Your Planetary Day

While the calendar we use in the West dates from the 1500s, the seven days of the week have repeated without interruption for over two millennia. From ancient times, each day of the week has been associated with the Sun, Moon or one of the five visible planets. The weekday on which you were born shows where you stand in this ancient seven-fold cycle, and gives you a special link with the quality of its planetary ruler.

You were born on a Wednesday.

This is the day of Mercury, well known as the messenger of the gods and ruler of intelligence, communication, transportation and commerce. Mercury also rules mediumship, magic and the mantic arts, and was the guider of souls in the underworld. In English, Wednesday is named after the great Norse god Woden, who much like Mercury was associated with writing, wisdom, poetry, and also with prophecy, magic, shape-shifting and disguise. Dual in nature, Mercury rules trickery as well as truth, and is as hard to pin down as his metal, quicksilver. The German name for Wednesday means simply mid-week, and of the seven directions of space, Mercury signifies the middle. In the Kabbalah, Mercury is associated with Raphael, the civilizing angel. “Wednesday’s child is full of woe.” — Harper’s Weekly, 1887.

About Personal Numerology

The report that follows explores the numerological meaning of your birth date and the full name that was given to you at birth. Its aim is to make you more aware of the tendencies and patterns in your life, so that you can live more consciously, and more fully become the person you were meant to be.

As you read the following pages, remember that they describe pure types for each number. No one, of course, exhibits these character traits in their pure form. Instead, each of us is multi-dimensional, made up of many energy imperatives vying for expression. Some energies harmonize easily, while others are at cross-purposes, causing us to live with contradictions and inner conflicts. Our task is to honor all parts of ourselves and work at bringing our disparate selves into some kind of balance and cooperation. By making us more aware of our inner tendencies, numerology can help us to do this all-important work on ourselves.

In our families and other groups of which we are a part, some behaviors are encouraged and others are discouraged. If who we are wasn’t acceptable, we probably contorted ourselves to be what others wanted us to be. If so, we may have become what is called a “turn-type.”

For example, we may negatively manifest a number by expressing its opposite, as when the independent number 1 type becomes extremely dependent. Alternatively, the energy is out of balance and expressed extremely, as when the daring number 1 type becomes foolhardy. Or the energy is not developed enough, so that the number 1 is cowardly instead of courageous.

Because we feel that a certain trait is unacceptable and unworthy of us according to the biases of our family, superiors or peers, we may not be able to relate to it in ourselves. We may then spend many years discovering who we really are apart from other people's expectations of us.

Studies such as numerology can help us find our way out of this maze, orienting us toward our true being and the highest manifestation of what we are. They can give us an objective picture of our strengths and weaknesses, show us our place in the larger scheme of things, and help us find the hidden gold in our characters, which we may not have even suspected that we had.

How Numerology Works. Through the use of ancient principles, numerology can derive a world of meaning from your birthdate and birth name. In the course of your life other numbers may become important for you, and you will probably acquire other names, but, like your astrological birth chart, the numerological vibrations at the very beginning of your life set the tone for all that follows.

To find the meaning inherent in your day, month and year of birth, numerologists add the digits in various ways. Most totals turn out to be more than one digit. They therefore reduce them to a single digit by adding the digits together. Whenever a total turns out to be a master number like 11 or 22, however, it is left as-is. These doubled numbers have a special significance, and are given special interpretations.

To find the numerological meaning of your name, numerology assigns a number to each letter of the alphabet. In the Pythagorean system used in this report, A = 1, B = 2, and so on through the first nine letters, and then we repeat the cycle through the rest of the alphabet. We then total the numbers corresponding to the vowels, the numbers corresponding to the consonants, and the numbers corresponding to all the letters to determine specific things about your character.

Each digit from 1 to 9 represents a specific stage in a cycle and has its own set of associations. In general, the odd numbers are considered introverted, in the sense of being primarily focused on inner life. The even numbers tend toward extroversion: that is, being primarily focused on outer activities. The numbers 1, 6, and 22, however, are considered dual in nature.

This said, let us now look first at your basic character and the major themes in your life.

Your Life Path

The total of the day, month and year of your birth is called by numerologists the Life Path, Life Lesson, Birth Path, Birth Force or, sometimes, the Destiny number. This number is chosen by nature rather than by you or your parents, and it reflects the season and historical era of your birth. As its names suggest, it shows your mission in life, your life work and what the universe intends for you. It shows the opportunities you must seize in order to make the most of your potential. Following the life path that has been given to you will enable you to avoid continual discord and frustration, and to unfold in the way that is best for your nature. When you find your true place in the world, you will feel at home.

Your birthdate total is 44/8.

Your Life Path of 44 is a master number. This means that your destiny is a special one, in this case one that involves bringing spiritual riches to the corporeal world. People on this vibration can be concerned with bettering the lot of others in very practical ways and in producing improvements on the material plane. They bring the needy the basics of food, clothing and shelter, but they do so in ways that make people more empowered and self-sustaining in the future. In creating material improvement and even abundance for others, what 44s really are doing is demonstrating how the universe upholds and sustains in real and practical ways. The earth is full of riches deep underground in the form of precious gems and metals, and beauty above ground in the form of breathtaking scenery and magnificent oceans. Those with a 44 Life Path recognize this, and can bring to the world a love of nature and of our planet.

Before you can fully live up to the full potential of the master number 44, you will probably need to practice living on its lower, reduced vibration of 8. The 8 level has much to do with consolidating one's power and influence, and with achieving financial success. You learn the executive skills of manipulating people and things for maximum return, and of using situations to the best advantage. Hard work and an orientation toward profit assure you economic success, and cultivating influential allies in high places consolidates your power. Mastering this 8 vibration enables you to carry out the activities of a 44 Life Path with greater effectiveness. And, because the 44 vibration can be too exhausting to maintain all the time, dropping back to the 8 level from time to time can enable you to rest and recharge your energy.

Numerology based on your name: CATHERINE ELISE BLANCHETT

What Motivates You in Life

We now move on to the name that you were given at birth. We first look at the total of the vowels in your full birth name, because this shows the emotional force that drives all that you do. Various known as the Motivation, Soul Urge, Heart's Desire, or Inner Self number, the vowel total shows what you want out of life. Along with the Impression and Expression numbers that will be discussed below, it is a basic component of your character.

The vowel total in your name is 9.

With 9 as a Motivation number, you thirst after knowledge and enjoy sharing it with others. Dedicated to that which is universal, you are the eternal student of life, always in search of better understanding. You have humanitarian ideals, and sincerely desire to improve life's conditions. You tend to react emotionally and romantically, and are as much in love with the idea of love as with a person. When help is needed, you are capable of considerable self-sacrifice.

Colors and gems have number vibrations, too. Your Motivation colors are all colors in the brightest hues. Your Motivation gem is the opal. Wear these when you want to relax and restore your energies.

More about Your Emotions and Motivations

The first vowel in your first name augments or mitigates the force of the vowel total, and gives additional information about your emotional nature and underlying motivations in life. It manifests differently depending on whether the vowel sound is long or short. The long vowel gives a more direct and forthright expression, while the expression of the short vowel is more muted.

The first vowel in your name is A.

“A” feels courageous and daring, and gives you the soul of a warrior. Often you do not look before you leap, impulsively getting yourself into more hot water than you'd like. But you have the dash and flair to extricate yourself no matter what. You like to be on the front line, and are not afraid to go out on a limb for your beliefs. Preferring to be the one in control, you do not take well to authority. You want to call the shots and go it alone, because you are often too impatient to wait for others.

The Impression You Give to Others

The total of the consonants in your name is known as the Impression, Personality, Outer Self or Adapted Self number. As its names suggest, this number signifies your persona, the face you show to the world. It shows the vibrations that you project, how others see you, and the kind of impression that you make on those around you. This has its origin in your illusions and fantasies, the world you create for yourself in daydreams. Given enough energy, your fantasies become reality, because you tend to become who you think you are.

Your consonant total is 11/2.

Your Impression number is the master number 11. In your loftier moments you dream of creating a new way of life, one that is revolutionary and avant-garde. You see yourself as an extraordinary person who has visions that others can't comprehend. By nature, you are high-strung and nervous, but are dramatic and can be quite brilliant. Your ideas could indeed change the world, and your secret longing for fame could motivate you to put your visionary abilities into action.

In your more modest moments, you project your reduced impression number of 2. At these times you may see yourself as part of a couple, someone who is both loving and loved. You view yourself as patient and understanding, a sensitive person who can supply everyone's emotional needs. You may dream of an idyllic life where you are surrounded by those who love and need you, where all is peaceful and harmonious, where the mundane cares of the world are far away, and all basic needs are magically supplied.

When you are feeling your 11 vibration, your Impression color is silver, and your metal is platinum. On the 2 level, your Impression color is orange, and your gem is the moonstone. Wear these colors and gems when you want to be sociable and enjoy the company of others.

The Way You Express Yourself

The total of all the letters in your full name is variously called the Expression, Mission or Life Purpose number. Composed of both the vowels and the consonants, it represents the blending of your inner and outer selves. It thus shows the natural expression of your goals and desires: what you do best, and, by extension, your talents and career potential. It also indicates how you deal with the outside world: your style of solving problems, getting things done, and negotiating with others to attain what you would consider success.

Your name total is 2.

The Expression number 2 signifies a person who can sense the feelings of others, and this makes you a natural peacemaker. You bring love to your circle of family and friends, and inspire others to be more patient and tolerant. You dress modestly, as you are not really interested in being the center of attention. In fact, you are quite happy to go along with the crowd. Take care to look after your own interests, so that your tendency toward passivity does not cause you to end up with the short end of things.

When you want to be businesslike, try wearing orange as your Expression color and the moonstone as your Expression gem.

Careers Offering the Best Self-Expression

With 2 as your Expression number, consider these kinds of jobs:

The Boss: club organizer, tour director, producer, publisher.

On Stage: politician, musician, entertainer in a group, teacher.

Service: diplomat, secretary, civil servant, office worker, analyst, collection agent, nurse, psychologist, homemaker, waitperson, mechanic, psychic or medium.

Just You: bookkeeper, librarian, antique dealer, poet, novelist.

Best Bet: any job where you work as a member of a team.

The Power You Can Achieve in Maturity

The total of the day, month and year of your birth and your full name at birth is known variously as the Power, Maturity, Reality, Real Self, Final Opportunity, Destiny or Goal Power number. A summation of both your name and your birthdate, this number shows how the two principal streams of energy converge to fulfill the purposes of your true self. The Power number is of great significance because it gives a clue as to what your ultimate life purpose might be.

This vibration usually becomes manifest only in the later part of your life. In the first half of life it tends to exist only as a potential. In these earlier years you live through many experiences that temper and define your character and aptitudes. Not until the age of 35 or 40 do most people live through enough life events to find their life purpose and develop it to the point where it becomes their main focus and direction. It is then that fulfillment comes. But this is usually achieved only after many false starts, and years of struggling to gain self-knowledge.

Finding your right place in life is gratifying. If you have not pushed through to this achievement, you can be dissatisfied and unhappy. You may feel at loose ends, without direction, rudderless and ill at ease. But if you have lived your life in accord with the purpose that was meant to be fulfilled in this life, you will find contentment and peace of mind.

What follows is the mature expression of your Power number. Mature development is not about living out someone else's idea of what you should be. It has more to do with honoring your own way of being in the world and moving from your own center. It is about trusting the process of unfoldment that exists within each of us and making this your guiding principle.

The total of your name and birthdate is 1.

A Power number of 1 signifies that you need to live your life with originality and courage. This is the number of the loner, not because these types don't like people but because others tend to slow them down. Reluctant to arrest their pace long enough to teach and encourage others, ones tend to lead by example. People with 1 as a Power number must have the freedom to move and act alone without having to confer with others before doing so. They need to define themselves as unique individuals in their own right, breaking new ground as they find their own way.

The number 1 is the archetype of the Hero. Ones need to challenge and be challenged, and so they attract situations that demand assertiveness and bravery. Ideally this involves defending the weak and fighting for what is right. Ones have little trouble facing off against someone who has offended them. They can be much maligned or envied for their daring, dash, and desire for face-to-face confrontation. That, however, is the imperative of 1 as a Power number.

Tarot Key 1: The Magician

To gain further insights about your Power number, it can help to look at the Tarot trump that corresponds to it. In your case, this is the Magician. A man of action, he wields his wand to bring down power from above, and he uses the tools on the table before him to create what he needs in the world. Above his head is the infinity symbol, signifying that he is channeling a power that is limitless and divine. The Magician represents the power to create your own life.

Your Karmic Lessons

Karma numbers are digits that are completely missing in the letters of your name as given at birth. Most people have one or more Karma numbers. These missing digits serve as a guide to the areas of your life and personality that may be lacking. Such areas will benefit from special attention. If you ignore these blind spots, life can have a painful way of making you notice them. This, however, can eventually spur you forward on the path to wisdom. When you develop yourself in these areas, you will feel much more whole and complete.

The number 4 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 4, you may have to fight a tendency toward laziness and a lack of focus and concentration. You'll strengthen your character when you cultivate discipline and make an effort to work steadily for what you want.

The number 6 is missing in your name.

Having 6 as a Karma number points to a need to work on your relationships. You may find others depending on you. This can force you to learn the value of family and other close ties.

The number 7 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 7, it's possible that you have many fears and anxieties. You will find that the path out of your worry is to develop your intellect and spirituality.

Your Subconscious Response

Your Subconscious Response is related to how many Karma numbers you have. It shows the way you tend to react in emergencies, when you have no time to consult your intellect.

Your Subconscious Response number is 6.

In rough times, you think first of your family, friends, loved ones and possessions. You are very protective of what is yours, and your responses are generally practical and responsible. The main thing to be aware of is that your sentimental attachments tend to win out, even in situations where a more reasoned approach would be more appropriate.

Your Youth, Maturity and Later Years

So far, we've discussed the number vibrations that stay with you throughout your life. Now we move on to the three major periods of your life as shown by your Life Cycle numbers. These are derived from reducing the digits in your month, day and year of birth. The sum of the month digits describes the first period; the day, the second period; and the year, the third period.

Your First Life Cycle starts at birth and lasts until age 9. Its number is 5.

In youth you are the one who must learn everything for yourself. Quick to learn, but easily bored, you don't fit into a structured lifestyle. You do everything "early," and the chances are good that you aren't among those who cling to the security of the home. If your early life is too unsupervised and unstructured, you run the danger of indulging an appetite for drugs, drink, sex, or other forms of excitement.

During the First Life Cycle, your Life Path number and your First Minor Challenge number are also especially important influences.

Your Second Life Cycle starts at age 9 and lasts until age 36. Its number is 5.

For you, mid-life is a period best suited change and variety, so you will be happiest if not tied down unnecessarily. You will want to travel, and to experience the new and different in many ways. During this cycle you can get to renew yourself by breaking out of old routines. Now is the time to learn to adapt, to be free and to live for the moment. For the time being, it is best to put aside ideas of permanence.

During this Life Cycle or the next, your Power number generally begins to manifest.

Your Third Life Cycle starts at age 36 and lasts until death. Its number is 7.

Late in life, your activities tend to take a philosophical turn. You will become increasingly involved with quiet reflection and the search for knowledge. Others will seek your guidance, but you will find solitude necessary to develop the inner peace that will prove to be your great strength.

Major Decision or Turning Points in Your Life

Your Turning Points or Pinnacles are also derived from your full birthdate. Each of them defines a period in your life and the special issues that you will face during that period. As their name suggests, Turning Points show points of choice where you need to make decisions. Besides showing the issues at stake, the Turning Point number indicates the choice that will be best for you. Turning Points are like tests that you must pass before proceeding forward. The happiness that you feel in a given Turning Point period depends on the choices you've made and the skills you've developed when faced with the previous Turning Point.

Your First Turning Point starts at birth and lasts until age 34.
Its number is 1.

This youthful Turning Point asks you to strike out on your own, to develop your own individuality, and to create something original. During this period it is best to lead rather than being led. You may feel frustrated, because early in your life others will probably be in a better position to lead you, and they may not tolerate your expressions of individuality. Your task is not to respond by being stubborn and self-centered.

Your Second Turning Point starts at age 35 and lasts until age 44.
Its number is 3.

The next nine years of your life will test your ability to expand both socially and artistically. It is a time to learn how to be cheerful and friendly, and to develop your ability to create. You may have the opportunity to write, speak publicly, or in other ways to use your mind and be on-stage. Develop your feelings and imagination, and be prepared for prosperity.

Your Third Turning Point starts at age 45 and lasts until age 54.
Its number is 4.

This 4 vibration in the prime of your life gives you the chance to be maximally productive. If you use it well, you will be building a solid and secure foundation for your older years. You may have heavy responsibilities at this time, but if you shoulder them with good grace you will immediately reap rewards in terms of satisfaction and the recognition of your power to get things done.

Your Fourth Turning Point starts at age 55 and lasts until death.
Its number is 3.

In the last period of your life, a 3 vibration calls you to gather your friends around you and take up new forms of self-expression. This is a time when you can be thankful for companionship and good cheer, and you can explore new and interesting parts of yourself in writing, painting or other arts or crafts. No matter if your physical body isn't what it used to be. You now have the chance to be utterly vibrant on the mental level.

The Challenges You Will Meet

Everyone is born with special lessons to be learned. Again, your full birth date has inherent in it two Minor Challenges that are usually presented to you earlier in life, and a Major Challenge that is lifelong but which you will probably get to master only later in life.

Challenges may at first present themselves to you as external obstacles to your progress, but they arise from the deficiencies that you are born with, parts that are lacking or underdeveloped. Once you can determine exactly what the weak link is, you can make a conscious effort to strengthen that trait within yourself. This takes willpower and may sometimes feel as if you are going against the grain, but it pays off abundantly in terms of progress and success in life. As you tackle each challenge, your fears are pushed back, your scope enlarges, and you feel more comfortable in the world.

Your First Minor Challenge number is 0.

The Challenge number zero presents no particular challenge, but this does not mean that you should rest on your laurels. It just gives you a choice of what to work on. During your youth you may be tempted to coast through life, but if you choose instead to work on any problems in your character, you can become truly great. It's possible that you might need some practice in making choices and then acting upon them. Generally, however, you are evolved enough to be conscious of whatever shortcomings you have, and to deal with them one at a time. Becoming the kind of person you know you could be is the most difficult of challenges, but you are capable of meeting it.

Your Second Minor Challenge number is 2.

The Second Minor Challenge is about aspects of your character that you need to work on during your Second Life Cycle, from about ages 35 to 62. With a Challenge of 2, your task is to develop confidence in yourself and thicken up your protective coating so that you can hold your own in relationships with others. Instead of bringing you closer to others, your extreme sensitivity can make you run for cover when the vibes get jagged or overwhelmingly strong. Your challenge is to retain that responsiveness to the feelings of others without losing your own identity or feeling personally devastated. You may need to live alone for a bit and find out who you really are. Then you will be able to enter into a partnership as a true equal, and realize a closeness that you had not dreamed was possible.

Your Major Challenge number is 2.

You face your Major Challenge throughout life. Most likely, however, you will find yourself needing to do the most work on it during your Third Life Cycle, after the lesser challenges have been met. With a Challenge number of 2, the thing to master is cooperating with others without either leaning on them or trying to dominate the situation. Balance is the watchword here. Also, when you find yourself hurt or slighted, you will be much happier when you learn not to take it personally.

Your Best Activities for the Year

Your Personal Year number combines your birth month and day with the current year. Personal Year numbers go in a recurring nine-year cycle of development. Each time you go around the cycle you have a chance to do things with added wisdom and skill. Keeping your activities in tune with your current year vibration can make your existence more harmonious and keep your unfoldment upon its intended track.

Some numerologists believe that the new personal year number begins on January 1st of the new year. Others believe that it doesn't change until your birthday on that year, so that up until your birthday you would be using the personal year number for the preceding calendar year.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan 1 2005 is 17/8

After the pause and retreat of a 7 year, an 8 year is a public and social time when you become once more deeply engaged with the tangible, outward world. An 8 Personal Year is specially suited for power and achievement. In this phase of the cycle, all that you've worked for can come to fruition in the form of material gain and public recognition. You can think of it as a time of harvest. If you've planted the seeds and followed through in the previous years, your 8 year will be one of rewards and satisfaction arising from a job well done. You'll still have to push for the outcome that you envisioned, but it will materialize this year if you've done the work. You may find yourself organizing and administrating on a greater scale than usual, working with people and materials to achieve highly visible results. The keyword for this year is Consolidation.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan 1 2006 is 18/9

In a 9 Personal Year, the cycle of Personal Years comes to an end. This is a year to harvest the remaining crop before it rots, time to tie up all the old cycle's loose ends. So clear the decks and weed the garden. Whatever you have put off, you need to finish it now. Next year you'll be starting a new cycle, and you don't want the detritus of the old cycle to impede your progress. Like the 5 Personal Year, this is a pivotal time, one that is appropriate for change. Now you can reinvent yourself, lose weight, toss out old stuff, and get rid of old habits. As people and things fall away because they are no longer appropriate, you may experience this as a year of loss. Say a graceful good-bye, and open yourself to the new cycle to come.

Where Do We Go from Here?

If this report has aroused your curiosity and you want to learn more, you may find that exploring your numbers with a deck of Tarot cards is an excellent means for further self- reflection.

Suppose that your birth date were August 19, 1962. The Tarot trump that you would look at for the month would be 8 (Strength, or in some decks, Justice). For the day, you would look at 19 (the Sun), $1+9=10$ (the Wheel of Fortune), and, reducing it even further, $1+0=1$ (the Magician). For the year, you would look at $1+9+6+2=18$ (the Moon), and possibly also $1+8=9$ (the Hermit).

These cards would have something to say about you and how you express these traits as you follow your destiny. Our example birth date would have the Sun in Leo, and trump 19, the Sun, would reinforce the Leo symbolism. You could see that the person is a hard worker (8) with a sunny disposition (19) who is aware of the changes in fortune that life can bring (10). Extremely creative (1), he is also a sensitive, caring person who is tuned in to other people's feelings (18).

It is instructive to buy a Tarot deck, put one of your cards up for a few days, and mull over the symbolism. Remember that there are no truly negative numbers or cards. All participate in the experiences of the soul as it passes through life.

Even trump 15, the Devil, has its place. Everyone has traits that create stumbling blocks or weaknesses. When we work to overcome these we achieve maturity and become more sympathetic to the weaknesses that we see in others. This may be an important focus for a soul with the number 15 prominent.

Also, trump 13, the so-called Death card, is often misunderstood. Remember that in the cycle of seasons the leaves fall and winter comes, but this death is only the precursor of the life that bursts forth in the spring. Life is not all white light and bubbles. There are dark clouds of pain and frustration as well. It's all part of the cycle.

Whatever you find your numbers to be, remember that nobody has it all down pat. We all have plenty to learn. We do have a choice, however. We can, if we wish, fight against our destiny or try to ignore it. Or we can, as the great psychoanalyst C.G. Jung put it, "do willingly what we must do by necessity." Viewing ourselves through the lens of studies such as numerology, the Tarot and astrology, we gain a clearer picture of what our own necessity is, and can then travel more consciously on our life's intended path.
