Your Planetary Day

While the calendar we use in the West dates from the 1500s, the seven days of the week have repeated without interruption for over two millennia. From ancient times, each day of the week has been associated with the Sun, Moon or one of the five visible planets. The weekday on which you were born shows where you stand in this ancient seven-fold cycle, and gives you a special link with the quality of its planetary ruler.

You were born on a Tuesday.

In English, Tuesday is named for Tiu, a Norse god who, like his Romance-language counterpart Mars, is associated with war and athletics. Astrologically, Mars, rules red, iron, blood, and the animal kingdom. In the Kabbalah, Mars is associated with Samael, angel of destruction, who clears the way for new creation. The sin of Mars is wrath and destructiveness, but his virtues are courage, activity, frankness and fairness. Keeping order and proportion in human affairs, fighting for justice, and defending the weak are among the highest uses of Mars energy. “Tuesday’s child is full of grace.” — Harper’s Weekly, 1887.

About Personal Numerology

The report that follows explores the numerological meaning of your birth date and the full name that was given to you at birth. Its aim is to make you more aware of the tendencies and patterns in your life, so that you can live more consciously, and more fully become the person you were meant to be.

As you read the following pages, remember that they describe pure types for each number. No one, of course, exhibits these character traits in their pure form. Instead, each of us is multi-dimensional, made up of many energy imperatives vying for expression. Some energies harmonize easily, while others are at cross-purposes, causing us to live with contradictions and inner conflicts. Our task is to honor all parts of ourselves and work at bringing our disparate selves into some kind of balance and cooperation. By making us more aware of our inner tendencies, numerology can help us to do this all-important work on ourselves.

In our families and other groups of which we are a part, some behaviors are encouraged and others are discouraged. If who we are wasn’t acceptable, we probably contorted ourselves to be what others wanted us to be. If so, we may have become what is called a “turn-type.”

For example, we may negatively manifest a number by expressing its opposite, as when the independent number 1 type becomes extremely dependent. Alternatively, the energy is out of balance and expressed extremely, as when the daring number 1 type becomes foolhardy. Or the energy is not developed enough, so that the number 1 is cowardly instead of courageous.

Because we feel that a certain trait is unacceptable and unworthy of us according to the biases of our family, superiors or peers, we may not be able to relate to it in ourselves. We may then spend many years discovering who we really are apart from other people’s expectations of us.

Studies such as numerology can help us find our way out of this maze, orienting us toward our true being and the highest manifestation of what we are. They can give us an objective picture of our strengths and weaknesses, show us our place in the larger scheme of things, and help us find the hidden gold in our characters, which we may not have even suspected that we had.

How Numerology Works. Through the use of ancient principles, numerology can derive a world of meaning from your birthdate and birth name. In the course of your life other numbers may become important for you, and you will probably acquire other names, but, like your astrological birth chart, the numerological vibrations at the very beginning of your life set the tone for all that follows.

To find the meaning inherent in your day, month and year of birth, numerologists add the digits in various ways. Most totals turn out to be more than one digit. They therefore reduce them to a single digit by adding the digits together. Whenever a total turns out to be a master number like 11 or 22, however, it is left as-is. These doubled numbers have a special significance, and are given special interpretations.

To find the numerological meaning of your name, numerology assigns a number to each letter of the alphabet. In the Pythagorean system used in this report, A = 1, B = 2, and so on through the first nine letters, and then we repeat the cycle through the rest of the alphabet. We then total the numbers corresponding to the vowels, the numbers corresponding to the consonants, and the numbers corresponding to all the letters to determine specific things about your character.

Each digit from 1 to 9 represents a specific stage in a cycle and has its own set of associations. In general, the odd numbers are considered introverted, in the sense of being primarily focused on inner life. The even numbers tend toward extroversion: that is, being primarily focused on outer activities. The numbers 1, 6, and 22, however, are considered dual in nature.

This said, let us now look first at your basic character and the major themes in your life.

Your Life Path

The total of the day, month and year of your birth is called by numerologists the Life Path, Life Lesson, Birth Path, Birth Force or, sometimes, the Destiny number. This number is chosen by nature rather than by you or your parents, and it reflects the season and historical era of your birth. As its names suggest, it shows your mission in life, your life work and what the universe intends for you. It shows the opportunities you must seize in order to make the most of your potential. Following the life path that has been given to you will enable you to avoid continual discord and frustration, and to unfold in the way that is best for your nature. When you find your true place in the world, you will feel at home.

Your birthdate total is 6.

Your Life Path of 6 means that your destiny is to serve and to be responsible for the welfare of others. Be it the home, the family or a work situation, your task is to lead the group and make it unified and productive. You'll be involved with nurturing weaker persons, and you must learn to put the welfare of the group before your own interests. Aspire to be the benign parent figure, a source of guidance and strength. Marriage is ideal for you.

What Motivates You in Life

We now move on to the name that you were given at birth. We first look at the total of the vowels in your full birth name, because this shows the emotional force that drives all that you do.

Variouly known as the Motivation, Soul Urge, Heart's Desire, or Inner Self number, the vowel total shows what you want out of life. Along with the Impression and Expression numbers that will be discussed below, it is a basic component of your character.

The vowel total in your name is 33/6.

As a Motivation number, the master number 33 is a very high vibration to live up to in your everyday existence. It gives a strong thirst for relationship with the divine, and the possibility of a deep faith in life. These are there to sustain you in the times of heavy responsibility and service that you also attract. For you also have a drive to understand, to forgive, and to serve. The compassion that this vibration engenders makes you want to make sacrifices for the good of others. When you exercise these desires with wisdom and discrimination, your 33 vibration can empower rather than weaken others, and can achieve real results. Otherwise you can waste energy on unworthy projects or get drawn into self-destructive situations.

As with all master numbers, it may be difficult to maintain the higher demand of the 33 consistently. Consequently, on an everyday basis, you will probably be motivated at the less intense 6 vibration. This leads you to desire harmony everywhere in your immediate personal world, most particularly in a well-established, nourishing domestic scene. You do all in your power to help others, and to be a source of strength and guidance. With definite principles, you actively work to set the world straight. You are also artistic and like to work with color and design. You have a wonderful way of relating to everything personally; but must be on guard that your emotions do not cloud your judgment.

Colors and gems have number vibrations, too. Your Motivation color is deep blue, and your Motivation gems are the pearl and sapphire. Wear these when you want to relax and restore your energies.

More about Your Emotions and Motivations

The first vowel in your first name augments or mitigates the force of the vowel total, and gives additional information about your emotional nature and underlying motivations in life. It manifests differently depending on whether the vowel sound is long or short. The long vowel gives a more direct and forthright expression, while the expression of the short vowel is more muted.

The first vowel in your name is E.

“E” feels changeable and restless, and gives you a love of freedom and excitement. You tend to be on the move, always on the lookout for the next interesting event. For you, variety is truly the spice of life. You are mentally stimulating and stimulated mentally by all that passes before you. Preferring to remain unfettered and free to explore new horizons, you find it difficult to take root. A “people” person, you are outgoing and have many friends who enjoy your optimism and good humor. You also work well with your hands and are very versatile.

The Impression You Give to Others

The total of the consonants in your name is known as the Impression, Personality, Outer Self or Adapted Self number. As its names suggest, this number signifies your persona, the face you show to the world. It shows the vibrations that you project, how others see you, and the kind of impression that you make on those around you. This has its origin in your illusions and fantasies, the world you create for yourself in daydreams. Given enough energy, your fantasies become reality, because you tend to become who you think you are.

Your consonant total is 9.

Having the Impression number 9, you have a very emotional nature, and with it comes a strong desire for love, both personal and universal. You envision yourself as the humanitarian whose life is dedicated to service. You desire to create something that benefits humanity and that makes you feel truly needed. You dream of being a magnetic person who is widely respected for vision and compassion. By exercising tolerance and understanding, you feel that you can right the wrongs of the world.

Your Impression colors are the brightest shade of any color, and your Impression gem is the opal. Wear these when you want to be sociable and enjoy the company of others.

The Way You Express Yourself

The total of all the letters in your full name is variously called the Expression, Mission or Life Purpose number. Composed of both the vowels and the consonants, it represents the blending of your inner and outer selves. It thus shows the natural expression of your goals and desires: what you do best, and, by extension, your talents and career potential. It also indicates how you deal with the outside world: your style of solving problems, getting things done, and negotiating with others to attain what you would consider success.

Your name total is 6.

The Expression number 6 gives you a wonderful ability to help people sort out their lives. Armed with a clear sense of right and wrong, you have a solution for any dilemma, and you can be extremely logical and capable when dealing with others’ problems. The service-oriented professions are perfect for your natural protective instincts. You also make an excellent parent, but must learn to curb a sometimes overly zealous concern that can involve you where you don’t belong.

When you want to be businesslike, try wearing deep blue as your Expression color and the pearl or sapphire as your Expression gem.

Careers Offering the Best Self-Expression

With 6 as your Expression number, consider these kinds of jobs:

The Boss: hotel or restaurant manager, hospital or school administrator, director of youth group, social director, union official, publisher, executive in any business dealing with household products.

On Stage: teacher, clergyman, actor, musician, receptionist, hotel desk clerk.

Service: doctor, nurse, welfare worker, counselor or advisor of any kind, nursery- school helper, governess, civil servant, public service employee, cosmetician, real estate agent, therapist, psychologist, industrial designer.

Just You: costume designer, songwriter, poet, artist, merchant, librarian, economist, chemist, rancher.

Living: chef, restaurant worker, dietitian, florist, pet dealer, fabric seller, window designer, interior decorator, furniture dealer, upholsterer, butler, maid, housekeeper, gardener, parent.

Best Bet: Any job related to the home or to better living.

The Power You Can Achieve in Maturity

The total of the day, month and year of your birth and your full name at birth is known variously as the Power, Maturity, Reality, Real Self, Final Opportunity, Destiny or Goal Power number. A summation of both your name and your birthdate, this number shows how the two principal streams of energy converge to fulfill the purposes of your true self. The Power number is of great significance because it gives a clue as to what your ultimate life purpose might be.

This vibration usually becomes manifest only in the later part of your life. In the first half of life it tends to exist only as a potential. In these earlier years you live through many experiences that temper and define your character and aptitudes. Not until the age of 35 or 40 do most people live through enough life events to find their life purpose and develop it to the point where it becomes their main focus and direction. It is then that fulfillment comes. But this is usually achieved only after many false starts, and years of struggling to gain self-knowledge.

Finding your right place in life is gratifying. If you have not pushed through to this achievement, you can be dissatisfied and unhappy. You may feel at loose ends, without direction, rudderless and ill at ease. But if you have lived your life in accord with the purpose that was meant to be fulfilled in this life, you will find contentment and peace of mind.

What follows is the mature expression of your Power number. Mature development is not about living out someone else's idea of what you should be. It has more to do with honoring your own way of being in the world and moving from your own center. It is about trusting the process of unfoldment that exists within each of us and making this your guiding principle.

The total of your name and birthdate is 3.

A Power number of 3 signifies a life in pursuit of beauty, love, pleasure, and self-expression. Three is the archetype of the Performer. Talented, imaginative and with a genius for the spoken word, threes must have an outlet for their energy and creativity. Expressing themselves is a necessity. They love being in the spotlight and thrive on the attention they receive when they do something noteworthy.

Threes attract situations that demand vibrancy and cordiality. There is a restlessness in their nature and a need to remain occupied and involved. With their positive, optimistic outlook, these are the upbeat people who are sought after because of their joyful, fun-loving style. Good-natured, witty and the life of any party, threes have an eye for what is stylish and “in.” Sociable and friendly, they are bright and breezy, adding color and vigor to the world.

Tarot Key 3: The Empress

To gain further insights about your Power number, it can help to look at the Tarot trump that corresponds to it. In your case, this is the Empress. Great with child, she wields her scepter amidst the lush bounty of a garden. The matriarch, she symbolizes nature’s powers of creation. Her domain includes fertility, productivity, creative talent, love, pleasure, happiness and luck.

Your Karmic Lessons

Karma numbers are digits that are completely missing in the letters of your name as given at birth. Most people have one or more Karma numbers. These missing digits serve as a guide to the areas of your life and personality that may be lacking. Such areas will benefit from special attention. If you ignore these blind spots, life can have a painful way of making you notice them. This, however, can eventually spur you forward on the path to wisdom. When you develop yourself in these areas, you will feel much more whole and complete.

There are no numbers missing in your name.

The fact that you have no Karma numbers indicates that you are a very special person! You are unusually well balanced, and have an excellent chance of resolving any personality problems. Your state of evolution is such that you are perfecting your human character and are free to give much service to the world.

Your Subconscious Response

Your Subconscious Response is related to how many Karma numbers you have. It shows the way you tend to react in emergencies, when you have no time to consult your intellect.

Your Subconscious Response number is 9.

When the going gets rough, you can either come across in an extremely valuable way, or you can detach yourself completely from the outcome. When others panic, your ability to see the larger picture can give you a calm philosophical attitude. This can bring a much-needed calm and sense of perspective to the situation, but you must guard against a tendency to ignore the plight of others.

Your Youth, Maturity and Later Years

So far, we've discussed the number vibrations that stay with you throughout your life. Now we move on to the three major periods of your life as shown by your Life Cycle numbers. These are derived from reducing the digits in your month, day and year of birth. The sum of the month digits describes the first period; the day, the second period; and the year, the third period.

Your First Life Cycle starts at birth and lasts until age 31.

Its number is 8.

The 8 vibration is a great deal of power for youth to handle. You will be drawn to mastering the material aspects of life early, leading and directing others and possibly amassing a certain amount of power and money at an early age. Because you may not yet have had the chance to develop empathy, when pursuing your own goals you may tend to disregard the rights and feelings of others. Lacking life experience, you may need guidance in order to develop good judgment, especially about money.

During the First Life Cycle, your Life Path number and your First Minor Challenge number are also especially important influences.

Your Second Life Cycle starts at age 31 and lasts until age 58.

Its number is 6.

More than most people, you need a middle life of settling down, building your nest and putting down roots. Your responsibilities to others are paramount during this time. Others will depend on you, so you must be strong and able to give advice and guidance. Your family life should now be in order if you are to accomplish your goals during this period. This is a perfect time for enjoying married life.

During this Life Cycle or the next, your Power number generally begins to manifest.

Your Third Life Cycle starts at age 58 and lasts until death.

Its number is 1.

Your later years can be dynamic and fertile with accomplishment if you're able to remain self-reliant. You'll have to depend on yourself and choose your own path, but you'll never be bored. Focus on new ideas or on giving new life to old ones. There should be action enough to keep you going to the very end.

Major Decision or Turning Points in Your Life

Your Turning Points or Pinnacles are also derived from your full birthdate. Each of them defines a period in your life and the special issues that you will face during that period. As their name suggests, Turning Points show points of choice where you need to make decisions. Besides showing the issues at stake, the Turning Point number indicates the choice that will be best for you. Turning Points are like tests that you must pass before proceeding forward. The happiness that you feel in a given Turning Point period depends on the choices you've made and the skills you've developed when faced with the previous Turning Point.

Your First Turning Point starts at birth and lasts until age 34.

Its number is 5.

This youthful Turning Point offers a chance for travel, new ideas, and even a new lifestyle. Embrace these fearlessly, and you will develop your character for the next phase. You have a way with people and can now make the most of it. During this period you may feel unstable and rootless, and may need to wait for a more suitable period to build a satisfyingly firm foundation for your adult life.

Your Second Turning Point starts at age 35 and lasts until age 44.

Its number is 7.

The next nine years of your life will test your ability to go inward, meditate and study. Now is your chance to develop a philosophy that sustains you through the rest of your life. Ensure that you get enough intellectual stimulation, and that you learn how to analyze and evaluate.

Your Third Turning Point starts at age 45 and lasts until age 54.

Its number is 3.

This 3 vibration in the prime of your life demands that you now actualize your creative powers. Your imagination is fertile, and this is a great time to express yourself, especially in words. This is also a chance for networking and making yourself known, and it can be a time when you have the choice of wearing prosperity badly or well.

Your Fourth Turning Point starts at age 55 and lasts until death.

Its number is 9.

In the last period of your life, a 9 vibration calls you to be selfless, impersonal and universal in your outlook. If you cling to anything in a period when change, endings and loss are real possibilities, you will only create misery for yourself and you will fail to garner the wisdom that is offered to you now. Whatever life brings, you must study it for the lessons that it offers. When you learn the lesson, suffering is no longer necessary. If you maintain your universal outlook, money and success are a real possibility, but your greatest rewards are in learning compassion and seeing the true beauty that is all around you.

The Challenges You Will Meet

Everyone is born with special lessons to be learned. Again, your full birth date has inherent in it two Minor Challenges that are usually presented to you earlier in life, and a Major Challenge that is lifelong but which you will probably get to master only later in life.

Challenges may at first present themselves to you as external obstacles to your progress, but they arise from the deficiencies that you are born with, parts that are lacking or underdeveloped. Once you can determine exactly what the weak link is, you can make a conscious effort to strengthen that trait within yourself. This takes willpower and may sometimes feel as if you are going against the grain, but it pays off abundantly in terms of progress and success in life. As you tackle each challenge, your fears are pushed back, your scope enlarges, and you feel more comfortable in the world.

Your First Minor Challenge number is 2.

The First Minor Challenge usually crops up early in life. When its number is 2, you may be painfully timid, thin-skinned, and sensitive to the slightest hurts from others. Your challenge here is to maintain your remarkable sensitivity to feelings and vibrations, but not feel personally hurt or threatened. Remember that when others are cruel it comes from their own unhappiness and really has nothing to do with who you are. Cooperation with others may be a major theme in your life, and an additional challenge with this number is to learn to work with others without either leaning on them or trying to dominate the situation.

Your Second Minor Challenge number is 5.

The Second Minor Challenge is about aspects of your character that you need to work on during your Second Life Cycle, from about ages 35 to 62. With a Challenge of 5, you must learn not to get hung up with an adolescent desire for freedom at any price. During these middle years, life may demand that you settle down. Your body may rebel when you practice excesses of any type. Your task is to keep your balance while you stay in motion, and to learn just a bit of control over where you go. If you can learn moderation, your tolerance for change will keep you young and zestful for a very long time.

Your Major Challenge number is 3.

You face your Major Challenge throughout life. Most likely, however, you will find yourself needing to do the most work on it during your Third Life Cycle, after the lesser challenges have been met. With a Challenge number of 3, you will feel impeded until you learn to overcome the barriers to the free expression of your natural talents. Cultivate your communication skills, and allow yourself to relax and play. When you learn to do this, your creative talents will flourish.

Your Best Activities for the Year

Your Personal Year number combines your birth month and day with the current year. Personal Year numbers go in a recurring nine-year cycle of development. Each time you go around the cycle you have a chance to do things with added wisdom and skill. Keeping your activities in tune with your current year vibration can make your existence more harmonious and keep your unfoldment upon its intended track.

Some numerologists believe that the new personal year number begins on January 1st of the new year. Others believe that it doesn't change until your birthday on that year, so that up until your birthday you would be using the personal year number for the preceding calendar year.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2002 is 18/9

In a 9 Personal Year, the cycle of Personal Years comes to an end. This is a year to harvest the remaining crop before it rots, time to tie up all the old cycle's loose ends. So clear the decks and weed the garden. Whatever you have put off, you need to finish it now. Next year you'll be starting a new cycle, and you don't want the detritus of the old cycle to impede your progress. Like the 5 Personal Year, this is a pivotal time, one that is appropriate for change. Now you can reinvent yourself, lose weight, toss out old stuff, and get rid of old habits. As people and things fall away because they are no longer appropriate, you may experience this as a year of loss. Say a graceful good-bye, and open yourself to the new cycle to come.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2003 is 19/1

A 1 Personal Year begins a new cycle. This is a time to make a fresh start, a time to plant seeds that will mature in the next nine years. In this opening phase of a new cycle you should make a special effort to maintain your independence and individuality, make your own decisions, and rely on your own abilities and instincts. Stay at the forefront, and do not take a back seat to anyone. This is the year to focus on your ideas, your needs, and the fulfillment of your dreams. Once you get your own thing going, you will be better able to relate to another person in the next stage of the cycle. So for now, exercise your own creative powers as fully as possible, and use all that fresh new energy to plunge ahead into new areas that you can develop more fully later. In all things this, year, Initiate.

- 4: Organize your time, look to details, be serious and work hard.
- 5: Be enthusiastic; travel and try something new. You can sell anything!
- 6: Fix up the house, and spend all the time you can with family.
- 7: Be patient and wait. Read, meditate, and rethink your life.
- 8: Concentrate on finance and business. Good chances for success.
- 9: Forget yourself. Consider how you can be of service to others.
- 11: A special month, when you can operate at your creative best. Let your imagination work freely and be a source of inspiration to you.
- 22: Seldom does one have the power of this master number to realize plans and ambitions. Seize this month to accomplish your most far-reaching goals.
- 33: A month when you can have a rare power to uplift people's lives. Open yourself to be a channel for love.
- 44: Seize this time to make gifts of the spirit yield tangible results for others.

- 44: Seize this day to do something that has lasting value for the world.

Where Do We Go from Here?

If this report has aroused your curiosity and you want to learn more, you may find that exploring your numbers with a deck of Tarot cards is an excellent means for further self-reflection.

Suppose that your birth date were August 19, 1962. The Tarot trump that you would look at for the month would be 8 (Strength, or in some decks, Justice). For the day, you would look at 19 (the Sun), $1+9=10$ (the Wheel of Fortune), and, reducing it even further, $1+0=1$ (the Magician). For the year, you would look at $1+9+6+2=18$ (the Moon), and possibly also $1+8=9$ (the Hermit).

These cards would have something to say about you and how you express these traits as you follow your destiny. Our example birth date would have the Sun in Leo, and trump 19, the Sun, would reinforce the Leo symbolism. You could see that the person is a hard worker (8) with a sunny disposition (19) who is aware of the changes in fortune that life can bring (10). Extremely creative (1), he is also a sensitive, caring person who is tuned in to other people's feelings (18).

It is instructive to buy a Tarot deck, put one of your cards up for a few days, and mull over the symbolism. Remember that there are no truly negative numbers or cards. All participate in the experiences of the soul as it passes through life.

Even trump 15, the Devil, has its place. Everyone has traits that create stumbling blocks or weaknesses. When we work to overcome these we achieve maturity and become more sympathetic to the weaknesses that we see in others. This may be an important focus for a soul with the number 15 prominent.

Also, trump 13, the so-called Death card, is often misunderstood. Remember that in the cycle of seasons the leaves fall and winter comes, but this death is only the precursor of the life that bursts forth in the spring. Life is not all white light and bubbles. There are dark clouds of pain and frustration as well. It's all part of the cycle.

Whatever you find your numbers to be, remember that nobody has it all down pat. We all have plenty to learn. We do have a choice, however. We can, if we wish, fight against our destiny or try to ignore it. Or we can, as the great psychoanalyst C.G. Jung put it, "do willingly what we must do by necessity." Viewing ourselves through the lens of studies such as numerology, the Tarot and astrology, we gain a clearer picture of what our own necessity is, and can then travel more consciously on our life's intended path.
