative they may sound. There is a possibility of risk that can result in financial loss. Your desire for expansion and advancement can lead you into directions you may later regret. Concern yourself with the present by keeping a watchful eye on all investments and monetary interests. Avoid extravagance and legal entanglements.

Mercury in Scorpio

Your manner of speech has always been refined, gracious, and considerate. It is possible that a painful past experience may have altered or changed your way of thinking. A defensive attitude may show itself from time to time. You can be quite forceful, dogmatic, unyielding, and even a bit sarcastic. In fact, when difficult situations arise, you are capable of wielding words like a lethal weapon, with a capacity to insinuate in a most diabolical manner that would surprise those who thought they knew you. In some capacity, you may be required to keep records for payroll or joint monetary issues. You may also have to handle lots of paperwork or make frequent short trips for your marriage partner or close ties in connection with insurance programs, social security, disability, workers' compensation, alimony, or inheritance. This is an excellent placement for those venturing into the serious study of medicine, research, mind control, the occult, or vocations involving wills, mortgages, or insurance.

Mercury in the Second House

Financial gain is possible through new outlets such as public speaking, writing, teaching, clerical occupations, short travels, and commercial affairs. Also, through the printing press, books, cassette tapes, and the communication field as a telephone operator or working with radio and television. Your mind will be concentrated on various ways to increase personal funds, resulting in more than one avenue for monetary gain. It is possible that you may have to keep financial records as in bookkeeping, payroll, or personal reports on gas, oil, and auto upkeep used in connection with business travels. Do not permit undue pressure from others to push you into signing important papers that may create a serious financial commitment. Matters dealing with brothers, sisters, or other relatives may react in some way on monetary affairs.

Mercury Sextile Sun (Prg-Nat) Jun 20, 2002

Favorable changes are indicated for business and personal affairs. An excellent time for attempting new studies, buying or selling, moving or traveling, and signing of contracts, or negotiations. Success is almost assured in new ventures, undertakings, or vocational changes. Make new contacts with those who can be of beneficial assistance. You may have enjoyable experiences or visits with brothers, sisters, and other close family ties. Make the most of opportunities that require the written or spoken word. You have a good sound logical mind at this time, and that enables you to handle detailed tasks with incredible ease.

Mercury Sextile Neptune (Prg-Prg) Jul 20, 2002

Inspirational enlightenment increases imaginative ability for those who desire to write, paint, or take music lessons. Psychic awareness may inspire the study of ESP, psychology, astrology, and the metaphysical subjects. There is the possibility that some kind of secret papers or confidential information will prove beneficial to you during this trend. Meditation can be a valuable tool in aiding certain health problems that may be confronting you.

Mercury Sesquiquadrate Midheaven (Prg-Prg) Mar 16, 2003

This is not the time to seek changes in vocational interests, even though you may feel a boss is being overly critical or faultfinding of your duties. You may have difficulty in communicating your thoughts and, at times, be easily misunderstood or misjudged. The affairs or health of a parent may weigh heavily on your mind and cause you much worry and concern.

Mercury Semisquare Ascendant (Prg-Prg) Dec 10, 2003

This is a difficult period for self-expression in any form of communications. No matter how hard you try to convey your thoughts in a logical manner, there will be times when you will be totally misunderstood. There is the tendency to judge wrongly, so be sure of all the facts presented to you before you make any accusations against another person. An important letter, document, book, or other printed material may be a source of conflict between you, your partner, or a close family member.

Venus in Libra

As Venus progresses into the sign of Libra, you will find your social life increasing. Formerly you were content to remain a loner, but others are drawing you out of your self-imposed isolation. They are attracted to your new outgoing, genial, and companionable nature. You are developing an air of finesse, charm, and graciousness of manner. Discordant environments have always disturbed you in the past. Lately, you may find upsetting conditions even more intolerable, almost to the point of making you ill. This placement of Venus can lead to a possible engagement, marriage, or family increase. Partnerships or close unions can aid or hinder personal progress.

Venus in the Second House

You may find yourself in a position in which there is a blending of the financial with social or public affairs. Diplomacy, correctness in manner, finesse, and charm will be a big plus in aiding financial gains, especially in areas requiring public contact. Although you like the good things of life and may spend quite a bit on clothes, furniture, and entertainment, your innate sense of security will not permit you to go overboard to the point of extravagance. You will have the ability to build up financial reserves and resources, for this placement can bring a good deal of success in all monetary pursuits. Women and partnerships provide the backdrop for monetary gains or losses.

Venus Quincunx Moon (Prg-Nat) Jan 5, 2002

This could be a fun time socially, but much depends upon the effort you put forth into motivating and influencing others. They are apt to rely too much on your personal energy and expertise in the planning of social gatherings. You may feel burdened with too many of the details so necessary for a successful function. Some adjustment or adaptation to new routines, or a relinquishment of a personal interest, may be necessary to maintain peace and harmony.

Venus Sextile Saturn (Prg-Nat) Feb 13, 2003

This influence holds the promise of steady progress, long range financial benefits, and general improvement in business and personal affairs. Your emotional feelings are changing. They are leaning toward a solid, devotional, and resolute affectional nature. There is the possibility of finding the love relationship you long for -- one that is reliable, dependable, and trustworthy. This is a good time to cement an emotional bond with parents, friends, and other close ties. Opportunities may arise in which you will be offered a position as social director of an established company or a senior citizens' organization.

Scorpio on the Third Cusp

Where circumstances warrant it, you will always come through with your persuasive charm and refinement of speech. But, something has happened or will soon occur that will alter your communicative style. A close encounter or experience with death, a sexual rejection, or a frustrating emotional impact may reveal a somewhat cynical attitude. You have the capacity to accomplish a great deal through sheer persistence and will-power. You have a fertile imagination and can be fond of secrets, the mysterious, and the occult. Letter writing, phone calls, and short trips may be required in connection with social security benefits, insurance settlements, alimony, income tax, and inheritance. During this trend, a secret matter is likely to surround the affairs of a brother or sister.

Mars in Scorpio

There is an increase in magnetism with Mars' progressed position in Scorpio. You will, at times, have to guard against impulsive tendencies involving joint ventures. You may, out of anger or spite, sign or do something foolish that can heavily burden your monetary resources. Issues involving credit cards, mortgages, alimony, insurance benefits, loans, internal revenue, or taxes can be a source of gain or strain. Guard against destructive instincts of jealousy and suspicion. Learn to have complete faith in yourself and those in your immediate environment. This is an excellent placement for the study of mind-control, yoga, and other subjects concerned with self-discipline or research. The men who enter your life during this trend are likely to be secretive, difficult to know and understand, and may be overly jealous or possessive.

Mars in the Third House

Something has changed in your personal affairs to create a new mental outlook on life. You have become independent, aggressive, and decisive. This new resourcefulness assures quick thinking in emergency situations, but can also cause you to overreact in certain instances, jumping to conclusions and losing your temper through misinterpreting statements of others. Your first impulse is to tell that person off immediately. Invariably, you regret these actions. Make it a habit to count to ten before you make impulsive or impetuous judgments. There is increased mechanical ability. You will have ease in working with machinery related to the communication field, such as telephone, printing press, mail trucks, auto repair and assembly, or other transportation vehicles. Don't drive when you are angry or running behind schedule -- hasty driving can lead to reckless decisions and possible accidents. Be careful of what you say or write on paper to avoid disputes that may arise through these areas. Brothers and sisters can also be a source of dissension, or one of them may require surgery.

Mars Opposition Moon (Prg-Nat) Sep 13, 2002

You are likely to experience an emotional confrontation with a close attachment or with family members. Be discreet with the opposite sex, and curb the tendency to be short-tempered or irritable with those you love. Personal affairs and new undertakings should be carefully thought out, as they are likely to meet with obstacles and opposition. This trend is of short duration. It would be wise if you could put off signing papers or making important decisions until your judgment is more rational.

Mars Sesquiquadrate Uranus (Prg-Prg) Jun 13, 2003

You seem to project a highly nervous and irritable disposition. These stressful feelings and lack of tolerance with personal freedom will make it difficult in getting along with others. At times you may display erratic and impulsive behavior for no apparent reason. Try to remain calm, maintain a balanced attitude, and avoid aggressive tendencies. Such heated emotions can draw you into violent situations or lead to possible accidents through carelessness. This is a time for caution in all matters dealing with fireworks, electrical wiring or appliances, machinery, sharp tools, and automobiles. Be selective of your friends -- the wrong kind can get you into serious trouble. There is a possibility of a break-up or separation from close ties, friends, or family members.

Sagittarius on the Fourth Cusp

In all likelihood, one or both of the parents may do a lot of traveling, move to a distant city, become an instructor, or write published material. Or, you may do loads of writing, studying, or storage of published material in your home. If married, you will probably have activities centered around your marriage partner's side of the family, rather than your own. Should incidents arise in connection with legal action and your property, don't sign any important documents without the advice of a competent attorney.

Saturn in the Fourth House

You are becoming extremely security-minded with a strong desire for an organized life. You want to own property away from the close scrutiny of neighbors, surrounded by woods and land. You have the ability to save and accumulate money or possessions as you become more prudent in financial matters. A deep sense of responsibility appears to surround your home base. Perhaps your present environment is creating more work and upkeep than you first anticipated. Your mortgage payments may be burdensome. Or a parent may come to share your home, restricting your personal freedom and social life. Benefits are possible through a parent or other members of the family.

Capricorn on the Fifth Cusp

Any of the practical arts would be a good outlet for a hobby at this time, most especially ceramics, earthenware, and pottery. Your free-spirited manner in the romance department is ebbing. Something has changed your attitude. You have become more reserved and cautious. There is an invisible, protective wall around your heart that no one can penetrate. It is apparent that you must be assured of their feelings before you openly express yours. You may be drawn to those who are older, mature, or of professional standing. You are highly ambitious for your children to succeed. As a result, you may overly concern yourself with their affairs. You worry too much about your credit rating to invest unwisely. Certificates that produce higher interest rates after a prolonged period are your safest bet.

Moon in Capricorn

There is a noticeable change in your personality. An air of thoughtfulness and consideration colors your approach to everyday affairs, most especially where parents, bosses, and older individuals are concerned. There is a sense of duty and responsibility in the handling of your job-related tasks. Those in authority will recognize this change and decide that perhaps you may be ready for a supervisory position. You feel it is time to get your life in order and perhaps begin improvement on your personal appearance or seek new ways to advance in your professional career. In all likelihood, you will have contacts with older or depressing individuals, government officials, or those involved with politics. The most vulnerable health areas are the knees and the tendency toward despondency. Note the house position of your progressed Moon to determine the area of life most likely to be affected by this serious overtone.

Moon in the Fifth House

Emotional and affectional feelings are heightened in a manner you may not have experienced before. If married, you may become more loving and responsive to the needs of your partner. If single, this placement can open the door to new, romantic love affairs. There is likely to be a birth or some other situation involving children -- your own or those within your immediate family circle. A desire to establish future security and build a sounder nest egg may instigate a second look at investment programs. This house is associated with the eyes, heart, and back. It is possible that someone who is afflicted with any one of these problems will touch upon your life. This is a good time to evaluate your creative potential for possible extra earnings. Note the sign position of your progressed Moon for greater insight on children, hobbies, and investments.

Moon Sextile Mars (Prg-Prg) Mar 7, 2002

There is likely to be a noticeable increase of energy flow and activity into your life during the next three months. This is a good time to accept new and challenging ventures that you would not have considered in the past. Take advantage of your good health and increased vitality. Make positive changes in your personal affairs. You can advance through the application of your own merits and efforts during this trend.

Moon Trine Moon (Prg-Nat) Mar 18, 2002

The next three months should bring beneficial changes in personal affairs, business matters, or general conditions affecting domestic situations. Pleasant experiences are likely through women, and you should have great rapport with the general public. An enjoyable period, in which matters tend to flow freely without restriction and hindrances. A favorable trend for purchase or sale of property, and enlarging or remodeling of your home.

Moon Square Venus (Prg-Prg) Mar 26, 2002

During the next three months, more than any other time, you are likely to be misunderstood and easily hurt. You may be too sensitive, permitting personal feelings to dominate over reason. Matters concerned with close ties, romance, or associations may not be going as well as you would like. This is not the time to push for an ultimatum; it more than likely will end in a disagreement or separation. This is not the best time for dealing with the opposite sex, or with social or domestic affairs. Temporary financial setbacks may also pose a problem.

Moon Opposition Venus (Prg-Nat) May 27, 2002

You will have to be selective of close associations, friends, and the opposite sex during this short duration of three months. It can be a trying time for feelings and emotions, one that may call for a compromise and a yielding to the wishes of another to avoid a break-up or temporary separation. An emotional confrontation can result in hurt feelings, disappointments, or sorrow over what has been said or done. A possible disagreement over the handling of monetary or domestic affairs can create painful conflicts. It would be wise to avoid close contacts with women in general, until this trend has passed.

Moon Trine Mercury (Prg-Nat) Jun 13, 2002

Your mental energy is stimulated and flows with a positive influence. It should be easy at this time to learn and grasp more knowledge than usual -- to undertake, and pass, driving or written tests. This is a fortunate and successful period for all mental applications. Excellent for writing, handling of correspondence, and negotiations -- buying or selling of property and real estate. Be alert for new business opportunities. Favorable trends for traveling, and for affairs of siblings and other close relationships.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Jupiter (Prg-Nat) Oct 2, 2002

There is an inclination to spend more than you can afford, with the possibility of overextending yourself financially through extravagance. Although your intentions were good, you may discover that you have promised more than you can actually deliver. Irritability may be present in your make-up. During this trend it may be best to avoid too much contact with close associations and family ties. Watch your health, and don't overindulge or overexercise.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Jupiter (Prg-Prg) Oct 21, 2002

During this trend it may be best to avoid too much contact with close associations and family ties. Watch your health, and don't overindulge or overexercise.

Moon Quincunx Neptune (Prg-Nat) Dec 10, 2002

You may come in touch with undesirable people who may try to engulf you in a sticky or intriguing situation. They are not likely to have your best interests at heart. Guard against possible deception and deceit through the opposite sex. Be alert to conditions surrounding your environment or place of work. You may be sensitive to hidden elements that are difficult to detect (such as paints, gases, oils, fumes, or toxic waste material). If you feel "out of sorts," so to speak, and can't place your finger on the problem, get a physical check-up. Then get a second opinion to make sure there has not been an oversight with the first one.

Moon Quincunx Sun (Prg-Nat) Feb 11, 2003

Safeguard your health, as there may be a noticeable change in your physical stamina. It may be due to a stressful and emotional condition involving the care or responsibility of another individual. Or you may be working extra hours at your place of employment, with lots of hard or detailed work. You will have to make some kind of adaptation or adjustments in your daily routine if you are to handle all that will be required of you. It is not necessary to tackle all the problems alone. Seek the assistance of others, even if you have to lower your pride a bit in the asking of their help.

Moon Trine Mars (Prg-Nat) Feb 12, 2003

The following three months can be a highly productive period if your energy flow is properly directed. Make positive use of all opportunities that come your way. Be ambitious and enterprising, and push personal affairs toward new ventures and undertakings. Be assertive in changing your life-style or environment if you feel hindered in your present situation. This is a good time to travel, purchase a new car, or tackle projects that require extra energy.

Moon Quincunx Neptune (Prg-Prg) Feb 15, 2003

Moon Sesquiquadrate Midheaven (Prg-Prg) Mar 19, 2003

There is a possibility of undesirable changes in the domestic circle or through one's career. Emotional instability can push you into seeking an ultimatum from those you love the most. A new boss with whom you do not get along can cause emotional upsets. Affairs of grandparents or a parent may require your personal attention and concern. You may find yourself being drawn into the unpleasant task of resolving a family crisis. Parents can be quite demanding of your time and attention during this trend.

Moon Square Mercury (Prg-Prg) Mar 20, 2003

You will have to be careful when dealing with correspondences, documents, purchase agreements, contracts, or important phone calls. There may be some misleading statements or lack of clarity in verbal details that can easily be misunderstood. It would be wise to double check such matters during this trend. Negotiations, appointments, or business meetings are likely to undergo an upsetting change of plans. Too many projects can be demanding of your time and force a delay in promised deliveries. Should travel be necessary, use precaution by having the car checked in advance by a reliable mechanic. Disputes or matters of concern will surround the affairs of brothers, sisters, or other close ties. In general, these three months are not favorable for travel, purchase of a car, new ventures, or business.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Ascendant (Prg-Prg) Apr 7, 2003

Emotional and domestic difficulties, especially where women are concerned. They are likely to be a source of irritation or interference with personal plans. This could result in a break-up of close emotional ties -- perhaps a separation from a loved one or parent. If running for public office, it would be wise to seek the counsel of someone experienced in public relations. Your own image will not project as well as you would prefer. A PR person can help to smooth the rough edges.
