Your Planetary Day

While the calendar we use in the West dates from the 1500s, the seven days of the week have repeated without interruption for over two millennia. From ancient times, each day of the week has been associated with the Sun, Moon or one of the five visible planets. The weekday on which you were born shows where you stand in this ancient seven-fold cycle, and gives you a special link with the quality of its planetary ruler.

You were born on a Saturday.

This is the day of Saturn, associated with the Greek Chronos, god of time and the scythe-carrying ruler of endings, limitation and boundaries — and therefore of form and solid objects. Saturn rules all that is tangible and material, most especially the mineral kingdom. Saturn's metal is lead; his colors, earth hues and dark shades like black and navy. As a planet, Saturn is the archetype of the elder who embodies rigidity, but also authority and substance. Traditionally, the sin of Saturn was covetousness; his virtue, prudence. In the Kabbalah, Saturn is ruled by Orphiel, angel of care and solicitude. On the Kabbalistic Tree of Life, Saturn is associated with Binah, one of the highest Sephiroth, which signifies the Great Mother, the principle of Form and of Understanding. "Saturday's child must work for a living." — Harper's Weekly, 1887.

About Personal Numerology

The report that follows explores the numerological meaning of your birth date and the full name that was given to you at birth. Its aim is to make you more aware of the tendencies and patterns in your life, so that you can live more consciously, and more fully become the person you were meant to be.

As you read the following pages, remember that they describe pure types for each number. No one, of course, exhibits these character traits in their pure form. Instead, each of us is multi-dimensional, made up of many energy imperatives vying for expression. Some energies harmonize easily, while others are at cross-purposes, causing us to live with contradictions and inner conflicts. Our task is to honor all parts of ourselves and work at bringing our disparate selves into some kind of balance and cooperation. By making us more aware of our inner tendencies, numerology can help us to do this all-important work on ourselves.

In our families and other groups of which we are a part, some behaviors are encouraged and others are discouraged. If who we are wasn't acceptable, we probably contorted ourselves to be what others wanted us to be. If so, we may have become what is called a "turn-type."

For example, we may negatively manifest a number by expressing its opposite, as when the independent number 1 type becomes extremely dependent. Alternatively, the energy is out of balance and expressed extremely, as when the daring number 1 type becomes foolhardy. Or the energy is not developed enough, so that the number 1 is cowardly instead of courageous.

Because we feel that a certain trait is unacceptable and unworthy of us according to the biases of our family, superiors or peers, we may not be able to relate to it in ourselves. We may then spend many years discovering who we really are apart from other people's expectations of us.

Studies such as numerology can help us find our way out of this maze, orienting us toward our true being and the highest manifestation of what we are. They can give us an objective picture of our strengths and weaknesses, show us our place in the larger scheme of things, and help us find the hidden gold in our characters, which we may not have even suspected that we had.

How Numerology Works. Through the use of ancient principles, numerology can derive a world of meaning from your birthdate and birth name. In the course of your life other numbers may become important for you, and you will probably acquire other names, but, like your astrological birth chart, the numerological vibrations at the very beginning of your life set the tone for all that follows.

To find the meaning inherent in your day, month and year of birth, numerologists add the digits in various ways. Most totals turn out to be more than one digit. They therefore reduce them to a single digit by adding the digits together. Whenever a total turns out to be a master number like 11 or 22, however, it is left as-is. These doubled numbers have a special significance, and are given special interpretations.

To find the numerological meaning of your name, numerology assigns a number to each letter of the alphabet. In the Pythagorean system used in this report, A = 1, B = 2, and so on through the first nine letters, and then we repeat the cycle through the rest of the alphabet. We then total the numbers corresponding to the vowels, the numbers corresponding to the consonants, and the numbers corresponding to all the letters to determine specific things about your character.

Each digit from 1 to 9 represents a specific stage in a cycle and has its own set of associations. In general, the odd numbers are considered introverted, in the sense of being primarily focused on inner life. The even numbers tend toward extroversion: that is, being primarily focused on outer activities. The numbers 1, 6, and 22, however, are considered dual in nature.

This said, let us now look first at your basic character and the major themes in your life.

Your Life Path

The total of the day, month and year of your birth is called by numerologists the Life Path, Life Lesson, Birth Path, Birth Force or, sometimes, the Destiny number. This number is chosen by nature rather than by you or your parents, and it reflects the season and historical era of your birth. As its names suggest, it shows your mission in life, your life work and what the universe intends for you. It shows the opportunities you must seize in order to make the most of your potential. Following the life path that has been given to you will enable you to avoid continual discord and frustration, and to unfold in the way that is best for your nature. When you find your true place in the world, you will feel at home.

Your birthdate total is 22/4.

Your Life Path of 22 is a master number. This means that your destiny is a truly special one, and carries the promise of tremendous power and influence. You must handle this power carefully, however, because it has the potential for either great creativity or great destruction. It is particularly important for you to act for the welfare of others, and harness your resources for the good. Gifted with far-reaching vision, you can then make an impact on the world and bring about great transformations.

Before you can fully live up to the full potential of the master number 22, you may need to practice living on its lower, reduced vibration of 4. This means developing the ability to work steadily to get the job done in the most effective and efficient way possible. It means developing self-discipline, sticking to a routine long enough to become a dependable resource for others and long enough to get something practical accomplished. You need to be able to deal successfully with logic, facts and the material world. Then you will be capable of becoming the visionary master builder promised by your Life Path of 22.

Numerology based on your name: TENZIN GYATSO

What Motivates You in Life

We now move on to the name that you were given at birth. We first look at the total of the vowels in your full birth name, because this shows the emotional force that drives all that you do. Various known as the Motivation, Soul Urge, Heart's Desire, or Inner Self number, the vowel total shows what you want out of life. Along with the Impression and Expression numbers that will be discussed below, it is a basic component of your character.

The vowel total in your name is 3.

With 3 as a Motivation number, you are the born entertainer who is always encircled by friends and admirers. Beauty and glamour are necessary parts of your existence. You need to feel that you're in the center of what's happening and that your life is a whirl with excitement. You're a flirt and love to be admired for your charm and wit. Communication and self-expression are vital to your well being. Living on an emotional seesaw, you're never down for long.

Colors and gems have number vibrations, too. Your Motivation color is yellow and your Motivation gem is the topaz. Wear these when you want to relax and restore your energies.

More about Your Emotions and Motivations

The first vowel in your first name augments or mitigates the force of the vowel total, and gives additional information about your emotional nature and underlying motivations in life. It manifests differently depending on whether the vowel sound is long or short. The long vowel gives a more direct and forthright expression, while the expression of the short vowel is more muted.

The first vowel in your name is E.

“E” feels changeable and restless, and gives you a love of freedom and excitement. You tend to be on the move, always on the lookout for the next interesting event. For you, variety is truly the spice of life. You are mentally stimulating and stimulated mentally by all that passes before you. Preferring to remain unfettered and free to explore new horizons, you find it difficult to take root. A “people” person, you are outgoing and have many friends who enjoy your optimism and good humor. You also work well with your hands and are very versatile.

The Impression You Give to Others

The total of the consonants in your name is known as the Impression, Personality, Outer Self or Adapted Self number. As its names suggest, this number signifies your persona, the face you show to the world. It shows the vibrations that you project, how others see you, and the kind of impression that you make on those around you. This has its origin in your illusions and fantasies, the world you create for yourself in daydreams. Given enough energy, your fantasies become reality, because you tend to become who you think you are.

Your consonant total is 1.

Having the Impression number 1, you dream of being a pioneer for mankind: an original, daring trendsetter who is strongly individual. As the number 1 represents ego and self-realization, you see yourself as forceful and effective in obtaining what others can't even see. You want always to be first and best, and for others to be in awe of your abilities and accomplishments. Most of all, you always want to feel that you are in control.

Your Impression color is red, and your Impression gem is the ruby. Wear these when you want to be sociable and enjoy the company of others.

The Way You Express Yourself

The total of all the letters in your full name is variously called the Expression, Mission or Life Purpose number. Composed of both the vowels and the consonants, it represents the blending of your inner and outer selves. It thus shows the natural expression of your goals and desires: what you do best, and, by extension, your talents and career potential. It also indicates how you deal with the outside world: your style of solving problems, getting things done, and negotiating with others to attain what you would consider success.

Your name total is 4.

The Expression number 4 makes you tend to be the workhorse who loves to organize things, devise systems, and make sure that everything has its place. You are especially good with your hands, and feel most comfortable in the material world where you can see the tangible result of your efforts. Not one for flash, you prefer to dress in good taste and in the best quality. Basically conservative, you are loyal and responsible, but can be rather too cautious at times.

When you want to be businesslike, try wearing green as your Expression color and the emerald as your Expression gem.

Careers Offering the Best Self-Expression

With 4 as your Expression number, consider these kinds of jobs:

The Boss: executive, banker, contractor, military officer, buyer, manufacturer of quality items.

On Stage: musician.

Service: doctor, real estate agent, ecologist, engineer, fireman, policeman, military person, inspector, office worker, secretary, cashier, postal worker, factory employee, waitperson, service station attendant.

Just You: accountant, economist, technical writer, architect, proofreader.

Hands-On: dentist, surgeon, sculptor, electrician, mechanic, printer, typesetter, plumber, tailor, watch repairer, engraver, draftsman, landscaper, farmer, skilled laborer.

Best Bet: Any job where you can see tangible results for your efforts.

The Power You Can Achieve in Maturity

The total of the day, month and year of your birth and your full name at birth is known variously as the Power, Maturity, Reality, Real Self, Final Opportunity, Destiny or Goal Power number. A summation of both your name and your birthdate, this number shows how the two principal streams of energy converge to fulfill the purposes of your true self. The Power number is of great significance because it gives a clue as to what your ultimate life purpose might be.

This vibration usually becomes manifest only in the later part of your life. In the first half of life it tends to exist only as a potential. In these earlier years you live through many experiences that temper and define your character and aptitudes. Not until the age of 35 or 40 do most people live through enough life events to find their life purpose and develop it to the point where it becomes their main focus and direction. It is then that fulfillment comes. But this is usually achieved only after many false starts, and years of struggling to gain self-knowledge.

Finding your right place in life is gratifying. If you have not pushed through to this achievement, you can be dissatisfied and unhappy. You may feel at loose ends, without direction, rudderless and ill at ease. But if you have lived your life in accord with the purpose that was meant to be fulfilled in this life, you will find contentment and peace of mind.

What follows is the mature expression of your Power number. Mature development is not about living out someone else's idea of what you should be. It has more to do with honoring your own way of being in the world and moving from your own center. It is about trusting the process of unfoldment that exists within each of us and making this your guiding principle.

The total of your name and birthdate is 8.

A Power number of 8 signifies a life of striving for achievement and, often, financial power. Eight is the archetype of the Administrator. Not surprisingly, eights are found in management positions and are often CEOs. Whatever they do, eights attract situations that demand organization and executive ability. Shrewd in business, they have excellent instincts for commerce and are often drawn to the world of finance.

Eights tend to be ambitious and are willing to work with remarkable concentration and commitment to achieve their goals. They take their responsibilities seriously and are usually very civic-minded.

Efficient and exacting employers, eights are powerful and dominant, with a take-charge way about them. Because they expect as much from themselves as they do from others, they have a natural, unquestioned authority. They make excellent leaders, and are good at teaching those who work for them the skills necessary for success.

Tarot Key 8: Strength

To gain further insights about your Power number, it can help to look at the Tarot trump that corresponds to it. In your case, this is the card called Strength. Here Strength is portrayed as a woman, taming the fierce lion with a firm but loving touch. The civilized person keeps only the gentlest of reins on the possibly destructive, but also powerful and vital, animal nature. This is the strength of the martial arts and of expert horsemanship, expending the least possible energy to get the job done. It comes from perfect attention to what is, and perfect responsiveness to the moment. From this balance comes the ability to excel in the “real” world, where survival of the fittest is the rule. Such strength is the perfect vessel for authority.

In some Tarot decks, Key 8 is the card called Justice. This is also a card that you might want to contemplate.

Your Karmic Lessons

Karma numbers are digits that are completely missing in the letters of your name as given at birth. Most people have one or more Karma numbers. These missing digits serve as a guide to the areas of your life and personality that may be lacking. Such areas will benefit from special attention. If you ignore these blind spots, life can have a painful way of making you notice them. This, however, can eventually spur you forward on the path to wisdom. When you develop yourself in these areas, you will feel much more whole and complete.

The number 3 is missing in your name.

With a 3 Karma number, you may lack self-confidence and have problems expressing yourself. Contact with the public can help you to overcome your inhibitions.

The number 4 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 4, you may have to fight a tendency toward laziness and a lack of focus and concentration. You’ll strengthen your character when you cultivate discipline and make an effort to work steadily for what you want.

Your Subconscious Response

Your Subconscious Response is related to how many Karma numbers you have. It shows the way you tend to react in emergencies, when you have no time to consult your intellect.

Your Subconscious Response number is 7.

When the going gets rough, you tend to become very analytical and may seem detached and unemotional. You are likely to suffer in silence. During these times you do best when you pray or meditate. Your tendency not to get personally involved may be appropriate in some situations, but not when other people are in great need.

Your Youth, Maturity and Later Years

So far, we've discussed the number vibrations that stay with you throughout your life. Now we move on to the three major periods of your life as shown by your Life Cycle numbers. These are derived from reducing the digits in your month, day and year of birth. The sum of the month digits describes the first period; the day, the second period; and the year, the third period.

Your First Life Cycle starts at birth and lasts until age 15.

Its number is 7.

When young, you need much time alone in peace and quiet while you build up deep inner resources. At times misunderstood or considered difficult, you have a natural reserve that keeps you from opening up to others. During this period you would do well to have a specialized education that understands your need to cultivate your inner life, and gives you the chance to read, think, dream and possibly express yourself in one of the arts. If, instead, your parents, teachers or peers did not understand you, try not to take it as a judgment on yourself. Be glad for the rich inner world that you have developed in your youth.

During the First Life Cycle, your Life Path number and your First Minor Challenge number are also especially important influences.

Your Second Life Cycle starts at age 15 and lasts until age 42.

Its number is 6.

More than most people, you need a middle life of settling down, building your nest and putting down roots. Your responsibilities to others are paramount during this time. Others will depend on you, so you must be strong and able to give advice and guidance. Your family life should now be in order if you are to accomplish your goals during this period. This is a perfect time for enjoying married life.

During this Life Cycle or the next, your Power number generally begins to manifest.

Your Third Life Cycle starts at age 42 and lasts until death.

Its number is 9.

In later years you can expect many changes in your life situation, and much will be discarded. It's a high-powered last cycle, so learn to pace yourself. Helping others, and cultivating compassion and tolerance, are the best paths to achieving your own happiness. This is a good time to retire, study and learn. You can also further your creative expression by associating with sensitive and artistic friends.

Major Decision or Turning Points in Your Life

Your Turning Points or Pinnacles are also derived from your full birthdate. Each of them defines a period in your life and the special issues that you will face during that period. As their name suggests, Turning Points show points of choice where you need to make decisions. Besides showing the issues at stake, the Turning Point number indicates the choice that will be best for you. Turning Points are like tests that you must pass before proceeding forward. The happiness that you feel in a given Turning Point period depends on the choices you've made and the skills you've developed when faced with the previous Turning Point.

Your First Turning Point starts at birth and lasts until age 34.
Its number is 4.

This youthful Turning Point may give you little time to enjoy the pleasures of childhood, but it does offer a chance to learn care and discipline in your work. The determination and perseverance that you learn now are sure to bring rewards later on.

Your Second Turning Point starts at age 35 and lasts until age 44.
Its number is 6.

The next nine years of your life will test your ability to take on domestic responsibilities with grace. You must avoid getting hung up on delivering the material necessities to your near and dear, and remember that it is your love and acceptance of who they really are that is the most important give you can give.

Your Third Turning Point starts at age 45 and lasts until age 54.
Its number is 1.

This 1 vibration during the prime of your life brings a chance to become noted in your own right. Known for your individuality, you have a chance stand out from the crowd and engage in some creative act that proclaims who you really are. It is now best to work alone or to do the bossing yourself.

Your Fourth Turning Point starts at age 55 and lasts until death.
Its number is 7.

The last period of your life is a natural time to draw back from the world as the 7 vibration demands. It is a time to go inward, assimilate all that has gone before, and renew your acquaintance with a higher power. Just make sure that you do not turn inward to excess. At a time in life when friends drop away, you need to spend some time cultivating the acquaintances and dear ones that you still have. This is not a great time for partnerships, but it is a wonderful time for going back to school and making acquaintances who share your mental interests.

The Challenges You Will Meet

Everyone is born with special lessons to be learned. Again, your full birth date has inherent in it two Minor Challenges that are usually presented to you earlier in life, and a Major Challenge that is lifelong but which you will probably get to master only later in life.

Challenges may at first present themselves to you as external obstacles to your progress, but they arise from the deficiencies that you are born with, parts that are lacking or underdeveloped. Once you can determine exactly what the weak link is, you can make a conscious effort to strengthen that trait within yourself. This takes willpower and may sometimes feel as if you are going against the grain, but it pays off abundantly in terms of progress and success in life. As you tackle each challenge, your fears are pushed back, your scope enlarges, and you feel more comfortable in the world.

Your First Minor Challenge number is 1.

The First Minor Challenge usually crops up early in life. When its number is 1, this usually means that you must fight to overcome a sense of being held down by those with stronger wills. To meet this challenge, you must learn to assert your independence and discover your own individuality, while at the same time respecting the rights of others. It's important not to get caught up in merely pleasing others, and in a dignified way to assert your right to have your needs met and to determine the course of your own life. When you grow older, you'll then be able to let others have their rights, too.

Your Second Minor Challenge number is 3.

The Second Minor Challenge is about aspects of your character that you need to work on during your Second Life Cycle, from about ages 35 to 62. With a Challenge of 3, your task is to channel your energies so that you can truly express yourself. You may need to learn not to scatter your attention and squander your time and energy. You may need either to avoid being a chatterbox, or to come out of your shell and not be daunted by criticism. When you find your stride, life will feel like a dance, and your self-expression will be natural and unimpeded.

Your Major Challenge number is 2.

You face your Major Challenge throughout life. Most likely, however, you will find yourself needing to do the most work on it during your Third Life Cycle, after the lesser challenges have been met. With a Challenge number of 2, the thing to master is cooperating with others without either leaning on them or trying to dominate the situation. Balance is the watchword here. Also, when you find yourself hurt or slighted, you will be much happier when you learn not to take it personally.

Your Best Activities for the Year

Your Personal Year number combines your birth month and day with the current year. Personal Year numbers go in a recurring nine-year cycle of development. Each time you go around the cycle you have a chance to do things with added wisdom and skill. Keeping your activities in tune with your current year vibration can make your existence more harmonious and keep your unfoldment upon its intended track.

Some numerologists believe that the new personal year number begins on January 1st of the new year. Others believe that it doesn't change until your birthday on that year, so that up until your birthday you would be using the personal year number for the preceding calendar year.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan 1 2005 is 20/2

In a 2 Personal Year, you become softer and more receptive, and your focus naturally turns toward partnership and cooperation with others. It is time to seek out a person who will help you to crystallize your dreams. Then you should listen to your partner, be diplomatic and patient, and perfect the art of working as a team in a spirit of respect and harmony. When two hearts come together in a common effort, in an atmosphere of give-and-take and mutual regard, you can accomplish wondrous things. As receptive as you are to another person, you should also be receptive to your own inner knowing. In all things, the keyword this year is Accommodate.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan 1 2006 is 21/3

A 3 Personal Year is a time to enjoy the good things that are born out of the self-assertion of the first year in the cycle and the pairing-off and gentle accommodations of the second year. When you plant your seeds well in the 1 Personal Year, your 3 Personal Year is indeed a lucky one, full of potential for growth and advancement. If you put yourself forward, you will be popular and will find those who will help you express yourself and further your ideas. So open up and spread the word. It is no time to hide your light under a bushel. Get around, be seen and identified, socialize and network. This is a light-hearted year, a time for exuberant self-expression, a year of fun and rewards in which you can restore your vital energies, explore your creativity, and widen your social contacts before the hard work that lies ahead. The keyword for this year is Enjoy.

- 1: Best day to start something. Good for promoting yourself.
- 2: Try especially hard to be agreeable and to get along with others.
- 3: Be cheerful; be creative; buy something nice. Spoil yourself!
- 4: Do something constructive. Make a schedule and stick to it.
- 5: Get out there and do something you've been dreaming of doing.
- 6: A cozy kind of day best spent with the family and at home.
- 7: Spend time alone, and read a book. A day to sort out problems.
- 8: A day for business and finance. Keep cool and in control.
- 9: Finish up old business, and don't start anything new.
- 11: Forget practicalities. A great day to communicate your ideas.
- 22: A truly special day! Now you can go for the results for which you have long planned and schemed.
- 33: A blessed day for feeling in touch with that which is higher and greater than yourself.
- 44: Seize this day to do something that has lasting value for the world.

Where Do We Go from Here?

If this report has aroused your curiosity and you want to learn more, you may find that exploring your numbers with a deck of Tarot cards is an excellent means for further self- reflection.

Suppose that your birth date were August 19, 1962. The Tarot trump that you would look at for the month would be 8 (Strength, or in some decks, Justice). For the day, you would look at 19 (the Sun), $1+9=10$ (the Wheel of Fortune), and, reducing it even further, $1+0=1$ (the Magician). For the year, you would look at $1+9+6+2=18$ (the Moon), and possibly also $1+8=9$ (the Hermit).

These cards would have something to say about you and how you express these traits as you follow your destiny. Our example birth date would have the Sun in Leo, and trump 19, the Sun, would reinforce the Leo symbolism. You could see that the person is a hard worker (8) with a sunny disposition (19) who is aware of the changes in fortune that life can bring (10). Extremely creative (1), he is also a sensitive, caring person who is tuned in to other people's feelings (18).

It is instructive to buy a Tarot deck, put one of your cards up for a few days, and mull over the symbolism. Remember that there are no truly negative numbers or cards. All participate in the experiences of the soul as it passes through life.

Even trump 15, the Devil, has its place. Everyone has traits that create stumbling blocks or weaknesses. When we work to overcome these we achieve maturity and become more sympathetic to the weaknesses that we see in others. This may be an important focus for a soul with the number 15 prominent.

Also, trump 13, the so-called Death card, is often misunderstood. Remember that in the cycle of seasons the leaves fall and winter comes, but this death is only the precursor of the life that bursts forth in the spring. Life is not all white light and bubbles. There are dark clouds of pain and frustration as well. It's all part of the cycle.

Whatever you find your numbers to be, remember that nobody has it all down pat. We all have plenty to learn. We do have a choice, however. We can, if we wish, fight against our destiny or try to ignore it. Or we can, as the great psychoanalyst C.G. Jung put it, "do willingly what we must do by necessity." Viewing ourselves through the lens of studies such as numerology, the Tarot and astrology, we gain a clearer picture of what our own necessity is, and can then travel more consciously on our life's intended path.
