Life Progressions

We are born into an existing progression of change, through which we evolve and grow during our lifetime. Being conscious of our position in this succession of change helps us more clearly define and understand ourselves. An awareness of our current life situation relative to a larger, evolving chain of events helps us negotiate the challenges that confront us in our daily lives.

This Life Progression report (based on the technique of Secondary progressions) describes experiences and understandings relative to particular aspects, thus depicting the effect of these planetary aspects on an individual. The report covers a period of at least one year. The time period covered by the text varies according to the nature of the astrological event associated with each paragraph. A paragraph referring to a progressed Moon will cover a much shorter period than one referring to the zodiacal sign on a progressed house cusp. This report is intended to enhance the natal chart, not to replace it. The two go hand-in-hand. The progressed chart brings to fruition the promises of the natal chart.

Report for Hillary Rodham Clinton Your Life Progressions for Apr 1, 2005

Leo on the First Cusp

You possess a personal magnetic appeal that draws admiration from others. You have self-assurance, coupled with a dramatic flair that desires to be the center of attention. You may speak more loudly than you have in the past. You want very much for others to hear your opinions and may, at times, be too aggressive in the attempt. Upgrading your appearance is important, as you seek the latest styles and better quality. You want to project an air of authority, and you long for personal independence in your career. If you do not have your own business, you would prefer the role of leadership in a supervisory position. This is the time to undertake new studies that can aid you in the career of your choice. Romance and investments are highlighted -- as are the affairs of children (not necessarily your own). Someone within your immediate environment may experience problems with their eyes, back, or heart. The position of your progressed ascendant ruler, Sun, can provide additional insight into new circumstances and motivational influences touching your life at this time.

Mars in Virgo

The energetic planet Mars has progressed into the passive sign of Virgo. There is a marked increase of mental activity and motivation that is likely to be expressed inwardly. New job opportunities or ventures may require a certain degree of isolation in the performance of work-related duties. This is not to imply that you will no longer be people oriented, but certain aspects of your vocation may draw you behind the scenes from time to time. Much routine and boring detail work will touch upon your life. Mental blocks may hinder progress but they can be overcome by increasing oxygen to the brain through exercising or taking long walks. This is an excellent placement for police or security work, medical, and health or physical therapy. The affairs of aunts and uncles are activated, and a possible loss of friends. Men met through your job or those of discriminative tastes, and tinged with a critical facility, may have some affect upon your affairs.

Mars in the First House

You're on a roll, with loads of energy to spare. You're feeling aggressive, independent, and eager to begin new projects. Just pace yourself a bit, so you don't antagonize others with abrupt and impulsive actions. There is initiative, with personal involvement in new ventures or undertakings. You are striving for independence and freedom of movement in everyday affairs. New ideas that offer exciting challenges appeal to you now. This placement reacts strongly on a personal level, where one is forced to take the lead in certain situations or activities. You may experience a noticeable lack of cooperation from others. Learn to handle tasks and arrive at decisions on your own. Exercise patience in driving, daily activities, and contact with others, as this planet can arouse the tendency toward carelessness, argumentativeness, and disputes. It is also associated with cuts, bruises, burns, migraine headaches, and accidents.

Mars Trine Midheaven (Prg-Prg) Jul 6, 2005

You can look forward to increased activity in the promotion of career matters and personal goals. An enterprising spirit and the ability to make personal decisions will make for a successful period. You will have more freedom to take advantage of new and successful vocational changes. Bosses, a figure of authority, and parents can be of valuable assistance in the advancement of your future aspirations. In the general sense, this is the time to take advantage of all opportunities of a challenging nature in which freedom of thought, decision, and action are yours to make.

Saturn in the First House

A personality change may occur in anyone who, during the formative years, has progressed Saturn entering the progressed first house. Youth finds it difficult to handle the restrictive and delaying elements of this placement. As a result, one may rebel against what they feel are unnecessary hindrances and undue responsibilities. Some may become belligerent against those in authority whom they feel are bearing down too heavily on them. A serious state of mind or mental depression and a lack of self-confidence may be present. Constant encouragement and praise in their accomplishments (no matter how minor), coupled with lots of affection, can help to smooth these difficult times. Braces on the teeth, skin problems, or correction of the bony structure of the body often accompany this placement. Should Saturn progress to the first house during adult years, there is a readiness for assuming responsibilities. Organizing ability is enhanced. Others recognize your strength and endurance in handling difficult tasks. As a result, you may be placed in a supervisory position. The government, political parties, or individuals of rank and authority, a parent, or an older individual will have a long-range influence upon your life. Soup and hot beverages can do wonders in warding off chills and colds during the change of seasons.

Ascendant Square Venus (Prg-Nat) May 4, 2006

Your emotions and feelings are ultra-sensitive at this time. This can create a problem when dealing with women, romantic attachments and business or marital partnerships. Guard against extravagance and unwise or risky ventures that can result in financial loss. Have your reproductive system checked, as well as any potential for blood clots, growths, and varicose veins.

Virgo on the Second Cusp

Constructive developments, either through work or business, can enhance your financial structure. Although formerly you may have detested routine work, you will probably find yourself in a position where proper attention to details will be required. Your daily routine may involve keeping records of travel expenses or of special equipment purchased in your line of work. You may be spending more than you have in the past for health care or products -- not necessarily for yourself, but possibly for your marriage partner or a domestic pet.

Libra on the Third Cusp

Circumstances warrant a diplomatic approach in your everyday contact with others. You may find yourself in the role of doing public relations work where finesse, charm, and a persuasive manner are a must. You may make a considerable number of short trips in connection with pleasures, social activities, and business. Companionships will be an essential factor to your mental well being, as you find little pleasure in doing things alone. It is possible that you may enter into some kind of mutual enterprise with a brother or sister. In other cases, you may have to keep records for your marriage or business partner.

Neptune in the Third House

Intuition and a capacity for visualization may be highly developed. There is the uncanny knack for reading other people's minds or voicing the thoughts they were about to convey at that time. The unusual in studies and subjects intrigues you. You have an imaginative mind that can be quite successful in the writing of articles or books. To succeed in this area, there is a need for self-discipline and concentration to avoid the tendency for mental drifting and daydreaming. Messages have a way of getting confused or mixed-up. Make it a point to double-check before venturing to a planned meeting place. Always review business agreements, and read the small print to avoid misunderstandings. Keep a map handy in the glove compartment in case of detours and necessary re-routing, to avoid the possibility of getting lost. Others will feel your sensitivity and begin confiding in you. Don't pass on any of the proffered information. Gossip or rumors invariably will come back to you and cause embarrassment. Brothers, sisters, and other close relations may be a source for concern, with health problems that are difficult to diagnose or require medication to control. Be ready to assist those that appear confused, or those that place too much reliance on drugs or alcoholic beverages.

Scorpio on the Fourth Cusp

There appears to be a lot of tension, emotional upheaval, and turbulent events surrounding your home life. This may account for your desire to be a loner, remain aloof, and keep your private life to yourself. Changes are likely to occur regarding property and finances. Severe weather conditions may have damaged your home, requiring insurance settlements and a rebuilding of the unit. Or, job and marriage difficulties may call for a second mortgage. In some cases there is loss of a family member, usually a grandparent. Whatever the situation may be, you have the extraordinary will-power to handle it. This sign is associated with surgery on the sexual parts in connection with one of the parents.

Sagittarius on the Fifth Cusp

It is possible to play the role of instructor during this trend. You are quite versatile in your hobbies and talents. Why not contact your local adult education center and see what you can offer? You are less intense in your romantic attachments, seeking partners that are more outgoing, sports minded, and of the same intellectual caliber. Children are thinking about a college education. Others may move to distant cities, which may activate future travels on your part. At some point during this trend, you may have to assist a child in resolving a legal issue. Your second sibling may temporarily relocate. If interested in investments, look to foreign products, exports, airlines, and sporting goods.

Sun in Capricorn

Your character is changing from the free-spirited Sagittarius sign to the persevering, practical, cautious, and secretive traits of the progressed Sun in Capricorn. You swing like a pendulum from positive to negative, sometimes yielding to various states of depression. There is a greater scope of opportunities to advance in professional or public affairs. Politics or government may influence your vocational duties. There may be a readiness to assume additional responsibilities or a supervisory position. This is a "hurry up and wait" sign, so don't expect immediate results or progress. This retarding influence holds greater promise and long-range benefits for those who persevere. A parent, a mature individual, or an authority figure will have a pronounced influence upon your career.

Sun in the Fifth House

The affairs of children, romance, creativity, investments, and sports are intensified. Self-assurance, self-confidence, and leadership qualities increase success in achieving possessions, recognition, and advancements. You display a dramatic flair through artistic endeavors or the manner in which you present yourself. Your most vulnerable and sensitive areas lie in the field of romance. Rejection plays havoc with your ego. Your wounded pride keeps you from truly expressing yourself with new relationships through the fear of being hurt again. Gains and losses are possible from investments, pleasurable pursuits, children, and gambling.

Mercury in Sagittarius

Your unbending and obstinate mentality is lessening in intensity as your Mercury progresses into the free-spirited sign of Sagittarius. You will have to be very careful now and in the future, to avoid being misunderstood. It's not so much what you say, but how you phrase the words. In the process of relaxing your mental inner tension, you may become more forthright in your speech and too direct in your approach, without pausing to consider the effect it may have on other people. This placement of Mercury is likely to promote long-distance contacts through letters, phone calls, and travels. On occasion you may be called upon to play the role of instructor -- some will do so in schools, while others will be teaching new techniques in their vocational field. Brothers, sisters, or you yourself, may temporarily move to a distant city. It is possible, in some instances, that legal issues may arise with neighbors or the affairs of siblings.

Mercury in the Fifth House

You have a natural flair for blending intellectual matters with artistic and educational pursuits. Schools and children become prominent in your life, in your role as a teacher or as a parent helping your child with homework. There is a tendency to be too analytical or faultfinding in matters surrounding children or romance. Anxiety and worry in connection with these areas can create a stressed condition that often reacts on the nervous system. Frequent short trips or paperwork may be tied in some way with romance, children, or speculation. Taking the time to study or research various speculative programs can prove advantageous. Children of your brother, sister, or a neighbor may play an important role in your life during this trend.

Mercury Opposition Uranus (Prg-Nat) Feb 7, 2006

You may experience serious opposition or difficulties in coming across to others communicatively. Others may view you as being unreasonable or inclined to go to extremes in personal opinions. You will have to deal carefully with strangers and acquaintances who may apply pressure and try to coerce you to make unwise decisions or sign important papers that you will later regret. Sudden and unexpected circumstances may result in separation from brothers, sisters, friends, and close ties.

Jupiter in the Fifth House

You are projecting an air of self-confidence and self-assurance that meets the approval of others, thereby increasing your popularity. There is the possibility of mingling and forming close associations with people of a higher social status than your own. This is an excellent placement for those who want to conceive children, teach, or take an active role in the educational process. Listen to your intuition. It can provide lucky hunches when dealing with investments, gambling, the race track, or football pools. Travel may be connected with schools, attending sporting events, fan clubs, gambling casinos, or visiting children who reside in distant cities. Opportunities for romantic involvements may activate social affairs. Your free-spirited attitude may require some control to prevent casual affairs from developing into serious situations. Lawsuits or legal entanglements may surround affairs dealing with children, night clubs, and places of entertainment or sports.

Capricorn on the Sixth Cusp

You are developing strong traits in organizing ability, efficiency, and acceptance of responsibility. You work well alone, and at some time during this trend, you may have to work the evening or night shift. There is a strong possibility you may work for the government, or there may be a governmental contract at your place of employment that requires you to wear an identification badge during this trend. If you are on salary, there is the tendency for supervisors to burden you with more than your share of work. Your only alternative is to demand extra monetary compensation. Make it a point to have lots of hot beverages and plenty of soup during winter months to keep the body temperature warm.

Venus in Capricorn

This new position of Venus, by progression into Capricorn, may cool and control the emotional nature. There appears to be an invisible barrier that you have built around yourself. Perhaps you have been recently hurt or rejected, resulting in mistrust and suspicion of others. You will need constant encouragement and reassurance before you permit yourself to enter into a meaningful relationship. This is an excellent placement for those who are ambitious and are seeking public recognition. Bosses and others in authority are impressed with your dignified manner and may assist in your advancement. New vocational interests or changes may require you to attend frequent social functions. Mature women or individuals of Capricorn coloring can be of help or hindrance in your career.

Venus in the Sixth House

Peace, serenity, and a harmonious atmosphere are required if you are to be productive in your line of work. There appears to be a popular demand for your talents and specialized skill. Co-workers may provide an outlet for social enjoyment and relaxation. On occasion, you may have to attend various functions in connection with your job. Your friendly, genial attitude will draw admiration from others and, on occasion, lead to an affectional relationship. Cooperative efforts or partnership arrangements are more to your liking as daily routine work appears burdensome when you have to tackle it alone. Make it a point to drink plenty of fluids to maintain balance in your system. Fluids also help in youthful skin appearance and eliminating possible kidney problems. Contacts with or through the affairs of women may have an affect on your job.

Venus Sextile Moon (Prg-Nat) Nov 17, 2005

Unless other conditions are prevailing in your life, this should be a happy, relaxed, and successful period -- one in which you should take advantage of all opportunities for social advancements. Do what you can to make yourself available for new contacts that can lead to successful linking of associations. Emotions and feelings are stirred, adding new zest to the marriage state or drawing attention from the opposite sex, if single. A general improvement of financial success, receiving of social invitations, flowers, or gifts is indicated.

Aquarius on the Seventh Cusp

Friends, clubs, and associations will be instrumental in providing you with an active social life. You are seeking a marriage or business partner who can act independently and decisively -- but not erratically, for you are a fixed sign and like a certain amount of routine in your everyday existence. Accept your partner's needs and desires for close friendships, whether you approve of them or not.

Pisces on the Eighth Cusp

You have a vivid imagination when it comes to sexual fantasy. The ideal romantic atmosphere would include a mixed drink or two, a sheer nighty, dim lights, soft music, and the pitter-patter of rain drops on the window pane. You are also quite sensitive and easily hurt if someone should criticize your sexual proclivities. Always make it a point to save your receipts and records with major purchases. It will help you avoid a constant flow of confusion through billing systems and computers that keep insisting you owe them money. Be alert to possible deception through partnership funds or investment schemes. During this trend it is possible that institutional or private care of someone who is emotionally, mentally, or physically ill may be financially draining.

Aries on the Ninth Cusp

Distant matters, higher education, and travel will require your personal attention. It is possible you will take a course in the martial arts or learn the basic rules of sports such as volleyball ball or racquetball. You may have to travel alone from time to time, perhaps in connection with your vocation. Legal action on your part is likely to be over mechanical defects of a large purchase or a possible accident.

Moon in Taurus

Your mind deliberates with caution on serious subject matters. Perhaps you have learned a valuable lesson on impulsive decision-making while the Moon was progressing through the sign of Aries. Others may notice this change of attitude and they may view you as somewhat stubborn, experiencing some difficulty in swaying you toward a new course of action. However, if they were to appeal to your sense of logic and illustrate why your ideas are not feasible, you might yield to the practical nature of their suggestions. If you were extravagant during the last few years, you may take a more conservative approach in the handling of personal funds, determined to clear up any accumulated obligations and striving for a more secured savings program. Money and movable possessions may play an important role during this trend. A mellow feeling of contentment may cause a homebody existence, whereby one prefers to entertain in the comfort of home with a few select friends. Vulnerable areas for health problems are in the throat and neck. Note the house position of your progressed Moon to determine the area of life this sign is likely to influence.

Moon in the Ninth House

There is little resistance at this time toward personal progress and achievement of goals. You should strive to take advantage of all opportunities that present themselves for future growth and expansions. This is an excellent time to undertake new study courses whether they be academic or merely to improve a sporting skill. Either your chances of travel will improve or you will receive communications and visits from those living in distant cities. Emotions may be aroused through matters concerning a female in-law or a distant relative. Situations involving publications, religion, or lawsuits may come to the fore, along with foreigners and individuals from all walks of life. Blend the sign position of your progressed Moon with this house placement for greater scope concerning future advancements.

Moon Quincunx Jupiter (Prg-Nat) Jan 14, 2005

The trends are fairly good during the next three months for financial, business, and social affairs. This is a period of time in which one should review present progress and concentrate on sowing the seeds for future growth and expansion. Consider the consequences of any new ventures or undertakings. Can you handle additional projects? Can you fit them into your busy schedule without undue stress on your health? A sensible diet and exercise program along with avoiding excesses, can do wonders for renewing your vitality.

Moon Trine Sun (Prg-Prg) Jan 14, 2005

This is a very successful period and can aid in the realization of your fondest hopes and ambitions. Apply personal efforts toward new opportunities in business advancements or embark on new enterprises. Make new friends and increase social contacts. Close ties and those in authority can be of beneficial help and assistance during the next few months. There is a possibility of renewed emotional and affectional feelings as you develop a close bond with a new relationship. There should be an increase in vitality, with a personal sense of well-being. This is one of the most auspicious periods for recuperation or overcoming past illnesses.

Moon Opposition Sun (Prg-Nat) Mar 16, 2005

You are entering a critical position in which trying conditions of anxiety and worry may be experienced. Changes are par for the course, resulting in a break-up of existing conditions or separation from close ties. Social activities may be at a standstill or prove to be a disappointment. Feelings and emotions are vulnerable and likely to suffer through loss of pride and dignity. The following three months are a time for major decisions and for recognizing the need for a new direction in life. You will have to clarify your goals and personal desires, and then take the necessary steps to set them in motion.

Moon Sextile Midheaven (Prg-Nat) May 18, 2005

This is a three-month period in which one should take advantage of all opportunities for advancement and positive career changes. You have great rapport with bosses, those in authority, and the general public. This is a good time to contact those who can help you rise to a higher social status. You may receive an award or recognition for a personal achievement, possibly get your name or photo in the local newspaper, or appear on television or radio.

Moon Conjunction Midheaven (Prg-Prg) Jun 13, 2005

This is an ideal time for considering career changes. This does not have to be with a new company. It may be a new department -- possibly with vocational duties. There is the possibility of coming before the public or having your photo appear in the company newsletter for past contributions. Some likelihood of appearing on television or radio. A grandparent or parent will be of prime concern.

Moon Trine Mars (Prg-Prg) Jun 14, 2005

The following three months can be a highly productive period if your energy flow is properly directed. Make positive use of all opportunities that come your way. Be ambitious and enterprising, and push personal affairs toward new ventures and undertakings. Be assertive in changing your life-style or environment if you feel hindered in your present situation. This is a good time to travel, purchase a new car, or tackle projects that require extra energy.

Moon Quincunx Neptune (Prg-Nat) Nov 4, 2005

You may come in touch with undesirable people who may try to engulf you in a sticky or intriguing situation. They are not likely to have your best interests at heart.

Guard against possible deception and deceit through the opposite sex. Be alert to conditions surrounding your environment or place of work. You may be sensitive to hidden elements that are difficult to detect (such as paints, gases, oils, fumes, or toxic waste material). If you feel "out of sorts," so to speak, and can't place your finger on the problem, get a physical check-up. Then get a second opinion to make sure there has not been an oversight with the first one.

The trends are fairly good during the next three months for financial, business, and social affairs. This is a period of time in which one should review present progress and concentrate on sowing the seeds for future growth and expansion. Consider the consequences of any new ventures or undertakings. Can you handle additional projects? Can you fit them into your busy schedule without undue stress on your health? A sensible diet and exercise program along with avoiding excesses, can do wonders for renewing your vitality.

Moon Square Mars (Prg-Nat) Jan 20, 2006

An extraordinary amount of energy can be unleashed, either in the negative or positive sense. It all depends upon your own attitude, and whether or not you can direct this physical and mental energy through constructive channels. This excessive force must be controlled if you are to avoid impulsive and hasty actions that you will later regret. Realize that this is an accident-prone tendency, so use care in driving and handling of sharp instruments. Be tolerant with close ties. Abrupt speech can cause hurt feelings and lead to unnecessary quarrels. Get a check-up where fevers, inflammations, or infections persist.

Moon Square Pluto (Prg-Prg) Jan 30, 2006

Emotional outbursts may be unleashed against those whom you feel are trying either to dominate you or to create changes that are upsetting to your environment. Although these changes may be necessary in the scheme of things, you may find it difficult adjusting to them. The altering of these conditions may result in separation from loved ones, and finding it hard to let go. It may be parents moving to a distant city, a child getting married, loss of an older member of the family, or a divorce. Whatever the circumstances, your domestic and emotional feelings will undergo an intense change.

Moon Square Pluto (Prg-Nat) Feb 5, 2006

Emotional outbursts may be unleashed against those whom you feel are trying either to dominate you or to create changes that are upsetting to your environment. Whatever the circumstances, your domestic and emotional feelings will undergo an intense change.

Moon Square Ascendant (Prg-Prg) Mar 28, 2006

Emotional and domestic difficulties, especially where women are concerned. They are likely to be a source of irritation or interference with personal plans. This could result in a break-up of close emotional ties -- perhaps a separation from a loved one or parent. If running for public office, it would be wise to seek the counsel of someone experienced in public relations. Your own image will not project as well as you would prefer. A PR person can help to smooth the rough edges.

Moon Opposition Venus (Prg-Nat) Mar 30, 2006

You will have to be selective of close associations, friends, and the opposite sex during this short duration of three months. It can be a trying time for feelings and emotions, one that may call for a compromise and a yielding to the wishes of another to avoid a break-up or temporary separation. An emotional confrontation can result in hurt feelings, disappointments, or sorrow over what has been said or done. A possible disagreement over the handling of monetary or domestic affairs can create painful conflicts. It would be wise to avoid close contacts with women in general, until this trend has passed.

Moon Opposition Mercury (Prg-Nat) Jul 26, 2006

You may be faced with an important decision during the coming months. As long as you don't overreach yourself and are cautious with written or verbal agreements, you should not have any real problems. Disputes can be avoided if you don't jump to conclusions and if you apply discretion in all you say or do. Moderation is the theme word in all confrontations. There may be a change of plans, requiring a compromise. Avoid traveling more than necessary. Brothers, sisters, and close kin may be a source of concern or aggravation.

Moon Square Saturn (Prg-Nat) Jul 27, 2006

Delays and hindrances during the next three months are likely to hold you back from getting satisfactory results through personal, financial, or business affairs. This can be a critical period in connection with a grandparent or other older members of the family. They may be a source for concern or added responsibility. You may withdraw from social contact due to an inner feeling of rejection or lack of emotional response. These trends do not favor new undertakings or making changes of a personal nature. There may be a vulnerability to frequent colds, chills, aching knees or bones, and possible dental problems. Your vitality may be low, so get plenty of rest and eat lots of hot foods.

Moon Quincunx Mercury (Prg-Prg) Dec 29, 2006

This is a period in which mental independence in speaking and general correspondence is stressed. A good time to make plans for future study courses or learning new skills and techniques. During the next few months you may be kept rather busy providing services for others -- perhaps driving them to dental appointments or other such commitments.

Taurus on the Tenth Cusp

Your goal in life at this time is to advance financially in your chosen profession. You would like nothing better than to make a lucky coup in some business venture. Financial situations require careful watching. Overextension of monetary affairs can lead to damaged credit ratings, consolidating of bills, or obtaining a second mortgage. A parent may be a good source for financial assistance.

Gemini on the Eleventh Cusp

You will make new friends who are witty, active, and intellectual. Clubs, organizations, and group activities involving manual dexterity and quickness of motion (such as golfing, racquetball, volleyball, or karate) will hold strong interest. There is the possibility of a secretarial position or keeping records for an organization. Your present hopes and wishes appear to be based on educational advancements.

Uranus in the Eleventh House

Your desire for change and variety is likely to introduce new and exciting experiences into your life. An interest in unusual, unique subjects will draw strange and unconventional people of vastly different backgrounds -- electronic technicians, those involved with radio or television, astrologers, vegetarians, fanatical or distraught people, and homosexuals. Your social affairs will be stimulated once you decide to start an organization or take a personal interest in group activities. Unexpected circumstances can bring your hopes and wishes to sudden realization or -- just as abruptly -- dash them to the ground. You will be making new and unexpected friendships -- and just as quickly -- others will depart from your life. This placement will produce a hectic period in which an everyday routine existence will be difficult to maintain.

Cancer on the Twelfth Cusp

You are super sensitive about criticism and rejection from others. You won't wear your heart on your sleeve. No one will ever know the emotional hurt you experience, because it is so deeply imbedded and hidden. You have strong maternal and protective instincts for the handicapped and the downtrodden. Environmental conditions can affect your emotional state. You require an atmosphere of tranquility and harmony before you can function well.

Pluto in the Twelfth House

There will be a strong desire to work in secrecy, do research, or study subjects of a mysterious nature. There is an inclination to delve into the supernatural and unusual phenomena. Mysticism, yoga, and mind control are just a few of the topics that may hold your interest. This is also a period that calls for intense internal readjustment. You may be required to rid yourself of old and useless items and ideas. A school, college, the armed forces, or an institution may be involved with your transformation. You will learn to suppress or overcome your fears, change or alter some physical aspect of your body or style of dress, and rid yourself of bad habits. Guard against gullibility where joint finances are concerned. This is not the time to co-sign for monetary concerns involving others. Whatever you loan out, materially or financially, is not likely to be repaid or returned.
