The Players: The 10 Planets

Part One: The Lead Roles

The Sun

The Sun is the center of our solar system. It generously shares its radiance with the other planets. In Astrology, the Sun is the heart of the chart. It points to ways that your relationship needs to confidently shine. Keep the fires of your Sun burning brightly and proudly together. Love will follow. Happiness will fill your minds, bodies and souls. The Sun stands for ego needs, will power and creative vitality.

Forget your own Sun signs for the moment, Jane and Ted.

Your shared Sun sign could be different than your individual Sun signs. Remember that we are talking about your combined Sun. It is the fusion of your two hearts.

Sun in Sagittarius

A Sign is a psychological process through which a planet operates. As a couple, being solarized through the sign Sagittarius gives your relationship a happy-go-lucky life philosophy. The keyword phrase for Sagittarius in traditional astrology is "I understand." It is not enough to just be together. The two of you want to explore the meaning of life. This can find you traveling vast distances in the mental or physical worlds. You can inspire a sharing of your most noble ideas. Do the two of you sometimes feel spontaneously compelled to speak your frankest opinions? You probably encourage each other to seek knowledge.

Your tour through life as companions shows two sets of eyes eagerly searching for truth. The student in each of you is never far away. Learning is a turn on. When you first met you could have talked for hours. The pursuit of new self-discoveries is constantly whispering its tempting voice in your ears.

Your relationship has the capacity to instill faith in others. A dedication to your highest values endears you to each other. Enthusiasm is something you look for in one another. It is as essential to you as breath itself. Your bursts of optimism can inspire confidence in the most difficult of times. It's that impeccable faith you possess that brings positive outcomes, and brings others to call you lucky.

You might think that the word, options, was invented just for you. Neither of you likes to feel there is only one way to do a job. The hunger for expansive growth adds fuel to the passion for self-understanding at the heart of this relationship.

Don't judge each other! This can be tempting in the midst of idealistic fires. Express your opinions without demanding they be dogmatically followed. The four lane highways of Sagittarius need not be traveled as though they have converged into one. There is room on this super highway for opposing opinions.

Why expect the impossible? Share your needs and desires but try to avoid looking for unrealistic miracles. Your partner is not perfect, but still has some great qualities. You both dislike hiding your feelings. Some tact in asking for needed changes may be better than always being direct.

Try to avoid biting off more than you can chew. It's impossible to be all things to all people. Juggling too many life directions could put a lot of tension on the relationship. Several paths are fine. Just make sure there is a regular meeting place where your minds can meet.

Your faith in each other can move mountains. There is a sincere desire to get to know one another on the most intimate of levels. Communication is your greatest ally. You influence your partner to confidently express creativity.

Your creative vitality inspires positive thoughts about life and each other. Your shared love in living zestfully is contagious. You are natural romantics needing little encouragement to seek happiness. You can be fulfilled in walking through new exciting doorways together.

Sun in the Eleventh House

Freedom, friendship and future goals are highlighted in a big way. You inspire each other to bravely move in new directions. Your relationship tends to be goal-oriented. Riding unpredictable waves of change can simultaneously scare and thrill you. Living for the moment is more exciting to the two of you than worrying about the past. You can show an inventive streak that points the way to keeping your love refreshed. Unconventional sparks fly frequently from your minds.

Peers are stimulating to your lives. People can find you to be full of surprising ideas. Unique individual goals may bring shared excitement. Your ability to work together in unusual ways might be enjoyable. A loyal friendship could be at the root of your relationship.

Mutual respect for independence encourages closeness. Both of you have a talent for bringing new life to groups or individuals. This is a partnership that helps to brainstorm alternative ideas. Each of you can enjoy following new trends. There is no real eagerness to follow in the footsteps of others.

Too much aloofness can hide emotions. A preoccupation with self-absorbed thoughts causes distance. Living exclusively in anticipation of the future can cause a disoriented present.

Support for each other's goals keeps you communicating. Share your visions of the future. Don't always walk alone in your own head. Allow each other to voice opinions. Look for new creative options to old problems. Support the freedom needs of one another, and you will have a friend forever!

The Moon

Countless song lyrics, poems and lofty dreams have been inspired through gazing at the Moon. The Moon's sign and house position represents the intimacy and feelings you share with each other. Establishing a sense of security and a home are other lunar sides of life. The Moon symbolizes the imagination you share from your inner landscapes.

Moon in Virgo

With your relationship Lunarized through the sign Virgo, you share an allegiance to the work ethic. You probably believe there is no sense in doing a job if you are not going to give it your best effort. You can possess a keen awareness of each other's emotions. Concern for each other's health is endearing. There can be a strong interest in diet and staying physically fit. Exercise sure is a big help in working off nervous energies.

A sharing of practical skills and know-how is something you can do for each other. You can enjoy taking workshops or classes together. Learning how to integrate your knowledge can pay dividends. You can be helpful in giving your partner business advice. Don't be in a hurry to give your critique of the other's job performances unless you do so delicately. Criticism could be taken the wrong way if delivered insensitively.

Be sure to rest at home, as well as work on projects. Learning to share household responsibilities makes you feel you are part of the same team. Creating order where you live probably is good for your mental health.

Have you grown tired of waiting for your partner to be perfect? Neither one of you will ever be free from making a mistake. Keep your expectations reasonable. You can't do the impossible. The two of you are conscientious about fulfilling your obligations. Others will appreciate your sincerity in taking responsibility seriously.

Beware of becoming a workaholic. There is a temptation to push yourselves endlessly until a project is completed. Being too attached to endless details can produce a lot of working overtime. Be sure to make time for fun experiences.

Let your imaginations guide you to support each other's desire for growth. Listen with an open ear and communicate with an open heart. This will keep you fond of each other.

Moon in the Ninth House

Ideas are constantly flowing back and forth between you. Your imaginations can intrigue one another. You don't like to hear that something is impossible for the two of you to accomplish together. A restlessness to travel and explore is at the heart of your relationship. Your values and beliefs travel much of the same mental air space.

Your home makes an excellent place for frequent travelers to visit. There could be a nomadic or gypsy impulse to live in a foreign country, or at least to visit faraway locations. Accepting individual differences adds spice to your partnership. There is no end to the new territory you can discover in each other's minds. Sharing a wealth of information expands your horizons.

Your friends are likely to be many. You meet people while on the go. Your willingness to live for today can motivate others to act on their own dreams. Confidence is never a distant stranger in your relationship. You might be looking for one another to give you a vote of confidence when life feels like climbing a steep hill. You can't help but believe in your partner.

Breaking routines helps keep life fresh. You both get nervous if life gets too mundane. An element of unpredictability keeps you enthusiastic.

Stay clear from offering each other too much unsolicited advice. You prefer to be allowed to first request help before it is given. There is an independent streak that you both probably cherish.

Let your intuition lead you to walk many paths together. Stay focused on the big picture and the little things will likely fall into place.

The Ascendant

We are taking a short intermission from the planets to introduce you to an additional key part of your relationship. The Ascendant or Rising Sign is the sign that starts the 1st house of the chart. The Ascendant is one of the twelve signs with a special role serving as an ambassador. It acts as a persona or mask for an individual or a relationship. The Ascendant is the personality through which we interact with the world.

The Ascendant is the way we appear to others. It is their first impressions of us. You meet someone and he or she seems to be confident, shy, talkative, cheerful, etc. The same can be said for a couple. The two people might seem theatrical, dreamy, or businesslike.

Ascendant in Capricorn

People may see the two of you as serious and all business. You are more fun when you let your hair down and interact spontaneously. Ambition is personified in your faces. Career can be a key topic of interest. Others might marvel at your determination and focus. You act responsibly and expect this from those you know. Managing your time is an automatic response. Making decisions can be done through adopting carefully laid out strategies. Leadership positions are waiting to have your names on an office door. You can be respected for your commitment to what you promise.

The Part of Fortune

Your Sun, Moon and Ascendant can be combined or blended into a cosmic alchemy, known as the Part of Fortune. This is not a planet, but rather a reference point in the chart. The Arabian astrologers of the Middle Ages are given credit for its discovery. The Part of Fortune is said to show where we can expect to find good fortune and even luck. Do we really need to take a look at something from the long ago past, if it will serve as nothing more than a relic to hang on the wall? A translation of this ancient symbol into modern terms makes this symbol worth investigating. Why? Because it can give clues to special paths that lead to harmony and a spirit of feeling united.

Think of the Part of Fortune as the potential corridor leading to Opportunity. It is a way to read the pulse rate of the partnership, indicating ways to reach a shared sense of fulfillment.

Part of Fortune in Libra

Your shared love of people makes good things happen. The two of you are gifted in pleasing the public. Relationships with friends and business peers add a special dimension to your lives. The effort you make to be active players in each other's lives demonstrates your dynamic relationship. Your partnership can be a lighthouse when you go through emotional seas. The romantic pulse of your hearts wants to be expressed in creating loving atmospheres. It is when you are decisive that life sends you good fortune.

Part of Fortune in the Ninth House

The expansive directions you choose to walk together fill you with a sense of awe. Learning is the catalyst to your self-discovery. Your ideas can move others to agree with you. There is a persuasive spirit that emanates from your minds that people find hard to ignore. Your love for teaching and sharing knowledge kindles an adventurous creative spark that ignites good fortune. Your fiery zeal to live out your highest beliefs brings you greater mental wealth and increases your resources. It is your positive thoughts that are the backbone of your vision.

Part Two: The Supporting Cast

Jupiter

The largest planet in the sky is Jupiter. This happy-go-lucky cosmic giant is more than twice the size of all the other planets put together. Jupiter spins on its axis with great enthusiasm, doing this faster than any other planet. Jupiter's sign and house denote themes related to learning, optimism, travel, philosophical beliefs, luck and generosity. Inspiration that flows between two people can be traced to our good-natured friend in the sky.

You both need plenty of leeway in making your decisions. Each of you would rather chance the consequences of your own choices than be guided too much by the rules of others.

This is a romantic liaison rich in personality. You make quite an impression on people. There is an atmosphere of wealth or royalty in your faces no matter the reality of your financial situation. Life seems to click when you spontaneously initiate new directions.

Saturn

Astronomers say that if Saturn fell from the sky it is light enough to float on an ocean. Some people dread hearing about where Saturn is in their chart more than they do going to the dentist! The fortune tellers of old always painted this planet with "heavy" interpretations. They presented this planet as being a god of doom and gloom. In modern astrology, this motif denotes endurance and ambition. In mythology, Saturn was Chronos, the god of time, reflecting the wisdom that can be learned from past experiences. You could say Saturn is a "Cosmic Chiropractor", showing adjustments needing to be made along life's way. There can be frustration in repeating the same mistakes. Saturn's sign and house themes are associated with Commitment and Reality-Testing. The two of you may find clues here about how you define your relationship roles. Career drive is a Saturn hallmark. Saturn shadows are fear, rigidity and a need to be compulsively controlling. There is no longevity without partners dealing with the symbolism of this particular celestial wanderer. With a lot of practice and patience the two of you can get good in making this side of your relationship flow--honest! Saturn can become more a god of Success!

Saturn in Aries

Taking charge of situations does not scare either of you. You make a good team when it comes to pushing for a golden opportunity that leads to success. People might admire the initiative you show. Playing it safe is not usually going to be your first option. The two of you may become role models for others. You display spontaneous courage to accomplish a plan. Keeping your wits about yourselves in the midst of stressful storms comes with practice.

Experience teaches you to think carefully before impulsively launching long-range strategies. You both likely have serious career aspirations. There may be a competitive streak in you that wants to accomplish more than others. You certainly incite a call to action in each other.

You take pride in your commitment to one another. If one of you gets too self-absorbed, the other will react strongly. You are two people that need to feel you are in control of your lives. Running your own business is possible. In work environments, you both desire extra latitude to call your own shots.

You need to pay attention to your schedules. It will be upsetting if you can't find enough time to play together. The two of you will not find it easy to force your will on one another. Right from the start, adopting a policy of shared leadership is wise. Walking hand-in-hand through new challenges brings you closer.

Saturn in the Third House

The two of you can display sound reasoning powers. Your focus is extra sharp when a subject grabs your attention. People probably consider you knowledgeable in your chosen fields of expertise. You do better with taking short steps in executing your plans. The timing you show in decision-making can be excellent. The two of you likely possess a keen sense of reality. You might need to escape from your minds though senseless pleasure!

Your livelihoods could be connected to communication. Each of you can command respect through what you say. Talking to one another about ambitions is a probability. It is a must to let your partner make up their own mind about very personal issues. Your differences of opinion will require open minds. Your conversations can easily be about business ideas. There are a multitude of enterprises that might strike you as feasible.

Education may open doors for you. Getting retrained may make you more marketable. Your desire to stick to a plan is strong. It takes a lot to talk you out of trying to fulfill your most cherished blueprints for success.

Some may see you as a couple exhibiting flexibility. You don't enjoy being pinned down by a schedule. Redefining a direction, or slightly altering it, can save you time and frustration in the long run. If you get scattered by following too many paths; you will need to get focused. You are both uncomfortable when you don't feel understood. There is a preference for no cards to be face down. You can enjoy the mental energy each of you puts forward in your relationship.

Uranus

Try to visualize a maverick planet orbiting on its side, whereas the other planets sit straight up and down. Uranus! Part Three: Planetary Aspects

It's time now to mention another technical side of your report. (If you don't like technical explanations, skip right to the Aspect Interpretations). You have already been introduced to the ten planets. Certain planetary pairs in your chart have a special relationship to one another due to particular angular distances separating them, known as aspects. You could almost say the two planets in an aspect travel and interact together along the same circuit. The following aspect interpretations or descriptions will be listed under five types. Two are known as the soft aspects: the sextile (60 degrees) and trine (120 degrees). These two aspects generally point to more gentle themes found in your relationship. They indicate a lower voltage of electricity and produce less friction. The planets involved in a trine or sextile are more likely to be areas where you flow together without much effort.

The more hard or intense aspects are the conjunction (0 degrees), square (90 degrees) and opposition (180 degrees). They require our understanding and will point to key ways the two of you must communicate and negotiate. Planets that are part of an intense aspect will show how you energize one another. These higher voltage aspects don't mean you want to avoid them, but more so to develop a true understanding of how to use this energy constructively. "Soft" does not mean good and "intense" does not imply bad. It is often the more intense aspects that deepen the bond of a partnership. The interpretation of any planetary aspect depends greatly on the symbolism of the two planets forming an aspect.

It might be helpful to keep some key words in mind for the aspects. The sextile is a promise of Excitement and Eagerness. The planets in this aspect give clues how your energies support one another. The trine is a special Harmony shown by two planets. There is often positive regard for one another that comes spontaneously. We expect good things to be delivered in the trine.

The conjunction is where two planets are joined at the hip. There is a Fusion or powerful blending of these two energies. The square can reveal where you will encounter Friction in your relationship. Pay special attention to these aspects, as they are opportunities for growth as much as discord. The opposition requires a Balancing act. It is similar to a seesaw. Each of you may find yourselves taking turns in acting out one planet or the other.

It might be helpful to refer to Parts One and Two to refresh your memory about the meaning of the Planets, Ascendant and Midheaven, as you read the aspects that follow. Remember that it is usually the more intense aspects that stretch us the most. The more positively you use these challenging planetary combinations the greater will be your understanding of each other.

Note that a planet might be involved in several different aspects. In other words, the planet is interfacing its energies with numerous other planets (or even with the Ascendant or Midheaven). A "heavily aspected planet" plays a key role in your relating to each other.

The Nodes of the Moon are not planets. They are a celestial polarity offering clues to your connection on the soul level. Think of it as your own "psychic friends network." If this sounds too mystical or corny, just think of the Nodes as a shared frequency level in your partnership. It doesn't mean you get psychic flashes about each other. Much of this link between your minds is probably on a subconscious level. The Nodes usually play an active part in our closest relationships. The longer we are in a relationship with a particular person, the more these two energies come into our conscious awareness.
