Your Planetary Day

While the calendar we use in the West dates from the 1500s, the seven days of the week have repeated without interruption for over two millennia. From ancient times, each day of the week has been associated with the Sun, Moon or one of the five visible planets. The weekday on which you were born shows where you stand in this ancient seven-fold cycle, and gives you a special link with the quality of its planetary ruler.

You were born on a Tuesday.

In English, Tuesday is named for Tiu, a Norse god who, like his Romance-language counterpart Mars, is associated with war and athletics. Astrologically, Mars, rules red, iron, blood, and the animal kingdom. In the Kabbalah, Mars is associated with Samael, angel of destruction, who clears the way for new creation. The sin of Mars is wrath and destructiveness, but his virtues are courage, activity, frankness and fairness. Keeping order and proportion in human affairs, fighting for justice, and defending the weak are among the highest uses of Mars energy. “Tuesday’s child is full of grace.” — Harper’s Weekly, 1887.

About Personal Numerology

The report that follows explores the numerological meaning of your birth date and the full name that was given to you at birth. Its aim is to make you more aware of the tendencies and patterns in your life, so that you can live more consciously, and more fully become the person you were meant to be.

As you read the following pages, remember that they describe pure types for each number. No one, of course, exhibits these character traits in their pure form. Instead, each of us is multi-dimensional, made up of many energy imperatives vying for expression. Some energies harmonize easily, while others are at cross-purposes, causing us to live with contradictions and inner conflicts. Our task is to honor all parts of ourselves and work at bringing our disparate selves into some kind of balance and cooperation. By making us more aware of our inner tendencies, numerology can help us to do this all- important work on ourselves.

In our families and other groups of which we are a part, some behaviors are encouraged and others are discouraged. If who we are wasn’t acceptable, we probably contorted ourselves to be what others wanted us to be. If so, we may have become what is called a “turn-type.”

For example, we may negatively manifest a number by expressing its opposite, as when the independent number 1 type becomes extremely dependent. Alternatively, the energy is out of balance and expressed extremely, as when the daring number 1 type becomes foolhardy. Or the energy is not developed enough, so that the number 1 is cowardly instead of courageous.

Because we feel that a certain trait is unacceptable and unworthy of us according to the biases of our family, superiors or peers, we may not be able to relate to it in ourselves. We may then spend many years discovering who we really are apart from other people's expectations of us.

Studies such as numerology can help us find our way out of this maze, orienting us toward our true being and the highest manifestation of what we are. They can give us an objective picture of our strengths and weaknesses, show us our place in the larger scheme of things, and help us find the hidden gold in our characters, which we may not have even suspected that we had.

How Numerology Works. Through the use of ancient principles, numerology can derive a world of meaning from your birthdate and birth name. In the course of your life other numbers may become important for you, and you will probably acquire other names, but, like your astrological birth chart, the numerological vibrations at the very beginning of your life set the tone for all that follows.

To find the meaning inherent in your day, month and year of birth, numerologists add the digits in various ways. Most totals turn out to be more than one digit. They therefore reduce them to a single digit by adding the digits together. Whenever a total turns out to be a master number like 11 or 22, however, it is left as-is. These doubled numbers have a special significance, and are given special interpretations.

To find the numerological meaning of your name, numerology assigns a number to each letter of the alphabet. In the Pythagorean system used in this report, A = 1, B = 2, and so on through the first nine letters, and then we repeat the cycle through the rest of the alphabet. We then total the numbers corresponding to the vowels, the numbers corresponding to the consonants, and the numbers corresponding to all the letters to determine specific things about your character.

Each digit from 1 to 9 represents a specific stage in a cycle and has its own set of associations. In general, the odd numbers are considered introverted, in the sense of being primarily focused on inner life. The even numbers tend toward extroversion: that is, being primarily focused on outer activities. The numbers 1, 6, and 22, however, are considered dual in nature.

This said, let us now look first at your basic character and the major themes in your life.

Your Life Path

The total of the day, month and year of your birth is called by numerologists the Life Path, Life Lesson, Birth Path, Birth Force or, sometimes, the Destiny number. This number is chosen by nature rather than by you or your parents, and it reflects the season and historical era of your birth. As its names suggest, it shows your mission in life, your life work and what the universe intends for you. It shows the opportunities you must seize in order to make the most of your potential. Following the life path that has been given to you will enable you to avoid continual discord and frustration, and to unfold in the way that is best for your nature. When you find your true place in the world, you will feel at home.

Your birthdate total is 9.

Your Life Path of 9 means that yours is a destiny on a universal level, where the aim is an expanded consciousness and capacity for human understanding. Develop any artistic talent you have as a means of communicating the universal truths you want to express. Keep yourself free to experience the many emotional contacts you will have. With your broad, unprejudiced philosophical outlook, you have the possibility of inspiring others and of rendering service to humanity.

Numerology based on your name: RAY CHARLES ROBINSON

What Motivates You in Life

We now move on to the name that you were given at birth. We first look at the total of the vowels in your full birth name, because this shows the emotional force that drives all that you do. Variously known as the Motivation, Soul Urge, Heart's Desire, or Inner Self number, the vowel total shows what you want out of life. Along with the Impression and Expression numbers that will be discussed below, it is a basic component of your character.

The vowel total in your name is 1.

With 1 as a Motivation number, you are essentially a leader, and you feel most comfortable when in control. Because you have more ideas than time to pursue them, you can often be very impatient. You relate best to those who admire you and who will let you dominate. This drive of yours to lead and be independent at all costs will allow you to accomplish a lot in life, but it could make you somewhat of a loner. Nevertheless, your own strong will must prevail.

Colors and gems have number vibrations, too. Your Motivation color is red and your Motivation gem is the ruby. Wear these when you want to relax and restore your energies.

More about Your Emotions and Motivations

The first vowel in your first name augments or mitigates the force of the vowel total, and gives additional information about your emotional nature and underlying motivations in life. It manifests differently depending on whether the vowel sound is long or short. The long vowel gives a more direct and forthright expression, while the expression of the short vowel is more muted.

The first vowel in your name is A.

“A” feels courageous and daring, and gives you the soul of a warrior. Often you do not look before you leap, impulsively getting yourself into more hot water than you’d like. But you have the dash and flair to extricate yourself no matter what. You like to be on the front line, and are not afraid to go out on a limb for your beliefs. Preferring to be the one in control, you do not take well to authority. You want to call the shots and go it alone, because you are often too impatient to wait for others.

The Impression You Give to Others

The total of the consonants in your name is known as the Impression, Personality, Outer Self or Adapted Self number. As its names suggest, this number signifies your persona, the face you show to the world. It shows the vibrations that you project, how others see you, and the kind of impression that you make on those around you. This has its origin in your illusions and fantasies, the world you create for yourself in daydreams. Given enough energy, your fantasies become reality, because you tend to become who you think you are.

Your consonant total is 8.

Having the Impression number 8, you are likely to have daydreams that center on money and influence and all the things that these can bring you. Perhaps you envision yourself as a powerful business tycoon who controls a large company. The strong, charismatic leader, you expect support from your partner, but are loyal and giving in return. You have a great appreciation for quality, and see yourself as a patron of the arts and a connoisseur of the finer things in life.

Your Impression color is rose, and your Impression gem is the diamond. Wear these when you want to be sociable and enjoy the company of others.

The Way You Express Yourself

The total of all the letters in your full name is variously called the Expression, Mission or Life Purpose number. Composed of both the vowels and the consonants, it represents the blending of your inner and outer selves. It thus shows the natural expression of your goals and desires: what you do best, and, by extension, your talents and career potential. It also indicates how you deal with the outside world: your style of solving problems, getting things done, and negotiating with others to attain what you would consider success.

Your name total is 9.

The Expression number 9 makes you tend to be a universe-oriented person who is by nature compassionate and understanding. You are a true humanitarian who also has the potential for high artistic achievement. A romantic at heart, you have emotions that swing from high to low. You could help humanity, and a job utilizing your aesthetic sense and sympathetic nature would suit you. Just do not drain yourself emotionally by becoming involved in too many things at once.

Your Expression colors are any and all colors in the brightest hues. Your Expression gem is the opal. Try wearing these when you need to be businesslike.

Careers Offering the Best Self-Expression

With 9 as your Expression number, consider these kinds of jobs:

The Boss: director of a charity organization, publisher, resort owner, judge, circulation manager.

On Stage: entertainer, actor, musician, teacher, philanthropist, clergyman, religious leader, reformer, politician, seller of decorative items, lecturer, promoter, receptionist.

Service: doctor, social worker, healer, lawyer, broker, advisor or counselor, reporter, engineer, beautician, navigator, freight dispatcher, mail clerk, policeman, fireman, parole officer, ranger.

Just You: composer, writer, illustrator, decorator, sculptor, author, humorist, engraver, astronomer, chemist, pilot.

Best Bet: any job that has humanitarian aims.

The Power You Can Achieve in Maturity

The total of the day, month and year of your birth and your full name at birth is known variously as the Power, Maturity, Reality, Real Self, Final Opportunity, Destiny or Goal Power number. A summation of both your name and your birthdate, this number shows how the two principal streams of energy converge to fulfill the purposes of your true self. The Power number is of great significance because it gives a clue as to what your ultimate life purpose might be.

This vibration usually becomes manifest only in the later part of your life. In the first half of life it tends to exist only as a potential. In these earlier years you live through many experiences that temper and define your character and aptitudes. Not until the age of 35 or 40 do most people live through enough life events to find their life purpose and develop it to the point where it becomes their main focus and direction. It is then that fulfillment comes. But this is usually achieved only after many false starts, and years of struggling to gain self-knowledge.

Finding your right place in life is gratifying. If you have not pushed through to this achievement, you can be dissatisfied and unhappy. You may feel at loose ends, without direction, rudderless and ill at ease. But if you have lived your life in accord with the purpose that was meant to be fulfilled in this life, you will find contentment and peace of mind.

What follows is the mature expression of your Power number. Mature development is not about living out someone else's idea of what you should be. It has more to do with honoring your own way of being in the world and moving from your own center. It is about trusting the process of unfoldment that exists within each of us and making this your guiding principle.

The total of your name and birthdate is 9.

A Power number of 9 signifies the humanitarian and universalist who knows that we are all brothers and sisters living on one earth. Nine is the archetype of the Reformer who has a broad vision that encompasses everyone, everywhere. Wishing to improve the lot of humankind and of the world, nines serve with willingness and compassion. Possessors of deep and powerful emotions, they work for causes with great energy and enthusiasm because of their vision of what the future can be. They weed the garden of the world in order to prepare the ground for the new growth that they envision. Nines have great personal magnetism through which they are able to influence people. Inspired and inspiring, they teach, counsel and heal. Uncomfortable living a personal life, they are at their best living their lives for the greater good.

Tarot Key 9: The Hermit

To gain further insights about your Power number, it can help to look at the Tarot trump that corresponds to it. In your case, this is the Hermit. In his pilgrimage through a dark landscape, the Hermit holds forth a lantern, searching for the truth. He has traveled far, and on his way he has incorporated into his being all facets of life. He has learned compassion and forgiveness. He now seeks only perfection, which he will not find around him. Instead, he will be led within, to a new level of awareness and a new beginning. The hermit is alone, with attention turned inward, but in his search he illuminates the darkness for others as well as himself.

Your Karmic Lessons

Karma numbers are digits that are completely missing in the letters of your name as given at birth. Most people have one or more Karma numbers. These missing digits serve as a guide to the areas of your life and personality that may be lacking. Such areas will benefit from special attention. If you ignore these blind spots, life can have a painful way of making you notice them. This, however, can eventually spur you forward on the path to wisdom. When you develop yourself in these areas, you will feel much more whole and complete.

The number 4 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 4, you may have to fight a tendency toward laziness and a lack of focus and concentration. You'll strengthen your character when you cultivate discipline and make an effort to work steadily for what you want.

Your Subconscious Response

Your Subconscious Response is related to how many Karma numbers you have. It shows the way you tend to react in emergencies, when you have no time to consult your intellect.

Your Subconscious Response number is 8.

When the going gets rough, you generally take charge of the situation in a calm and businesslike manner. You keep in control with a practical plan of action that is both well- organized and expedient.

Your Youth, Maturity and Later Years

So far, we've discussed the number vibrations that stay with you throughout your life. Now we move on to the three major periods of your life as shown by your Life Cycle numbers. These are derived from reducing the digits in your month, day and year of birth. The sum of the month digits describes the first period; the day, the second period; and the year, the third period.

Your First Life Cycle starts at birth and lasts until age 28.

Its number is 9.

This is a high vibration for a young person to bear. This is because 9 is not conducive to a sense of security, and because selflessness may be expected of you at a time in your development when it is natural to be selfish. There may be change and instability for you to cope with, and the air may be charged with emotional tensions that you are too young to understand. Your own needs as a child may be neglected, so that you do not know what to do with your own intense feelings. Some form of artistic expression can be a great help in sorting these feelings out, and a good education can provide some structure and resources to deal with life. Toward the end of this cycle you will most likely have gained enough maturity to feel more comfortable with the intense energies of a 9.

During the First Life Cycle, your Life Path number and your First Minor Challenge number are also especially important influences.

Your Second Life Cycle starts at age 28 and lasts until age 55.

Its number is 5.

For you, mid-life is a period best suited change and variety, so you will be happiest if not tied down unnecessarily. You will want to travel, and to experience the new and different in many ways. During this cycle you can get to renew yourself by breaking out of old routines. Now is the time to learn to adapt, to be free and to live for the moment. For the time being, it is best to put aside ideas of permanence.

During this Life Cycle or the next, your Power number generally begins to manifest.

Your Third Life Cycle starts at age 55 and lasts until death.

Its number is 4.

Since a 4 cycle brings practical activity and ongoing discipline, you may look forward always to being busy and productive in your later years. At this time of your life, such a cycle works best if you have either found a job that means fulfillment rather than "work," or you have planned a financial freedom that allows you to work for fun.

Major Decision or Turning Points in Your Life

Your Turning Points or Pinnacles are also derived from your full birthdate. Each of them defines a period in your life and the special issues that you will face during that period. As their name suggests, Turning Points show points of choice where you need to make decisions. Besides showing the issues at stake, the Turning Point number indicates the choice that will be best for you. Turning Points are like tests that you must pass before proceeding forward. The happiness that you feel in a given Turning Point period depends on the choices you've made and the skills you've developed when faced with the previous Turning Point.

Your First Turning Point starts at birth and lasts until age 34.
Its number is 5.

This youthful Turning Point offers a chance for travel, new ideas, and even a new lifestyle. Embrace these fearlessly, and you will develop your character for the next phase. You have a way with people and can now make the most of it. During this period you may feel unstable and rootless, and may need to wait for a more suitable period to build a satisfyingly firm foundation for your adult life.

Your Second Turning Point starts at age 35 and lasts until age 44.
Its number is 9.

In the next nine years of your life you will be called to seek out ways serving the world and your fellow human beings. This could be brought on by personal losses that stimulate you to seek higher forms of happiness than mere ego gratification. This is an ideal time to develop compassion and to learn to sustain yourself with an appreciation of all the beauty in your life.

Your Third Turning Point starts at age 45 and lasts until age 54.
Its number is 5.

This 5 vibration in the prime of your life may give you the choice of how you greet disruption and change. If it is forced upon you, it is best to loosen up and ride it out gracefully. If it is your own restlessness that keeps your life in continual upheaval, your choice is whether or not to bring this under control. You may have the chance to get out of a rut and travel, take in new ideas, and even totally change your lifestyle.

Your Fourth Turning Point starts at age 55 and lasts until death.
Its number is 4.

In the last period of your life, a 4 vibration calls you make practical choices, and you will get a good feeling from putting your affairs in order. You may need to live on a tight budget, but if you approach it with the correct attitude, this need not feel like a great burden. You may be one of those for whom thrift is a pleasure and an entertainment. A steady routine of work can keep you on track, and if you so choose, you can derive deep satisfaction by leaving a legacy of tangible achievement.

The Challenges You Will Meet

Everyone is born with special lessons to be learned. Again, your full birth date has inherent in it two Minor Challenges that are usually presented to you earlier in life, and a Major Challenge that is lifelong but which you will probably get to master only later in life.

Challenges may at first present themselves to you as external obstacles to your progress, but they arise from the deficiencies that you are born with, parts that are lacking or underdeveloped. Once you can determine exactly what the weak link is, you can make a conscious effort to strengthen that trait within yourself. This takes willpower and may sometimes feel as if you are going against the grain, but it pays off abundantly in terms of progress and success in life. As you tackle each challenge, your fears are pushed back, your scope enlarges, and you feel more comfortable in the world.

Your First Minor Challenge number is 4.

The First Minor Challenge usually crops up early in life. When its number is 4, you will need to learn how to work effectively before you can do much else in the world. In youth, the lesson is usually to learn to settle down and concentrate. Later on, it is often to avoid becoming a “grind” and letting work take over your whole life. The challenge, anyway, is to give work its proper place, and learn a balance between work and play.

Your Second Minor Challenge number is 1.

When the number 1 is your Second Minor Challenge, you will probably need to do most of your work on this area in mid-life, during your Second Life Cycle from about ages 35 to 62. This is a time to work on your will power and on asserting yourself as an individual. It is a time to overcome dependency and stand on your own feet so that you don't believe you need to please others in order to survive. Pick a goal, and in working toward it you will realize your own powers. Then you will have earned the respect of others and yourself.

Your Major Challenge number is 3.

You face your Major Challenge throughout life. Most likely, however, you will find yourself needing to do the most work on it during your Third Life Cycle, after the lesser challenges have been met. With a Challenge number of 3, you will feel impeded until you learn to overcome the barriers to the free expression of your natural talents. Cultivate your communication skills, and allow yourself to relax and play. When you learn to do this, your creative talents will flourish.
