Life Progressions

We are born into an existing progression of change, through which we evolve and grow during our lifetime. Being conscious of our position in this succession of change helps us more clearly define and understand ourselves. An awareness of our current life situation relative to a larger, evolving chain of events helps us negotiate the challenges that confront us in our daily lives.

This Life Progression report (based on the technique of Secondary progressions) describes experiences and understandings relative to particular aspects, thus depicting the effect of these planetary aspects on an individual. The report covers a period of at least one year. The time period covered by the text varies according to the nature of the astrological event associated with each paragraph. A paragraph referring to a progressed Moon will cover a much shorter period than one referring to the zodiacal sign on a progressed house cusp. This report is intended to enhance the natal chart, not to replace it. The two go hand-in-hand. The progressed chart brings to fruition the promises of the natal chart.

Report for Tiger Woods Your Life Progressions for Jun 01, 2004

Libra on the First Cusp

A strong desire for companionship and sociability prevails. You are desirous of maintaining peace and harmony at all costs. You try to be just and fair when making decisions, as you attempt to see both sides of an issue. Women are likely to enter your life, helping or hindering personal or business affairs. You may be called upon to attend social functions or group-related activities (conventions or business meetings) in connection with your vocation. You prefer working in collaboration with others, rather than alone. As a result you may be drawn into a partnership or work in close association with groups of people. There is the possibility of entering marriage. For those already married, issues surrounding your partner will require your undivided attention. Be sure to maintain balance in your system by drinking plenty of water, which may help prevent possible kidney problems. The position of your progressed ascendant ruler, Venus, will provide additional insight into circumstances and motivational influences touching your life at this time.

Uranus in the First House

Expect the unexpected, for herein starts an eventful life. It will be difficult to maintain a steady routine existence as many changes and happenings are likely to occur from time to time. You are becoming independent in thought, action, and deed, and will form your own opinions regardless of what others may think of them. There is a natural curiosity connected with the unusual, the bizarre, and the unconventional. Circumstances will introduce new and interesting friends into your social circle. In many cases, some will leave just as quickly as they entered. You may want to start or join a professional or fraternal organization. The field of technology, aeronautics, computers, television, radio, CBs, or astrology will touch upon your life during this time.

Scorpio on the Second Cusp

You are becoming more energetic and resourceful in your ability to increase personal finances. Greater secrecy surrounds your monetary affairs. You have learned from the past that family and certain other people may try to borrow funds from you. You have become more astute in requesting papers to be signed with definite rules for repayment, if and when you do make loans. Your monetary situation will undergo periodic changes. Your partner may retire or seek disability compensation. You may gain through inheritance, alimony, or insurance benefits. From time to time, you will have to contact your insurance agent for weather damages to your home or accidents with your car. Be sure to keep records intact in case of IRS auditing. This is an excellent placement for gain from the resources of others.

Neptune in the Second House

You'll have to remain on your toes and alert at all times where personal finances are concerned. Matters can get so confused, even when you are not at fault. Bank statements can get lost or computers go haywire, indicating insufficient funds and setting you off into a state of frenzy trying to prove you are not in error. Save all receipts, especially medical and hospital bills. Keep your pay stubs until the promised raise or bonus has been received, or the overtime paid. Being gullible at this time will not merit you financial gains. Hidden or unforeseen monetary rewards will surprise you -- a forgotten dividend check is received or a friend pays back an old loan. Whatever the case may be, you will experience this from time to time. For one reason or another, you may be tempted to have a secret savings account or hide money away that no one knows about. You will get more enjoyment out of your personal funds if you can afford a cottage by the lake, a trailer in the woods, or a small boat for fishing.

Sagittarius on the Third Cusp

Bitter resentments of past hurts are slowly diminishing as you develop a strong sense of justice and optimism. Religion, social values, and philosophical subjects become pronounced. Your good natured-attitude may find you promising more than you can actually deliver. As a result, you may find yourself backed up against the wall, wondering how you got yourself in such a predicament. You are more apt to have communications with people in faraway places, foreigners, or those of a different race. During this trend it is possible a brother or sister may move to a distant city. You are likely to have more contact with relatives of your marriage partner. You have to be careful that differences in opinions do not lead to quarrels and misunderstandings with close kin.

Moon in Capricorn

There is a noticeable change in your personality. An air of thoughtfulness and consideration colors your approach to everyday affairs, most especially where parents, bosses, and older individuals are concerned. There is a sense of duty and responsibility in the handling of your job-related tasks. Those in authority will recognize this change and decide that perhaps you may be ready for a supervisory position. You feel it is time to get your life in order and perhaps begin improvement on your personal appearance or seek new ways to advance in your professional career. In all likelihood, you will have contacts with older or depressing individuals, government officials, or those involved with politics. The most vulnerable health areas are the knees and the tendency toward despondency. Note the house position of your progressed Moon to determine the area of life most likely to be affected by this serious overtone.

Moon in the Third House

This is one of the busiest trends of your life. Activities are centered around frequent short trips, phone calls, and letter-writing. Direct your restless mind into new channels. Golfing, model-making, knitting, or study courses will aid in keeping from fretting about insignificant worries. An emotional bond may be formed between yourself and a sibling or neighbor. Do not permit your mind to dwell on past slights or what you feel was a personal affront or criticism. The sign position of your progressed Moon may disclose positive outlets for mental expressions and studies.

Moon Conjunction Venus (Prg-Prg) Jan 18, 2004

This should be a pleasurable three-month period in which everything goes well. You may be feeling rather content, peaceful, and happy. Social affairs are activated with baby showers, weddings, the theater, or just dining out with close friends. Your emotions and feelings are aroused and eager for new and lasting attachments. Opportunities are favored for meeting someone special, getting engaged, married, or receiving gifts and invitations. This type of energy is especially helpful for those in the mood for interior decorating, entertaining, having their hair styled, or purchasing new clothes. A fairly good period for finances, investments, and purchases in general.

Moon Sextile Uranus (Prg-Nat) May 2, 2004

You may be highly intuitive, inspirational, and inventive during this trend. Make the most of all unexpected opportunities that may come your way. Expand your horizons through new interest or studies, especially the technical or unusual kind such as electronics, computers, or astrology. New, magnetic, stimulating, and unconventional friends and associations will be made. Enlarge social contact by joining clubs and organizations. Expect sudden and drastic changes which may be disturbing at first, yet beneficial in many ways.

Moon Sextile Uranus (Prg-Prg) May 22, 2004

Expect sudden and drastic changes which may be disturbing at first, yet beneficial in many ways.

Moon Conjunction Sun (Prg-Nat) Jul 13, 2004

A new cycle of experience is being introduced into your life. For preventive measures, it might be a good idea to get a health check-up and encourage others with whom you have a close bond to do the same. You will want to be in the best of health and mental frame of mind to tackle the new activities or directions that lie in the near future. You can expect these changes to affect business, personal affairs, close relationships, or environmental conditions. You may feel a restless urging to seek new associations or discard old and outmoded ones. There is the possibility of relocating, moving, or establishing new business techniques. An inner feeling of self-confidence will help you in determining your goals and objectives.

Moon Square Pluto (Prg-Prg) Sep 26, 2004

Emotional outbursts may be unleashed against those whom you feel are trying either to dominate you or to create changes that are upsetting to your environment. Although these changes may be necessary in the scheme of things, you may find it difficult adjusting to them. The altering of these conditions may result in separation from loved ones, and finding it hard to let go. It may be parents moving to a distant city, a child getting married, loss of an older member of the family, or a divorce. Whatever the circumstances, your domestic and emotional feelings will undergo an intense change.

Moon Square Pluto (Prg-Nat) Sep 26, 2004

Emotional outbursts may be unleashed against those whom you feel are trying either to dominate you or to create changes that are upsetting to your environment. Although these changes may be necessary in the scheme of things, you may find it difficult adjusting to them. Whatever the circumstances, your domestic and emotional feelings will undergo an intense change.

Moon Quincunx Mars (Prg-Prg) Jan 2, 2005

These three months can yield constructive energy if applied wisely. You will be able to accomplish much in the way of hard work or the handling of difficult tasks. Be discreet with the opposite sex, and forego new attachments until this trend has passed. This is not the best time for travel, working with mechanical equipment, or machinery. Avoid excitement and overactivity, especially if you exercise.

Moon Square Jupiter (Prg-Nat) Jan 11, 2005

Self-control is the theme word during these three months. You are likely to exude an air of overconfidence and expansiveness. There is the possibility of exceeding expenditures through extravagant purchases. This short trend is not conducive for legal matters, signing important papers or contracts, travel, higher education, religious disputes, or negotiations. Apply moderation in all things. Avoid making unnecessary changes and take care of your health. Don't overeat or drink too much, and guard against strenuous exercises.

Moon Square Ascendant (Prg-Prg) Apr 13, 2005

Emotional and domestic difficulties, especially where women are concerned. They are likely to be a source of irritation or interference with personal plans. This could result in a break-up of close emotional ties -- perhaps a separation from a loved one or parent. If running for public office, it would be wise to seek the counsel of someone experienced in public relations. Your own image will not project as well as you would prefer. A PR person can help to smooth the rough edges.

Avoid making unnecessary changes and take care of your health. Don't overeat or drink too much, and guard against strenuous exercises.

Moon Opposition Midheaven (Prg-Prg) Jun 7, 2005

There is an emotional pull between family responsibilities and career interests. You may have to find a way in which to blend the two areas together. Changes are likely to affect your immediate environment, through the possibility of moving or enlargement of your present home. Purchase or sale of property may also be given consideration.

Moon Trine Ascendant (Prg-Nat) Sep 20, 2005

Emotional stability and good judgment can open the door to new opportunities for advancement. Seek positive changes in all directions of life, whether vocational, domestic, or personal. You exude great rapport at this time. Social contacts with women, and the general public, can produce beneficial results. Family matters should be on even keel, with a general feeling of contentment.

Moon Conjunction Mercury (Prg-Prg) Oct 6, 2005

A very active and busy period, involving a variety of interests that will make it difficult to concentrate on one particular subject. People, phone calls, and correspondence will make inroads on your time and result in wasted energy, unless you stand firm on your priorities. This can be a highly productive time for buying & selling, writing, studying, attending lectures, seminars, or speaking at conventions. Advance business interests and negotiate contracts. Changes may require adjustments to new routines. Take time out to visit brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, and other close relatives. Accept new friends into your social circle, and do a bit of traveling. Take advantage of these few months to seek intellectual pursuits for mental improvement.

Moon Conjunction Mercury (Prg-Nat) Nov 16, 2005

Changes may require adjustments to new routines. Take time out to visit brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, and other close relatives. Accept new friends into your social circle, and do a bit of traveling. Take advantage of these few months to seek intellectual pursuits for mental improvement.

Venus in Capricorn

This new position of Venus, by progression into Capricorn, may cool and control the emotional nature. There appears to be an invisible barrier that you have built around yourself. Perhaps you have been recently hurt or rejected, resulting in mistrust and suspicion of others. You will need constant encouragement and reassurance before you permit yourself to enter into a meaningful relationship. This is an excellent placement for those who are ambitious and are seeking public recognition. Bosses and others in authority are impressed with your dignified manner and may assist in your advancement. New vocational interests or changes may require you to attend frequent social functions. Mature women or individuals of Capricorn coloring can be of help or hindrance in your career.

Venus in the Third House

Diplomatic or public relations work could be your forte at this time. You are gracious and well mannered, and communicate well through the written or spoken word. You do not sit in judgment of others or reach major decisions until you have thoroughly evaluated both sides of the issues at hand. You are drawn toward the intellectual and cultural pursuits. There may be some creative ability in the field of art, literature, poetry, or music. Short travels can be both pleasurable and profitable -- more so if accompanied by a companion, for you dislike traveling alone. Mutual benefits can be derived from brothers or sisters, either directly or indirectly.

Capricorn on the Fourth Cusp

This is the sign of culmination, where matters come to a head. Old stagnant conditions involving personal projects, a family member, or a parent will be finalized. This is the time to establish good relationships between yourself and a parent. Don't continue to handle those difficult tasks alone. It is time for others to take some of the burdens and responsibilities off your shoulders. If you are thinking of purchasing property, no doubt you will want one surrounded by woods and in an isolated area. During this trend, there will be times when you will feel emotionally drained, lonely, and perhaps personally restricted by parents or small children who demand constant attention.

Sun in Aquarius

Your progressed Sun in Aquarius will introduce a whole new perspective in your manner of thinking and speaking. You are tired of the past doldrums connected with work, responsibility, and the nose to the grindstone existence. The past conditioning that colored your nature with serious overtones will always bear its stamp. Your strength of character and stability, however, will be heightened with a friendly, cheerful, and positive outlook. Government or public contact will have less influence on your vocation than it has in the past. You are eager to expand your circle of acquaintances. Try to help your marriage partner or other close ties understand your need and desire to broaden your outlook on life to make new friends, and to join or play an active role in group activities or organizations, and your need for personal freedom to pursue these newfound interests. Friends, especially men of unique character or a little bit eccentric, will touch upon your life.

Sun in the Fourth House

Family and domestic interests are intensified. You long for a beautiful home that truly reflects your status in life, one that you can display with pride and dignity to family and friends. Your doors are always open to children who may come and go freely and feel comfortable in your surroundings. A child or a family member will have a job or other connection with real estate or the building trade. A strong emotional bond will develop with a parent or through an emotionally sensitive male relationship. Your inner sense of security is tied to events that occurred during your formative years. It appears that owning a home continues to provide the protective influence of your younger days. It can be a place to retreat from the trials and tribulations of the outside world.

Mercury Retrograde

Mercury is the planet of mental application. It has changed direction since its placement at birth and is now retrograde in motion. Certain prevailing conditions in your life may alter your present state of mind. You may feel compelled to change your mental attitude. Thought and action may be re-routed into new avenues of expression. You may (or perhaps already have) give serious consideration to immediate changes within the environment. Affairs regarding brothers and sisters may require your personal attention.

Mercury in the Fourth House

There is a new shift of activity developing within the home base. Equipment connected with printing, books, or the communicative industry (computers, compact copiers, videos, cassettes, or other sound-producing mechanical devices) may dominate one of the rooms in your home. More than one telephone outlet will be necessary to handle the many phone calls. You may even have to resort to an answering machine. Whatever your occupation, you'll find yourself tackling lots of paper work within the confines of your home environment. At some point you may have to deal with brothers or sisters in connection with parental affairs. Aunts, uncles, and cousins may also play an important role in family relationships.

Aquarius on the Fifth Cusp

You may feel a profound interest in working with groups of people. They can provide the backdrop for such hobbies as astrology, computer clubs, or building model airplanes. Convention is going out the door as the romance department takes on a new coloring. You appear to be seeking the unconventional and different in style and appearance. Willingness on the part of others to do the unexpected is exciting to you. Working with groups of children may be in your near future. Expect the unexpected in actions and decisions concerned with the affairs of your children. Should investments interest you, try products dealing with aeronautics, computers, video, radio, television, or electronics.

Pisces on the Sixth Cusp

You feel intuitively that your future calls for a change in your vocation. If in the past you have worked in the medical or institutional field, you may consider returning to that profession. Others may go for psychiatry, photography, or merely operating a beverage store or a bar. Environmental conditions appear to have a strong influence on your state of mind and ability to handle your work-related tasks. Arguments, confusion, and frequent upheavals at work can play havoc with your nervous system. Try to avoid those that upset you emotionally, mentally, or physically to prevent any reaction on your health.

Jupiter in the Sixth House

There is great success regarding employment matters, as the element of luck provides a protective influence. Your organizing ability is enhanced, and there is genial rapport with co-workers and with those in authority. A cheerful attitude and a willingness to cooperate draws favorable reactions, opening the door to new opportunities and advancements. You may have to return to college or take specialized courses in connection with your job. Travel or communications with distant cities is possible. You may find yourself teaching or writing, or in association with the printing or publication industry. You have good recuperative powers with a built-in antenna that forewarns you of pending health problems. Legal action may result through domestic pets or job discrimination.

Jupiter Opposition Ascendant (Prg-Prg) Apr 17, 2005

You tend to overestimate yourself and, in the process, take on more projects than you can adequately handle. Invariably your endeavors go unfinished and promises are broken, giving you the reputation of being somewhat undependable. Be wary of false friends -- those who try to use you to their own advantage. Conflicts are likely with people who may be opposed to your ideas. The desire to be of importance can lead to expanded views and extravagant tendencies. Blood disorders, liver complaints, or growth of tumors may be associated with this trend.

Aries on the Seventh Cusp

New individuals and associates of the aggressive, independent, and decisive type are likely to enter your life during this trend. You may see a changing situation developing in partnerships, marriage, or business. They are starting to take the lead in personal actions and enterprise. Compromise will be the theme word to avoid confrontations when you feel they are getting too bossy. Your social life should take an active upward trend.

Taurus on the Eighth Cusp

Money and valued possessions will come your way from time to time, through the resources of others. Insurance claims are likely to be settled in your behalf. There is the possibility of an inheritance or expensive gifts from others. Because you give of yourself freely and completely in sexual relationships, you see nothing wrong in receiving monetary compensation in exchange. In fact, if a gift is not given or if you are not taken out to dinner, you may feel as though the other person doesn't care enough.

Mars in the Eighth House

You have tremendous willpower that can help you advance through unusual or specialized capabilities. Circumstances in life are likely to occur that require you to take the lead or apply personal action in connection with joint finances. The manner in which certain monetary affairs are handled or spent can be a source of friction from time to time between you and your spouse, business partner, or others connected with joint financial issues. This placement is associated with accidents that may require the intervention of an insurance agent. A male influence or an aggressive type of individual may assist with financial gain or encourage impulsive spending.

Gemini on the Ninth Cusp

If you are in higher education at this time, in all likelihood you will change your major and even your college in mid-term. You may be doing a great deal of letter writing or phone calling to a brother or sister in a distant city. Legal action is likely regarding a bus, car, motorcycle, or a neighbor.

Cancer on the Tenth Cusp

Direct contact with the general public may become a part of your new professional duties. You may find yourself working with very young babies or senior citizens. Real estate, foods, or beverages may also be a source of vocational interests. This is an excellent time to strengthen the emotional bonds between you and a parent.

Saturn in the Tenth House

This is not the time to branch out into new and untried territories. While it is true that you may be feeling somewhat hampered, hindered, or restricted in your choice of career, in due time those in authority will recognize your excellent organizational and managerial abilities. This is the time to set higher standards for yourself and to work diligently toward that goal. This placement is often associated with additional burdens or responsibilities, longer working hours, and -- on occasion -- evening or night time duties may be required. There may be a shift from working with younger people to those more serious or advanced in age. Or, you may seek employment with an older, highly respected and well-established corporation. Parents, influential people, and those affiliated with city government or politics may play an important role in your life or career.

Leo on the Eleventh Cusp

Your ego requires positive expression -- this may come through the holding of a high position with honors and esteem in some special club or organization. You exude a dramatic flair when working with groups of people and would, therefore, make a good entertainer or instructor. This sign is associated with step-children or daughter- and son-in-laws who have children from a previous marriage or relationship.

Virgo on the Twelfth Cusp

Working behind the scenes in places of confinement (such as hospitals, institutions, or jails) is possible. You cannot function well in an atmosphere of chaos and confusion. You can handle detailed matters with great efficiency if there is no one to disturb your train of thought or your methodical handling of tasks. You can locate any source of information intuitively, until someone starts rummaging through your desk or office material. This sign is associated with psychological health problems that are often expanded out of proportion.

Pluto in the Twelfth House

There will be a strong desire to work in secrecy, do research, or study subjects of a mysterious nature. There is an inclination to delve into the supernatural and unusual phenomena. Mysticism, yoga, and mind control are just a few of the topics that may hold your interest. This is also a period that calls for intense internal readjustment. You may be required to rid yourself of old and useless items and ideas. A school, college, the armed forces, or an institution may be involved with your transformation. You will learn to suppress or overcome your fears, change or alter some physical aspect of your body or style of dress, and rid yourself of bad habits. Guard against gullibility where joint finances are concerned. This is not the time to co-sign for monetary concerns involving others. Whatever you loan out, materially or financially, is not likely to be repaid or returned.
