Life Progressions

We are born into an existing progression of change, through which we evolve and grow during our lifetime. Being conscious of our position in this succession of change helps us more clearly define and understand ourselves. An awareness of our current life situation relative to a larger, evolving chain of events helps us negotiate the challenges that confront us in our daily lives.

This Life Progression report (based on the technique of Secondary progressions) describes experiences and understandings relative to particular aspects, thus depicting the effect of these planetary aspects on an individual. The report covers a period of at least one year. The time period covered by the text varies according to the nature of the astrological event associated with each paragraph. A paragraph referring to a progressed Moon will cover a much shorter period than one referring to the zodiacal sign on a progressed house cusp. This report is intended to enhance the natal chart, not to replace it. The two go hand-in-hand. The progressed chart brings to fruition the promises of the natal chart.

Report for Laura Bush Your Life Progressions for Apr 1, 2005

Cancer on the First Cusp

Emotions and feelings will play a major role in your make-up. You may become more protective and sensitive to the needs of family members. Criticism from others, no matter how constructive, will not be taken lightly. A major change has taken place within your immediate environment -- or will soon. Moving, selling, redecorating, or enlarging of your present home is likely. Conditions prevail in which someone may move in or out -- perhaps a roommate, parent, or child. Others may feel smothered by parental influences and decide to leave the nest, seeking a place of their own. The affairs of a parent or parent-in-law has required or may soon require your attention. A strong desire for future security may lead to serious consideration of investment programs. Don't permit emotional outbursts to drive you to eat, thereby gaining weight unnecessarily. The position of your progressed ascendant ruler, Moon, can provide additional insight into new circumstances and motivational influences touching your life at this time.

Leo on the Second Cusp

Your organizing ability is good, and this will enable you to handle people and situations that are associated with your financial affairs. There is greater appreciation of quality. If you cannot purchase the best, you will strive for second best. Investments, gambling, romance, creative hobbies, and schools may influence personal income. Children (not necessarily your own) may be a source of financial drain or assistance. You will work best when you are placed in a position of authority.

Saturn in the Second House

Changing conditions appear to surround your financial status. You are becoming more ambitious to achieve success in life and may not mind the hard work that is associated with this placement. Anxiety over obligations and a worrying trend of financial responsibilities will be intensified. This is likely to create an inner sense of thrift and prudent financial ability, building a solid investment or savings program. Monetary progress will not be dramatic. It will, however, be built on a solid foundation that promises long-range benefits. Monetary gains can be had through working with companies that are well established and have been in business for a long time. You may find yourself working for the government, in the political field or the department of aging, or in a nursing home or a senior citizens' group. Rebuild or restore old structures, homes, or furniture for resale. A parent, an older individual, or an authoritative figure can also assist in financial gain.

Pluto in the Second House

Joint monetary resources will play a dominate role in your life during this trend. You will either give investments serious consideration, consolidate your bills, pay off a mortgage, apply for a loan, go bankrupt, or increase your insurance. If you are married, your spouse may go on social security, sick benefits, or an early retirement. There is the possibility of working in collaboration with others on a project that involves joint monetary arrangements. You may be placed in a position of writing payroll checks, handling insurance claims, making out wills, working in the medical field, or in any position where you have control over a department, people, or machinery. IRS auditing is possible, so keep good payroll records and precise income tax deductions.

Leo on the Third Cusp

As you become more ambitious and enterprising, you will alleviate some of your intense emotionalism. You appear to be less sensitive and more confident, optimistic, and even a bit dramatic in your expressions. There is a certain flair in your actions and speech that will draw admiration and attention from others. There is power in creative thinking, for you think in large and expansive terms. Many of your communications and short travels will be centered around romance, investments, schools, children, and creative outlets. You will have much to do with children of your siblings and neighbors, or through sporting events. This sign is associated with heart, eye, or back problems in connection with a brother or sister.

Virgo on the Fourth Cusp

Circumstances may open the door to the possibility of working from the home or operating a business within the home base. You want so much to maintain a neat and orderly home but, if cooperation is not forthcoming from the rest of the family, you may decide personal effort is too much and let conditions slide. During this trend, one of your parents may develop a persistent health problem and require your assistance. For those who don't work in the home, it is likely you may work in joint efforts with a parent in some field of operation. If you are not the chronic nagger, then another member of the family starts constant nitpicking that soon gets on your nerves. During this trend it is possible to have an emotional bond stimulated between you and a co-worker.

Neptune in the Fourth House

Psychic ability is enhanced. An interest in music may encourage you to purchase a piano, organ, or another instrument for your home. Unusual conditions may surround various members of your family. A child may require corrective braces on their feet. Your home may take on a hospital atmosphere when a parent or marriage partner develops an illness requiring constant care, nursing, or medication be administered. Look for your ideal home during a rainstorm to eliminate the possibility of a leaky roof or basement. Be on the alert for gas odors, or sewer and plumbing problems. Secret or mysterious situations may surround your home base or the affairs of a family member.

Scorpio on the Fifth Cusp

You are extremely sensual in romantic affairs. Guard against possessiveness and jealous tendencies. You need a hobby that will help to relax your inner tensions. Crossword puzzles, jigsaw puzzles, and paint-by-number sets are good outlets. Your children are perplexed over your change of attitude. They find your domineering and dictatorial ways disturbing. You may find yourself in the role of money lender where children are concerned. Insurance or inheritance problems may result through your second sibling. Bars, beverage stores, surgical instruments, and tools are always a good potential for investments.

Venus in Scorpio

Venus is associated with love, affection, and sociability. This position of Venus adds a magnetic quality to the personality. It increases the passions and heightens the emotions. There may be a subtle influence to try to maintain control over the affairs of another. At times you may be drawn to women and friends of unusual occupations or interests -- some of them may be connected with astrology or psychism. Matters concerned with joint finances, your partner's income, social security, disability benefits, insurance settlements, alimony, or inheritance will be of beneficial gain or loss. Unsettling conditions or major changes surround the affairs of your business or marriage partner or other close associate.

Venus in the Fifth House

Your popularity is on an upward trend as others find you exceedingly attractive, sociable, and friendly. You will become more aware of your appearance (dress and adornment). There is the desire to dress well and in good taste. Pleasurable pursuits, social gatherings, weddings, and shower invitations will be activated during this period. There is strength in your feelings of love and the power of attraction, which may open the door to new romantic relationships. Artistic and creative pursuits may also be enhanced. Conditions are highlighted in connection with young people, and quite possibly a female child.

Venus Conjunction Mars (Prg-Nat) Nov 23, 2006

An active trend for personal energy that can be applied toward new artistic pursuits. This also increases emotional feelings, and excites the sex drive. You are likely to be more aggressive in seeking social contacts and excitement than usual. You may have to curb the impulsive tendency of going to the extreme with the opposite sex. You do have a certain appeal that others will find attractive. This could be love at first sight. For the married, a pregnancy is possible.

Jupiter in the Fifth House

You are projecting an air of self-confidence and self-assurance that meets the approval of others, thereby increasing your popularity. There is the possibility of mingling and forming close associations with people of a higher social status than your own. This is an excellent placement for those who want to conceive children, teach, or take an active role in the educational process. Listen to your intuition. It can provide lucky hunches when dealing with investments, gambling, the race track, or football pools. Travel may be connected with schools, attending sporting events, fan clubs, gambling casinos, or visiting children who reside in distant cities. Opportunities for romantic involvements may activate social affairs. Your free-spirited attitude may require some control to prevent casual affairs from developing into serious situations. Lawsuits or legal entanglements may surround affairs dealing with children, night clubs, and places of entertainment or sports.

Sagittarius on the Sixth Cusp

You are getting restless and may consider looking for a new job that offers more money and a better position. It is possible you may return to college or higher education for additional training to increase your chances for promotional advancements. There is a chance for travel or relocation in connection with your job. Or, you may have to drive quite a few miles back and forth to your place of employment in another city. No matter what you lift at work, whether it is a typewriter or boxes, bend with the knees to avoid injury to the hips and sciatic nerves.

Sun in Capricorn

Your character is changing from the free-spirited Sagittarius sign to the persevering, practical, cautious, and secretive traits of the progressed Sun in Capricorn. You swing like a pendulum from positive to negative, sometimes yielding to various states of depression. There is a greater scope of opportunities to advance in professional or public affairs. Politics or government may influence your vocational duties. There may be a readiness to assume additional responsibilities or a supervisory position. This is a "hurry up and wait" sign, so don't expect immediate results or progress. This retarding influence holds greater promise and long-range benefits for those who persevere. A parent, a mature individual, or an authority figure will have a pronounced influence upon your career.

Sun in the Sixth House

You take great pride in methodical and organized handling of work-related details. To be a truly productive employee, you require praise and recognition of your efforts. You are terribly ambitious and will always strive to better yourself by being alert for new job openings and opportunities. One of your major objectives is to hold a position of authority where you are in a supervisory capacity over others. Your physical stamina may not be up to par. Frequent rest periods may help to alleviate these periodic bouts of lethargy. Pushing yourself beyond your capacity can open the door to possible health problems with the back, heart, or eyes. Male co-workers are more likely to be of help and assistance than females.

Sun Sextile Sun (Prg-Nat) Jan 16, 2006

This influence occurs around the age of sixty. If other factors are in agreement, your life should be well stabilized at this time. You may give consideration to an early retirement or feel compelled to try your hand at new undertakings. Whether you are single by choice or circumstance, make greater efforts to socialize. Romance can be just around the corner.

Mercury in the Sixth House

Others will recognize and respect your expertise and patience in handling detailed tasks. No matter what kind of work you do, whether it is in a specialized skill or as a lecturer, instructor, or office clerk, you have the knack of coming across with uncanny clarity and understanding. Jobs that offer a variety of tasks are more apt to hold your attention, for you have the tendency to get bored easily. Your present vocation may require additional training or studies to insure future advancements. Avoid becoming too concerned with details and perfection, which can take its toll on your health. Your state of mind can affect your physical condition, so always maintain a positive attitude and avoid undue worry and stress.

Mercury Square Midheaven (Prg-Prg) May 20, 2005

This is not the time to seek changes in vocational interests, even though you may feel a boss is being overly critical or faultfinding of your duties. You may have difficulty in communicating your thoughts and, at times, be easily misunderstood or misjudged. The affairs or health of a parent may weigh heavily on your mind and cause you much worry and concern.

Mars in Capricorn

As Mars progresses into Capricorn, you will find yourself becoming more organized and your self-reliance steadily improving. There is less scattering of forces and a more serious intent to promote yourself through quick grasping of opportunities. You are likely to weigh your actions and words more carefully than in the past. At this point in your life, it appears that you don't want to jeopardize a secure position or possible advancement to positions of authority. This is an excellent placement for those seeking a position with the city government (as with the police or fire department) or in politics. The men who touch upon your life at this time will probably be older or mature in actions, of a Capricorn coloring, executives, from the past, or on the city payroll.

Mars in the Sixth House

An abundance of energy and enthusiasm is always present with jobs that have a sense of challenge to them. You try to be fair and just with co-workers and those in your employ. Your abrupt and hasty energetic nature can create a short fuse that explodes from time to time in a burst of temper. Your anger soon subsides, leaving you with regret for your impulsive actions. You do well in vocations that require snap decisions, manual dexterity, or specialized skills. Mechanical know-how may be a necessity, or the ability to operate mechanized products such as electric typewriters, computers, cash registers, printing presses, or assembly lines. This placement is often associated with health problems that affect sinus conditions, migraine headaches, feverish complaints, sudden pains, infections, and possible surgery.

Mars Sextile Sun (Prg-Nat) Jan 10, 2005

A very enterprising period in which you will be playing an active role of leadership toward some new enterprise or undertaking. You will have the ability to handle all matters requiring independent and aggressive actions. A competent attitude will enable you to accept new, challenging, and daring opportunities. You may find yourself attempting things you would have never thought possible in the past. New friends of dynamic personality can be of beneficial help. Women may meet an exciting, aggressive, and passionate male, and may form a close attachment that could lead to marriage. Events that occur during this trend will have a long-lasting effect in the positive sense.

Mars Quincunx Pluto (Prg-Prg) Mar 3, 2006

You may feel a struggling conflict when trying to control the intense energy that rages within. You will have to guard against rash and hasty decisions or actions that can draw you into dangerous or violent situations. There appears to be a power struggle in which controlling (dictatorial) urges prevail. This may be initiated toward the sexual partner through acts of jealousy and possessiveness. Difficulties may arise through the handling of insurance settlements, income tax returns, alimony payments, and workers' compensation. Be selective of your sex partners, or use precautionary methods to avoid the possibility of a social disease. There may be loss or separation of a close attachment or family member. Women should be wary of men who display a hot temper and jealous (possessive) tendencies. It will be extremely difficult to break off this relationship once it takes a firm hold.

Women should be wary of men who display a hot temper and jealous (possessive) tendencies. It will be extremely difficult to break off this relationship once it takes a firm hold.

Capricorn on the Seventh Cusp

At this point in life, you may conduct a working relationship with your marriage partner -- perhaps a business operating from the home base. It should be to your benefit to attend social functions connected with political parties or your vocation. They can provide excellent contacts for future advancements and opportunities. Authoritative figures and individuals of prestige will touch upon your life during this trend.

Aquarius on the Eighth Cusp

Sexual responses in the past may have been too reserved or not up to par. As a result, you may be drawn to the unconventional in sexual attractions. You may suddenly get sexual overtures from individuals whom you have always considered as friends. Or, the object of your affections may be married. Use your keen sense of judgment in these affairs. They may be exciting at the time but later, you may regret your actions. It is possible during this trend to become financially involved in a joint project with a friend. Always keep a good reserve in the savings account for unexpected expenditures.

Aquarius on the Ninth Cusp

Computers, television, radio, and technology appear to have a big impact on your future during this trend. Take advantage of mass advertising and public exposure. Further education may enhance abilities with computers or start you off on the study of astrology. Travel is more likely to be with groups, as with a tour or with friends. On occasion, you may attend conventions or seminars to further your studies for advancement of your job. In some instances you may have to travel on the spur of the moment, so be sure to have a small suitcase packed and ready with necessities.

Pisces on the Tenth Cusp

Learn to exert yourself with superiors and others you work with when they try to take unfair advantage of your good nature. You are inclined to go by the way of least resistance when friction arises in career matters. Authoritative figures notice this, so you are generally the target when the time comes to pass out extra work without extra benefits. To compensate for this additional burden and your inadequate salary, you may feel justified in borrowing or using certain company products (such as personal use of their copy machine, paper, and other materials). It is possible that you may change the name of your company or adopt a nom de plume. Sometime during this trend, you can expect to see your photo in a newsletter or the local newspaper.

Taurus on the Eleventh Cusp

Influential friends will touch upon your life and, perhaps, be a source of financial or material gain. You may be elected treasurer or social director of an organization. Invariably, money enters the scene, and you may be criticized for improper handling of funds or spending too much on music or entertainment. You may have a daughter- or son-in-law who is quite stubborn and unyielding.

Moon in Taurus

Your mind deliberates with caution on serious subject matters. Perhaps you have learned a valuable lesson on impulsive decision-making while the Moon was progressing through the sign of Aries. Others may notice this change of attitude and they may view you as somewhat stubborn, experiencing some difficulty in swaying you toward a new course of action. However, if they were to appeal to your sense of logic and illustrate why your ideas are not feasible, you might yield to the practical nature of their suggestions. If you were extravagant during the last few years, you may take a more conservative approach in the handling of personal funds, determined to clear up any accumulated obligations and striving for a more secured savings program. Money and movable possessions may play an important role during this trend. A mellow feeling of contentment may cause a homebody existence, whereby one prefers to entertain in the comfort of home with a few select friends. Vulnerable areas for health problems are in the throat and neck. Note the house position of your progressed Moon to determine the area of life this sign is likely to influence.

Moon in the Eleventh House

You are entering a phase in which events of an unexpected nature are likely to occur. The many sudden ups and downs in situations will make it impossible to maintain a normal routine existence. An interest in group-related activities is likely to be promoted at this time, increasing the probability of starting or enrolling in a club or organization. New friends will enter your social circle. Some will be conducive to your wellbeing, while others may be a source of emotional drain. This placement also highlights activities in connection with daughters- or sons-in-laws and step-children. Note the sign position of your progressed Moon for further indications of friends and associations.

Moon Quincunx Mercury (Prg-Nat) Mar 29, 2005

This is a period in which mental independence in speaking and general correspondence is stressed. A good time to make plans for future study courses or learning new skills and techniques. During the next few months you may be kept rather busy providing services for others -- perhaps driving them to dental appointments or other such commitments.

Moon Square Saturn (Prg-Prg) May 30, 2005

Delays and hindrances during the next three months are likely to hold you back from getting satisfactory results through personal, financial, or business affairs. This can be a critical period in connection with a grandparent or other older members of the family. They may be a source for concern or added responsibility. You may withdraw from social contact due to an inner feeling of rejection or lack of emotional response. These trends do not favor new undertakings or making changes of a personal nature. There may be a vulnerability to frequent colds, chills, aching knees or bones, and possible dental problems. Your vitality may be low, so get plenty of rest and eat lots of hot foods.

Moon Opposition Jupiter (Prg-Nat) Jul 5, 2005

New undertakings, ventures, and expansive programs are likely to meet with opposition and obstacles. Apparently someone does not agree with the way you intend to handle certain matters. Best to seek a compromise and avoid upsetting confrontations. This is not a favorable time for long-distance travel, legal issues, decisions on higher education, or resolving religious conflicts.

Moon Quincunx Neptune (Prg-Nat) Jul 28, 2005

You may come in touch with undesirable people who may try to engulf you in a sticky or intriguing situation. They are not likely to have your best interests at heart. Guard against possible deception and deceit through the opposite sex. Be alert to conditions surrounding your environment or place of work. You may be sensitive to hidden elements that are difficult to detect (such as paints, gases, oils, fumes, or toxic waste material). If you feel "out of sorts," so to speak, and can't place your finger on the problem, get a physical check-up. Then get a second opinion to make sure there has not been an oversight with the first one.

Moon Trine Sun (Prg-Prg) Sep 19, 2005

This is a very successful period and can aid in the realization of your fondest hopes and ambitions. Apply personal efforts toward new opportunities in business advancements or embark on new enterprises. Make new friends and increase social contacts. Close ties and those in authority can be of beneficial help and assistance during the next few months. There is a possibility of renewed emotional and affectional feelings as you develop a close bond with a new relationship. There should be an increase in vitality, with a personal sense of well-being. This is one of the most auspicious periods for recuperation or overcoming past illnesses.

Moon Opposition Sun (Prg-Nat) Sep 28, 2005

You are entering a critical position in which trying conditions of anxiety and worry may be experienced. Changes are par for the course, resulting in a break-up of existing conditions or separation from close ties. Social activities may be at a standstill or prove to be a disappointment. Feelings and emotions are vulnerable and likely to suffer through loss of pride and dignity. The following three months are a time for major decisions and for recognizing the need for a new direction in life. You will have to clarify your goals and personal desires, and then take the necessary steps to set them in motion.

Moon Trine Mars (Prg-Prg) Oct 12, 2005

The following three months can be a highly productive period if your energy flow is properly directed. Make positive use of all opportunities that come your way. Be ambitious and enterprising, and push personal affairs toward new ventures and undertakings. Be assertive in changing your life-style or environment if you feel hindered in your present situation. This is a good time to travel, purchase a new car, or tackle projects that require extra energy.

Moon Square Pluto (Prg-Prg) Oct 20, 2005

Emotional outbursts may be unleashed against those whom you feel are trying either to dominate you or to create changes that are upsetting to your environment. Although these changes may be necessary in the scheme of things, you may find it difficult adjusting to them. The altering of these conditions may result in separation from loved ones, and finding it hard to let go. It may be parents moving to a distant city, a child getting married, loss of an older member of the family, or a divorce. Whatever the circumstances, your domestic and emotional feelings will undergo an intense change.

Moon Square Pluto (Prg-Nat) Nov 2, 2005

Emotional outbursts may be unleashed against those whom you feel are trying either to dominate you or to create changes that are upsetting to your environment. Although these changes may be necessary in the scheme of things, you may find it difficult adjusting to them. The altering of these conditions may result in separation from loved ones, and finding it hard to let go. It may be parents moving to a distant city, a child getting married, loss of an older member of the family, or a divorce. Whatever the circumstances, your domestic and emotional feelings will undergo an intense change.

Moon Sextile Ascendant (Prg-Prg) Nov 11, 2005

Emotional stability and good judgment can open the door to new opportunities for advancement. Seek positive changes in all directions of life, whether vocational, domestic, or personal. You exude great rapport at this time. Social contacts with women, and the general public, can produce beneficial results. Family matters should be on even keel, with a general feeling of contentment.

Moon Conjunction Ascendant (Prg-Nat) Nov 30, 2005

A new phase in life, often involving domestic or personal changes of some kind. Moving, buying or selling of property, or re-establishing close family ties is possible. You may feel a need to alter certain conditions of your life through new vocational interests. Women will play an active role at this time, and be either constructive or detrimental in their assistance.

Moon Sextile Moon (Prg-Nat) Dec 14, 2005

Beneficial changes of minor consequences should make for an interesting period. This is a good time to seek occupational changes, make new friends, travel, move, or purchase real estate. Women, in particular and people in general will sense your emotional sensitivity and possibly be of beneficial assistance in personal or business interests.

Moon Opposition Jupiter (Prg-Prg) May 10, 2006

New undertakings, ventures, and expansive programs are likely to meet with opposition and obstacles. Apparently someone does not agree with the way you intend to handle certain matters. Best to seek a compromise and avoid upsetting confrontations. This is not a favorable time for long-distance travel, legal issues, decisions on higher education, or resolving religious conflicts.

Moon Opposition Mars (Prg-Nat) Nov 25, 2006

You are likely to experience an emotional confrontation with a close attachment or with family members. Be discreet with the opposite sex, and curb the tendency to be short-tempered or irritable with those you love. Personal affairs and new undertakings should be carefully thought out, as they are likely to meet with obstacles and opposition. This trend is of short duration. It would be wise if you could put off signing papers or making important decisions until your judgment is more rational.

Moon Opposition Venus (Prg-Prg) Nov 25, 2006

You will have to be selective of close associations, friends, and the opposite sex during this short duration of three months. It can be a trying time for feelings and emotions, one that may call for a compromise and a yielding to the wishes of another to avoid a break-up or temporary separation. An emotional confrontation can result in hurt feelings, disappointments, or sorrow over what has been said or done. A possible disagreement over the handling of monetary or domestic affairs can create painful conflicts. It would be wise to avoid close contacts with women in general, until this trend has passed.

Moon Trine Midheaven (Prg-Nat) Dec 11, 2006

This is a three-month period in which one should take advantage of all opportunities for advancement and positive career changes. You have great rapport with bosses, those in authority, and the general public. This is a good time to contact those who can help you rise to a higher social status. You may receive an award or recognition for a personal achievement, possibly get your name or photo in the local newspaper, or appear on television or radio.

Gemini on the Twelfth Cusp

Depending upon your emotional state, you will sometimes possess uncanny intuitive abilities while at other times you are totally off base. Caution is a must while driving, for you tend to daydream instead of concentrating on the road. You have many secretive thoughts and ideas which tend to make you overly suspicious of others. You may find yourself in a position of working behind the scenes with loads of paperwork, printing presses, books, or cassette tapes. This sign is associated with the mentally disturbed, who may touch upon your life during this trend.

Uranus in the Twelfth House

Unforeseen circumstances or situations may restrict you from forming close ties with friends or taking an active role in any club or organization. Perhaps it is your job or responsibility with young children that is turning you into a loner, creating a sort of isolated condition. For those who are active with associations, you may feel as though your hard work and volunteer efforts are going unnoticed and unappreciated. After a while, you may lessen your activities and take a passive role. From time to time, you may receive unexpected good fortune from forgotten or hidden issues, or unexpected gifts from friends who want to repay you for past favors. Treat some of your friends with "kid gloves," for they may turn into secret enemies. This placement is associated with sudden and unexpected trips to the hospital with a member of the family.
