The Players: The 10 Planets

Part One: The Lead Roles

The Sun

The Sun is the center of our solar system. It generously shares its radiance with the other planets. In Astrology, the Sun is the heart of the chart. It points to ways that your relationship needs to confidently shine. Keep the fires of your Sun burning brightly and proudly together. Love will follow. Happiness will fill your minds, bodies and souls. The Sun stands for ego needs, will power and creative vitality.

Forget your own Sun signs for the moment, Charles and Diana.

Your shared Sun sign could be different than your individual Sun signs. Remember that we are talking about your combined Sun. It is the fusion of your two hearts.

Sun in Virgo

A Sign is a psychological process through which a planet operates. As a couple, being solarized through the sign Virgo, gives your partnership great powers of observation. The keyword phrase for Virgo in traditional astrology is "I analyze." Your two minds have an ability to discriminate reality from foolish thinking in a heartbeat.

There is a strong belief in the work ethic. Our first Virgo cave dwelling ancestors could work circles around their contemporaries. A primordial tendency of this dependable earth sign is a conscientious attitude about work and duty.

What does this mean for you? Encourage each other to find a meaningful career. Learning new skills to hone a craft can delight either of you. Your business sense as a couple is probably sharp. The two of you can spot the bottom line of a business deal as fast as a cat's eyes adjust to the dark. People will find you well organized, even if you don't always think this is true. You could operate a business together successfully.

Perfection is another side of your relationship. It has been said that Michelangelo created his Pieta by carving out the imperfection that did not belong in his vision of the sculpture. What was left was a breathtaking masterpiece. Perfection is a tricky thing. The two of you must become masters at knowing when to turn it off. Keep repeating that there are no perfect people so you don't expect this from each other.

You both can display a keen eye for detail. This can turn into being a critic. Learn to acknowledge each other's good points. It's wise! See the cup as half full, rather than half empty. It will go far in making you a happy couple. Putting each other under a microscope of scrutiny makes you nervous.

Diet and health can be topics of interest. You may be running or walking in a race together to raise money for a charity. You might both believe in getting regular exercise. Walking, yoga or aerobics can be a daily ritual. A concern for each other's health comes naturally.

In your communication, have you already realized you can't change each other? Don't bother trying. Be supportive of the other's desire to grow. Work harder on the problems than on one another. Let your words and thoughts be guided by a sincere desire to support each other's most cherished ambitions. Fatigue is apt to wear down your clarity. Make sure each of you is mentally alert and awake when you need to talk about a serious issue.

Sun in the Sixth House

The two of you are not afraid to roll up your sleeves to get a job done. Working together can encourage a team spirit. Following through on your mutual plans brings trust. You tend to respect people able to put their ideals and ideas into practice. The two of you learn faster through practical experience, rather than by theory alone. You don't like to waste time or money--do you?

You can put your skills together into quite a resourceful package. You may teach one another ways to perfect talents. Don't be surprised if you lead your partner into new areas of expertise.

A shared sense of dedication to a cause or mission can deepen your relationship. Diet and health are probably areas of mutual concern. There might be interest in the healing arts, whether this is traditional or an alternative field. Exercising together might be a favorite pastime.

Don't compulsively focus on the imperfections you notice in each other, as this will be frustrating. It is important to stay away from over analyzing your relationship. You bring out an awareness for details in each other. Put this energy to constructive use.

Your business sense is great. You can offer each other good career advice. Exchanging ideas regarding work could be mutually beneficial. Show an eagerness to learn from each other.

You both can get too caught up in work. Serving different organizations can be rewarding. Make time to relax. Plan your romantic escapes to make sure they happen.

Your relationship thrives on being well organized. You like some routine to keep you from becoming scattered. Do something different on short notice to keep life exciting.

The Moon

Countless song lyrics, poems and lofty dreams have been inspired through gazing at the Moon. The Moon's sign and house position represents the intimacy and feelings you share with each other. Establishing a sense of security and a home are other lunar sides of life. The Moon symbolizes the imagination you share from your inner landscapes.

Moon in Pisces

With your relationship lunarized through the sign Pisces, there are oceans of idealism. Your minds are linked by a continuous flow of creative symbols. Your ability to read the faces and moods of one another is exceptional. You might have felt drawn together by mysterious forces or circumstances.

Shared spiritual beliefs can foster intimacy. You look for unconditional emotional support from each other. Your subconscious energies can seem like they are merged. You may have to disengage from each other's presence at times to stay grounded. There is a natural scent of romantic love in your closeness. People might refer to you as a couple with no problems, though you will not always be inclined to agree.

There is strong individual and shared aesthetic appreciation and maybe ability associated with it. Creative expression could be a hallmark of your partnership. An intuitive grasp of the intangible is at your fingertips.

Dependency needs remain in balance with faith in each other's individuality. You can't save your partner from feeling pain or frustration. You can be there to listen and offer refreshing insights.

The home can be a place in which to escape for you both. The trickling of a flowing fountain or the beauty of colorful pictures captures your need to feel unity. Your tastes in art or music will probably be easily visible to visitors. Your residence can be a consciousness-raising experience for some people. It is where your shared dreams and visions swim freely and happily. Living near water can be satisfying.

Divine discontent can be irritating. Keep expectations for each other realistic. This makes for less tension. Avoiding responsibility or commitment will lead to emotional distance. Believe in your ability to talk openly about issues.

Let your imaginations guide you to dance creatively together. Embracing each other's highest ideals opens the door to mutual acceptance. Your faith in one another can be the confirming force that pushes you to new growth.

Moon in the Twelfth House

Your feelings flow back and forth powerfully. When first meeting you could have felt like you could see right into each other's minds. Did you wonder if you already knew each other? At times you can almost speak without using any words.

A strong spiritual connection is possible. Your belief systems can have much common ground. You could easily find yourselves championing a special mission or cause together. Working in the healing or helping professions could appeal to you both. There is a talent for art and music in your lives.

Romance is something you tend to cherish. Going to each other's favorite places is enjoyable. You both probably like to think you will never lead uneventful lives. A bit of intrigue and mystery never hurts anything.

Your home is a refuge or escape for you both. Tranquility is a must. The type of music, art or possessions you find meaningful must fill your residence. You may like to display items that hold special symbolic meaning. People visiting your home may be moved by its uplifting presence. The two of you don't care for stress here. You will do almost anything to make it go away.

Everyday life will flow better if you have a clear sense of reality. Your idealism will be tested. Your faith in each other and your beliefs can get you through just about anything. Don't give up your dreams if they are slow in manifesting.

A natural compassion for each other helps sort out your differences. Do not try to rescue one another from the lessons you need to learn.

Keep expectations realistic. Setting individual or relationship standards too high can create disappointment. The idea is to continue enjoying each other. This will not happen constantly. Accept the ups and downs.

Let your intuition guide you to walk together with sober eyes. You can be a lighthouse for each other, shining radiantly in the night, as the ship of your dreams is trying to land safely.

The Ascendant

We are taking a short intermission from the planets to introduce you to an additional key part of your relationship. The Ascendant or Rising Sign is the sign that starts the 1st house of the chart. The Ascendant is one of the twelve signs with a special role serving as an ambassador. It acts as a persona or mask for an individual or a relationship. The Ascendant is the personality through which we interact with the world.

The Ascendant is the way we appear to others. It is their first impressions of us. You meet someone and he or she seems to be confident, shy, talkative, cheerful, etc. The same can be said for a couple. The two people might seem theatrical, dreamy, or businesslike.

Ascendant in Taurus

People may see the two of you as having calm personalities, and acting as a stabilizing force for each other. Your partnership has an aura of serenity and peace. You could even look wealthy or financially secure, whether this is true or not. You move with grace and poise. It's not smart to try to force either of you into making decisions. Surprising one another with a gift now and then promotes a spirit of well being. Showing affection openly is comforting. Make each other feel valued, and you are a winning combination.

The Part of Fortune

Your Sun, Moon and Ascendant can be combined or blended into a cosmic alchemy, known as the Part of Fortune. This is not a planet, but rather a reference point in the chart. The Arabian astrologers of the Middle Ages are given credit for its discovery. The Part of Fortune is said to show where we can expect to find good fortune and even luck. Do we really need to take a look at something from the long ago past, if it will serve as nothing more than a relic to hang on the wall? A translation of this ancient symbol into modern terms makes this symbol worth investigating. Why? Because it can give clues to special paths that lead to harmony and a spirit of feeling united.

Think of the Part of Fortune as the potential corridor leading to Opportunity. It is a way to read the pulse rate of the partnership, indicating ways to reach a shared sense of fulfillment.

Part of Fortune in Scorpio

An incredible relentless push toward greater heights can take the two of you into exciting levels of self-mastery. It is the mystery that pulsates through you both, during key life changes, that can magically deliver good fortune. Sometimes it's when you understand life the least, that a new opportunity might suddenly present itself. Your creative power can lead to wise investments. Channeling your power into what you pursue can make you a charismatic duo. Learning to put a more positive spin on negative situations points the way to greater happiness. Practicing the art of forgiveness paints your path with fewer struggles.

Part of Fortune in the Sixth House

It's your willingness to humbly learn new skills or ways toward self-improvement that summons the presence of good omens. You will never be perfect in each other's eyes. The sooner you see this; your time together will be more user-friendly. It's when you roll up your sleeves and work together that you shape a successful future. You may discover beauty and meaning through serving a joint purpose. Business dealings may point the way to abundance and self-satisfaction. Getting the most mileage from your efforts is a similar drive.

Saturn

Astronomers say that if Saturn fell from the sky it is light enough to float on an ocean. Some people dread hearing about where Saturn is in their chart more than they do going to the dentist! The fortune tellers of old always painted this planet with "heavy" interpretations. They presented this planet as being a god of doom and gloom. In modern astrology, this motif denotes endurance and ambition. In mythology, Saturn was Chronos, the god of time, reflecting the wisdom that can be learned from past experiences. You could say Saturn is a "Cosmic Chiropractor", showing adjustments needing to be made along life's way. There can be frustration in repeating the same mistakes. Saturn's sign and house themes are associated with Commitment and Reality-Testing. The two of you may find clues here about how you define your relationship roles. Career drive is a Saturn hallmark. Saturn shadows are fear, rigidity and a need to be compulsively controlling. There is no longevity without partners dealing with the symbolism of this particular celestial wanderer. With a lot of practice and patience the two of you can get good in making this side of your relationship flow--honest! Saturn can become more a god of Success!

Your love for one another increases when you truly show how much you care. Controlling behaviors cause distance between your hearts. You are at your best when helping each other find confidence. Designing strategies that lead to success is a talent. Each of you may be influenced somewhat by traditions. Let one another feel free to be themselves. It creates a warmer closeness.

Uranus

Try to visualize a maverick planet orbiting on its side, whereas the other planets sit straight up and down. Uranus! This planet was discovered in the eighteenth century, sandwiched in between the American and French Revolutions. Is it any great wonder that this planet's sign and house occupations show our individuality and innovative ideas? Experimentation. Inventiveness. These are two more themes of this exciting and trend-setting entity. What is the down side to this rebel? A tendency in exhibiting a sarcastic tongue in your everyday communication. Launching sudden irresponsible actions will not make you feel like friends. Uranus can be the source of enjoying the refreshing insights you bring to your partnership. Treat each other as equals and you are likely responding to a positive tendency embedded in this planet's symbolism.

Uranus in Cancer

Nothing may stay the same on the home turf. Each of you probably likes plenty of stimulation in your private lives. Your domestic situation may have few routines. You don't care to be pigeonholed into particular roles. There may be moves to new locations to satisfy your needs. You can be excited by moving into new directions. There is a planet that adds a mystical tone to our lives. Neptune defies being labeled as part of the physical world. It is our spiritual awareness on one hand and desire to escape from earthly reality on the other. Both are possible!

In mythology, Neptune was Poseidon, god of the oceans. This water god represents the strong emotions that love activates. Do the two of you feel any common ground when it comes to your highest beliefs? If you do, it might be associated with this planet's symbolism.

Faith is a Neptune theme. Neptune's sign and house will point to the ideals and causes you share. Your intuitive insights into one another can also be revealed here. Be sure a revision of a plan does not become so discouraging that it puts a halt to your progress. You are apt to sporadically disagree on how to get a job accomplished. Learn to not be overly sensitive when hearing your partner's opinions. A tip: It does help to stay away from leveling each other's ideas in a disparaging way.

A mutual interest in maintaining your mental and physical health is probable. You can learn from each other about diet and exercise. You will appreciate encouragement for developing your skills. Last, but not least, is a planet of mystery and intrigue, Pluto. You may get a message or two in this section about your shared psychological intensity. Pluto's sign and house point to our drives for power, passion and financial gain. A desire to get to know each other on the deepest of levels can be a Pluto theme. We must let go of a part of ourselves to be in a relationship. This scares some people and seems like a fair deal to others. What we cannot face as individuals sometimes will be brought to the surface in our interactions with a partner. Pluto's shadows center around jealousy and possessiveness. This planet teaches us that letting go and trusting one another are rewarding paths. Facing the tests of Pluto together is the breakfast of champions.

Midheaven

Just as the Ascendant was described as a sign serving a special purpose, there is a sign referred to as the Midheaven, with a special mission of its own. This is the sign at the beginning of the 10th house of a chart. A palm reader can interpret the career line embedded in your hand. Think of the Midheaven or 10th house sign as a type of career line in your chart. How you two conduct business in the world and your work interests are shown here.

Midheaven in Capricorn

Ambition is not to be taken lightly in your relationship. Each of you wants your career aspirations to be acknowledged. You are willing to go through some degree of delayed gratification to achieve the desired results. You don't like people wasting your time or money. People who follow through win your admiration. There needs to be a clear sense of responsibility and commitment. There may be a tradition one or both of you holds sacred. Allow for an occasional surprise to occur. There will be milestones to celebrate; creating happy memories to look back upon.

Part Three: Planetary Aspects

It's time now to mention another technical side of your report. (If you don't like technical explanations, skip right to the Aspect Interpretations). You have already been introduced to the ten planets. Certain planetary pairs in your chart have a special relationship to one another due to particular angular distances separating them, known as aspects. You could almost say the two planets in an aspect travel and interact together along the same circuit. The following aspect interpretations or descriptions will be listed under five types. Two are known as the soft aspects: the sextile (60 degrees) and trine (120 degrees). These two aspects generally point to more gentle themes found in your relationship. They indicate a lower voltage of electricity and produce less friction. The planets involved in a trine or sextile are more likely to be areas where you flow together without much effort.

The more hard or intense aspects are the conjunction (0 degrees), square (90 degrees) and opposition (180 degrees). They require our understanding and will point to key ways the two of you must communicate and negotiate. Planets that are part of an intense aspect will show how you energize one another. These higher voltage aspects don't mean you want to avoid them, but more so to develop a true understanding of how to use this energy constructively. "Soft" does not mean good and "intense" does not imply bad. It is often the more intense aspects that deepen the bond of a partnership. The interpretation of any planetary aspect depends greatly on the symbolism of the two planets forming an aspect.

It might be helpful to keep some key words in mind for the aspects. The sextile is a promise of Excitement and Eagerness. The planets in this aspect give clues how your energies support one another. The trine is a special Harmony shown by two planets. There is often positive regard for one another that comes spontaneously. We expect good things to be delivered in the trine.

The conjunction is where two planets are joined at the hip. There is a Fusion or powerful blending of these two energies. The square can reveal where you will encounter Friction in your relationship. Pay special attention to these aspects, as they are opportunities for growth as much as discord. The opposition requires a Balancing act. It is similar to a seesaw. Each of you may find yourselves taking turns in acting out one planet or the other.

It might be helpful to refer to Parts One and Two to refresh your memory about the meaning of the Planets, Ascendant and Midheaven, as you read the aspects that follow. Remember that it is usually the more intense aspects that stretch us the most. The more positively you use these challenging planetary combinations the greater will be your understanding of each other.

Maybe it was a charismatic smile, the way you could talk, a physical attraction, or a shared sense of values. There is a multitude of possibilities you could name. The Nodes of the Moon are not planets. They are a celestial polarity offering clues to your connection on the soul level. Think of it as your own "psychic friends network." If this sounds too mystical or corny, just think of the Nodes as a shared frequency level in your partnership. It doesn't mean you get psychic flashes about each other. Much of this link between your minds is probably on a subconscious level. The Nodes usually play an active part in our closest relationships. The longer we are in a relationship with a particular person, the more these two energies come into our conscious awareness.
