Your Planetary Day

While the calendar we use in the West dates from the 1500s, the seven days of the week have repeated without interruption for over two millennia. From ancient times, each day of the week has been associated with the Sun, Moon or one of the five visible planets. The weekday on which you were born shows where you stand in this ancient seven-fold cycle, and gives you a special link with the quality of its planetary ruler.

You were born on a Tuesday.

In English, Tuesday is named for Tiu, a Norse god who, like his Romance-language counterpart Mars, is associated with war and athletics. Astrologically, Mars, rules red, iron, blood, and the animal kingdom. In the Kabbalah, Mars is associated with Samael, angel of destruction, who clears the way for new creation. The sin of Mars is wrath and destructiveness, but his virtues are courage, activity, frankness and fairness. Keeping order and proportion in human affairs, fighting for justice, and defending the weak are among the highest uses of Mars energy. “Tuesday’s child is full of grace.” — Harper’s Weekly, 1887.

About Personal Numerology

The report that follows explores the numerological meaning of your birth date and the full name that was given to you at birth. Its aim is to make you more aware of the tendencies and patterns in your life, so that you can live more consciously, and more fully become the person you were meant to be.

As you read the following pages, remember that they describe pure types for each number. No one, of course, exhibits these character traits in their pure form. Instead, each of us is multi-dimensional, made up of many energy imperatives vying for expression. Some energies harmonize easily, while others are at cross-purposes, causing us to live with contradictions and inner conflicts. Our task is to honor all parts of ourselves and work at bringing our disparate selves into some kind of balance and cooperation. By making us more aware of our inner tendencies, numerology can help us to do this all-important work on ourselves.

In our families and other groups of which we are a part, some behaviors are encouraged and others are discouraged. If who we are wasn’t acceptable, we probably contorted ourselves to be what others wanted us to be. If so, we may have become what is called a “turn-type.”

For example, we may negatively manifest a number by expressing its opposite, as when the independent number 1 type becomes extremely dependent. Alternatively, the energy is out of balance and expressed extremely, as when the daring number 1 type becomes foolhardy. Or the energy is not developed enough, so that the number 1 is cowardly instead of courageous.

Because we feel that a certain trait is unacceptable and unworthy of us according to the biases of our family, superiors or peers, we may not be able to relate to it in ourselves. We may then spend many years discovering who we really are apart from other people’s expectations of us.

Studies such as numerology can help us find our way out of this maze, orienting us toward our true being and the highest manifestation of what we are. They can give us an objective picture of our strengths and weaknesses, show us our place in the larger scheme of things, and help us find the hidden gold in our characters, which we may not have even suspected that we had.

How Numerology Works. Through the use of ancient principles, numerology can derive a world of meaning from your birthdate and birth name. In the course of your life other numbers may become important for you, and you will probably acquire other names, but, like your astrological birth chart, the numerological vibrations at the very beginning of your life set the tone for all that follows.

To find the meaning inherent in your day, month and year of birth, numerologists add the digits in various ways. Most totals turn out to be more than one digit. They therefore reduce them to a single digit by adding the digits together. Whenever a total turns out to be a master number like 11 or 22, however, it is left as-is. These doubled numbers have a special significance, and are given special interpretations.

To find the numerological meaning of your name, numerology assigns a number to each letter of the alphabet. In the Pythagorean system used in this report, A = 1, B = 2, and so on through the first nine letters, and then we repeat the cycle through the rest of the alphabet. We then total the numbers corresponding to the vowels, the numbers corresponding to the consonants, and the numbers corresponding to all the letters to determine specific things about your character.

Each digit from 1 to 9 represents a specific stage in a cycle and has its own set of associations. In general, the odd numbers are considered introverted, in the sense of being primarily focused on inner life. The even numbers tend toward extroversion: that is, being primarily focused on outer activities. The numbers 1, 6, and 22, however, are considered dual in nature.

This said, let us now look first at your basic character and the major themes in your life.

Your Life Path

The total of the day, month and year of your birth is called by numerologists the Life Path, Life Lesson, Birth Path, Birth Force or, sometimes, the Destiny number. This number is chosen by nature rather than by you or your parents, and it reflects the season and historical era of your birth. As its names suggest, it shows your mission in life, your life work and what the universe intends for you. It shows the opportunities you must seize in order to make the most of your potential. Following the life path that has been given to you will enable you to avoid continual discord and frustration, and to unfold in the way that is best for your nature. When you find your true place in the world, you will feel at home.

Your birthdate total is 1.

With a Life Path of 1, you have a destiny to stand on your own, to believe in yourself, your own ideas and your own potential. Yours will be the life of the leader and the pioneer. Being a unique individual, you can follow your own path and live free from many of the rules that govern others. You may, however, have to fight to live the way you want and to accomplish what you want to do. Nevertheless, you must not conform or give up your goals.

What Motivates You in Life

We now move on to the name that you were given at birth. We first look at the total of the vowels in your full birth name, because this shows the emotional force that drives all that you do. Variously known as the Motivation, Soul Urge, Heart's Desire, or Inner Self number, the vowel total shows what you want out of life. Along with the Impression and Expression numbers that will be discussed below, it is a basic component of your character.

The vowel total in your name is 44/8.

As a Motivation number, the master number 44 desires to better the lot of humanity by producing improvements on the material plane. This vibration can draw you to providing food, shelter and clothing to the needy, but in such a way as to make people more self-sustaining in the future. Your real desire is to instill trust that the universe can provide in real and practical ways. Motivated by a love of nature and of the beauty and richness of our planet, you want others to share and enjoy this vision of material and spiritual abundance.

As is the case with all master numbers, it is difficult to be motivated by the higher 44 vibration all the time. On an everyday basis, you may often find your heart's desires functioning at the 8 level. Here you become motivated by material rewards and the love of competition. You like to be in control, and regret it when you respond with your emotions. This can give you good organizational ability and an aptitude for business. In turn, these practical qualities can aid you in realizing your 44-vibration desire to make the material plane demonstrate spiritual values.

Colors and gems have number vibrations, too. Your Motivation color is rose, and your Motivation gem is the diamond. Wear these when you want to relax and restore your energies.

More about Your Emotions and Motivations

The first vowel in your first name augments or mitigates the force of the vowel total, and gives additional information about your emotional nature and underlying motivations in life. It manifests differently depending on whether the vowel sound is long or short. The long vowel gives a more direct and forthright expression, while the expression of the short vowel is more muted.

The first vowel in your name is I.

"I" feels compassion and the desire to serve. You go the extra mile to work for the good of all. If you feel it will improve the lot of your fellow humans and make the world a better place, you may sometimes even work against your own best interests. You have a passionate nature and can go to great lengths for the causes you embrace. Determined and relentless in the pursuit of a cause that excites you, you may become known for your philanthropy and generosity. Because you are a source of insight and encouragement, others eagerly seek your healing energy and counsel. Inspired, you are also an inspiration to others.

The Impression You Give to Others

The total of the consonants in your name is known as the Impression, Personality, Outer Self or Adapted Self number. As its names suggest, this number signifies your persona, the face you show to the world. It shows the vibrations that you project, how others see you, and the kind of impression that you make on those around you. This has its origin in your illusions and fantasies, the world you create for yourself in daydreams. Given enough energy, your fantasies become reality, because you tend to become who you think you are.

Your consonant total is 3.

Having the Impression number 3, you dream of being a very popular person: magnetically attractive, and even a sex symbol. You are the actor on center stage, the movie star, the life of the party, charming everyone with your wit. Since you are conscious of the image you project, only the latest and best in fashion will do. You may dream of the jet-set life or another glamorous lifestyle in which you are the star.

Your Impression color is yellow, and your Impression gem is the topaz. Wear these when you want to be sociable and enjoy the company of others.

The Way You Express Yourself

The total of all the letters in your full name is variously called the Expression, Mission or Life Purpose number. Composed of both the vowels and the consonants, it represents the blending of your inner and outer selves. It thus shows the natural expression of your goals and desires: what you do best, and, by extension, your talents and career potential. It also indicates how you deal with the outside world: your style of solving problems, getting things done, and negotiating with others to attain what you would consider success.

Your name total is 11/2.

As an Expression number, the master number 11 can indicate great potential as an enlightened thinker with excellent intuition and vision. You have the ability to create harmony out of conflict, but can have difficulty maintaining your own equilibrium. Your tastes run to the exotic, and you have a mysterious and otherworldly air. Spiritual in nature and high-strung, you are best off when working with others who are more practical than you. The supreme idealist, you need to become more grounded if you are to apply your ideals to the real world.

A master number is too powerful a vibration to be used all the time. Instead, it requires special circumstances and energies. In daily life, you will find that you tend to express yourself on a more human 2 level. Here you can sense the feelings of others, and this enables you to be a natural peacemaker. You bring love to your circle of family and friends, and inspire others to be more patient and tolerant. You dress modestly, as you are not really interested in being the center of attention. You are quite happy to go along with the crowd. Do not allow a tendency toward passivity to cause you to end up with the short end of things.

When you are feeling inspired and operating on your 11 level, you are more likely to be at your serious best when you are wearing the color silver and/or the metal platinum. When you want to be businesslike but are living at your more human 2 level, it's best to wear orange and/or the moonstone.

Careers Offering the Best Self-Expression

Having the master number 11 as your name total gives you great flexibility in your choice of careers. To work up to the demands of your 11 Expression number, consider these kinds of jobs:

The Boss: the leader of a reform movement.

On Stage: clergyman, reformer, religious leader, actor, promoter, musician, political campaigner, teacher, lecturer, auctioneer, any work with the mass media.

Service: diplomat, revenue collector, beauty specialist; lawyer, psychiatrist, psychologist; charity, welfare or social worker; counselor for the elderly, young, or unemployed,.

Just You: inventor, philosopher, poet, biographer, composer, novelist, writer on religious or spiritual matters, critic, explorer, antique dealer, filmmaker, psychic, mystic, searcher for spiritual enlightenment or expanded consciousness.

Best Bet: any job where your special talents can reach the public.

Alternatively, to work at the less demanding level of a 2 Expression number, consider the following careers:

The Boss: club organizer, tour director, producer, publisher.

On Stage: politician, musician, entertainer in a group, teacher.

Service: diplomat, secretary, civil servant, office worker, analyst, collection agent, nurse, psychologist, homemaker, waitperson, mechanic, psychic or medium.

Just You: bookkeeper, librarian, antique dealer, poet, novelist.

Best Bet: any job where you work as a member of a team.

The Power You Can Achieve in Maturity

The total of the day, month and year of your birth and your full name at birth is known variously as the Power, Maturity, Reality, Real Self, Final Opportunity, Destiny or Goal Power number. A summation of both your name and your birthdate, this number shows how the two principal streams of energy converge to fulfill the purposes of your true self. The Power number is of great significance because it gives a clue as to what your ultimate life purpose might be.

This vibration usually becomes manifest only in the later part of your life. In the first half of life it tends to exist only as a potential. In these earlier years you live through many experiences that temper and define your character and aptitudes. Not until the age of 35 or 40 do most people live through enough life events to find their life purpose and develop it to the point where it becomes their main focus and direction. It is then that fulfillment comes. But this is usually achieved only after many false starts, and years of struggling to gain self-knowledge.

Finding your right place in life is gratifying. If you have not pushed through to this achievement, you can be dissatisfied and unhappy. You may feel at loose ends, without direction, rudderless and ill at ease. But if you have lived your life in accord with the purpose that was meant to be fulfilled in this life, you will find contentment and peace of mind.

What follows is the mature expression of your Power number. Mature development is not about living out someone else's idea of what you should be. It has more to do with honoring your own way of being in the world and moving from your own center. It is about trusting the process of unfoldment that exists within each of us and making this your guiding principle.

The total of your name and birthdate is 3.

A Power number of 3 signifies a life in pursuit of beauty, love, pleasure, and self-expression. Three is the archetype of the Performer. Talented, imaginative and with a genius for the spoken word, threes must have an outlet for their energy and creativity. Expressing themselves is a necessity. They love being in the spotlight and thrive on the attention they receive when they do something noteworthy.

Threes attract situations that demand vibrancy and cordiality. There is a restlessness in their nature and a need to remain occupied and involved. With their positive, optimistic outlook, these are the upbeat people who are sought after because of their joyful, fun-loving style. Good-natured, witty and the life of any party, threes have an eye for what is stylish and "in." Sociable and friendly, they are bright and breezy, adding color and vigor to the world.

Tarot Key 3: The Empress

To gain further insights about your Power number, it can help to look at the Tarot trump that corresponds to it. In your case, this is the Empress. Great with child, she wields her scepter amidst the lush bounty of a garden. The matriarch, she symbolizes nature's powers of creation. Her domain includes fertility, productivity, creative talent, love, pleasure, happiness and luck.

Your Karmic Lessons

Karma numbers are digits that are completely missing in the letters of your name as given at birth. Most people have one or more Karma numbers. These missing digits serve as a guide to the areas of your life and personality that may be lacking. Such areas will benefit from special attention. If you ignore these blind spots, life can have a painful way of making you notice them. This, however, can eventually spur you forward on the path to wisdom. When you develop yourself in these areas, you will feel much more whole and complete.

The number 8 is missing in your name.

With an 8 Karma number, you are ambitious, but your judgment may not always be the best. You must learn the value of money, and find out how to use power responsibly.

Your Subconscious Response

Your Subconscious Response is related to how many Karma numbers you have. It shows the way you tend to react in emergencies, when you have no time to consult your intellect.

Your Subconscious Response number is 8.

When the going gets rough, you generally take charge of the situation in a calm and businesslike manner. You keep in control with a practical plan of action that is both well-organized and expedient.

Your Youth, Maturity and Later Years

So far, we've discussed the number vibrations that stay with you throughout your life. Now we move on to the three major periods of your life as shown by your Life Cycle numbers. These are derived from reducing the digits in your month, day and year of birth. The sum of the month digits describes the first period; the day, the second period; and the year, the third period.

Your First Life Cycle starts at birth and lasts until age 36.

Its number is 1.

This can be a difficult first cycle, because independence is usually not very compatible with youth. When you insist upon doing things your way, you may encounter great conflicts of will with those in charge. Alternatively, at a time of life when one is naturally dependent, circumstances may force you to stand on your own, to follow your own path and not depend on others. You may be given too much freedom for you to handle at this early age. Your task is to develop your own individuality so that you can stand on your own feet gracefully.

During the First Life Cycle, your Life Path number and your First Minor Challenge number are also especially important influences.

Your Second Life Cycle starts at age 36 and lasts until age 63.

Its number is 7.

Analysis is the key to your middle cycle. During your middle years you probe deeply to understand all that is going on around and inside you. You are highly sensitive at this time, and it may be best to keep your feelings to yourself. Because you need much time alone to think things through, your partner, if you have one, will need to understand this.

During this Life Cycle or the next, your Power number generally begins to manifest.

Your Third Life Cycle starts at age 63 and lasts until death.

Its number is 2.

Your later years will be peaceful, and will be happiest if they are full of social interaction. This can be a time of quiet accumulation in which you will become a collector of things, ideas, and even people. Concentrate on developing your relationships, for as you grow older they'll become an increasingly important part of your life.

Major Decision or Turning Points in Your Life

Your Turning Points or Pinnacles are also derived from your full birthdate. Each of them defines a period in your life and the special issues that you will face during that period. As their name suggests, Turning Points show points of choice where you need to make decisions. Besides showing the issues at stake, the Turning Point number indicates the choice that will be best for you. Turning Points are like tests that you must pass before proceeding forward. The happiness that you feel in a given Turning Point period depends on the choices you've made and the skills you've developed when faced with the previous Turning Point.

Your First Turning Point starts at birth and lasts until age 34.

Its number is 8.

This youthful Turning Point forces you to deal with issues of money and power at an early age, possibly at the expense of childhood fun. Hone your organizational abilities, learn to work hard, and expect success. The skills you acquire and the material comfort you can achieve early in life can serve as the foundation for future endeavors.

Your Second Turning Point starts at age 35 and lasts until age 44.

Its number is 9.

In the next nine years of your life you will be called to seek out ways serving the world and your fellow human beings. This could be brought on by personal losses that stimulate you to seek higher forms of happiness than mere ego gratification. This is an ideal time to develop compassion and to learn to sustain yourself with an appreciation of all the beauty in your life.

Your Third Turning Point starts at age 45 and lasts until age 54.

Its number is 8.

This 8 vibration in the prime of your life gives you the chance for prosperity and power when it is most natural to achieve it. If you've laid the foundations in earlier years, your wealth and fame can be considerable. Your choice is to exercise this power for either your own ego gratification or for the good of others as well as yourself.

Your Fourth Turning Point starts at age 55 and lasts until death.

Its number is 3.

In the last period of your life, a 3 vibration calls you to gather your friends around you and take up new forms of self-expression. This is a time when you can be thankful for companionship and good cheer, and you can explore new and interesting parts of yourself in writing, painting or other arts or crafts. No matter if your physical body isn't what it used to be. You now have the chance to be utterly vibrant on the mental level.

The Challenges You Will Meet

Everyone is born with special lessons to be learned. Again, your full birth date has inherent in it two Minor Challenges that are usually presented to you earlier in life, and a Major Challenge that is lifelong but which you will probably get to master only later in life.

Challenges may at first present themselves to you as external obstacles to your progress, but they arise from the deficiencies that you are born with, parts that are lacking or underdeveloped. Once you can determine exactly what the weak link is, you can make a conscious effort to strengthen that trait within yourself. This takes willpower and may sometimes feel as if you are going against the grain, but it pays off abundantly in terms of progress and success in life. As you tackle each challenge, your fears are pushed back, your scope enlarges, and you feel more comfortable in the world.

Your First Minor Challenge number is 6.

The First Minor Challenge usually crops up early in life. When its number is 6, you may need to learn to shoulder responsibilities beyond your years. In doing so, you may develop a certain rigidity and intolerance, and possibly an air of self-righteousness. Your challenge, then, will be to learn to serve others while accepting them just as they are, to serve not just their material needs, but to honor their need to be themselves and do things their own way. When you have met this challenge, you will have also granted freedom to yourself..

Your Second Minor Challenge number is 5.

The Second Minor Challenge is about aspects of your character that you need to work on during your Second Life Cycle, from about ages 35 to 62. With a Challenge of 5, you must learn not to get hung up with an adolescent desire for freedom at any price. During these middle years, life may demand that you settle down. Your body may rebel when you practice excesses of any type. Your task is to keep your balance while you stay in motion, and to learn just a bit of control over where you go. If you can learn moderation, your tolerance for change will keep you young and zestful for a very long time.

Your Major Challenge number is 1.

You face your Major Challenge throughout life. Most likely, however, you will find yourself needing to do the most work on it during your Third Life Cycle, after the lesser challenges have been met. With a Challenge number of 1, you must fight to overcome a sense of being held down by those with stronger wills. To meet this challenge, you must learn to assert your independence and discover your own individuality, while at the same time respecting the rights of others.

Your Best Activities for the Year

Your Personal Year number combines your birth month and day with the current year. Personal Year numbers go in a recurring nine-year cycle of development. Each time you go around the cycle you have a chance to do things with added wisdom and skill. Keeping your activities in tune with your current year vibration can make your existence more harmonious and keep your unfoldment upon its intended track.

Some numerologists believe that the new personal year number begins on January 1st of the new year. Others believe that it doesn't change until your birthday on that year, so that up until your birthday you would be using the personal year number for the preceding calendar year.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2002 is 12/3

A 3 Personal Year is a time to enjoy the good things that are born out of the self-assertion of the first year in the cycle and the pairing-off and gentle accommodations of the second year. When you plant your seeds well in the 1 Personal Year, your 3 Personal Year is indeed a lucky one, full of potential for growth and advancement. If you put yourself forward, you will be popular and will find those who will help you express yourself and further your ideas. So open up and spread the word. It is no time to hide your light under a bushel. Get around, be seen and identified, socialize and network. This is a light-hearted year, a time for exuberant self-expression, a year of fun and rewards in which you can restore your vital energies, explore your creativity, and widen your social contacts before the hard work that lies ahead. The keyword for this year is Enjoy.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2003 is 13/4

In this 4 Personal Year it is time to slow down, turn inward, and get down to the hard work that is needed to make your dream a reality. The first step is to get rid of the dead wood and focus on what is truly effective. It is time to put your affairs in order and keep them that way. Have a physical checkup, and do whatever is needed in the way of diet, exercise, and good health habits to get your body in tune. In all areas, get your tools in order, and cultivate the habit of practicality in order to build a solid foundation for future years. Work out the details and follow through. This is no time to kick back, so roll up your sleeves and dig in. If you let yourself flow with the tide of this year, you will eventually find yourself feeling a deep kind of satisfaction as your efforts produce tangible results. As you clean out your closets and tidy your desk, you will feel a new kind of serenity as your life becomes more calm, orderly and in-control. The word to remember this year is Concretize.

- 1: Best day to start something. Good for promoting yourself.
- 2: Try especially hard to be agreeable and to get along with others.
- 3: Be cheerful; be creative; buy something nice. Spoil yourself!
- 4: Do something constructive. Make a schedule and stick to it.
- 5: Get out there and do something you've been dreaming of doing.
- 6: A cozy kind of day best spent with the family and at home.
- 7: Spend time alone, and read a book. A day to sort out problems.
- 8: A day for business and finance. Keep cool and in control.
- 9: Finish up old business, and don't start anything new.
- 11: Forget practicalities. A great day to communicate your ideas.
- 22: A truly special day! Now you can go for the results for which you have long planned and schemed.
- 33: A blessed day for feeling in touch with that which is higher and greater than yourself.
- 44: Seize this day to do something that has lasting value for the world.

Where Do We Go from Here?

If this report has aroused your curiosity and you want to learn more, you may find that exploring your numbers with a deck of Tarot cards is an excellent means for further self-reflection.

Suppose that your birth date were August 19, 1962. The Tarot trump that you would look at for the month would be 8 (Strength, or in some decks, Justice). For the day, you would look at 19 (the Sun), $1+9=10$ (the Wheel of Fortune), and, reducing it even further, $1+0=1$ (the Magician). For the year, you would look at $1+9+6+2=18$ (the Moon), and possibly also $1+8=9$ (the Hermit).

These cards would have something to say about you and how you express these traits as you follow your destiny. Our example birth date would have the Sun in Leo, and trump 19, the Sun, would reinforce the Leo symbolism. You could see that the person is a hard worker (8) with a sunny disposition (19) who is aware of the changes in fortune that life can bring (10). Extremely creative (1), he is also a sensitive, caring person who is tuned in to other people's feelings (18).

It is instructive to buy a Tarot deck, put one of your cards up for a few days, and mull over the symbolism. Remember that there are no truly negative numbers or cards. All participate in the experiences of the soul as it passes through life.

Even trump 15, the Devil, has its place. Everyone has traits that create stumbling blocks or weaknesses. When we work to overcome these we achieve maturity and become more sympathetic to the weaknesses that we see in others. This may be an important focus for a soul with the number 15 prominent.

Also, trump 13, the so-called Death card, is often misunderstood. Remember that in the cycle of seasons the leaves fall and winter comes, but this death is only the precursor of the life that bursts forth in the spring. Life is not all white light and bubbles. There are dark clouds of pain and frustration as well. It's all part of the cycle.

Whatever you find your numbers to be, remember that nobody has it all down pat. We all have plenty to learn. We do have a choice, however. We can, if we wish, fight against our destiny or try to ignore it. Or we can, as the great psychoanalyst C.G. Jung put it, "do willingly what we must do by necessity." Viewing ourselves through the lens of studies such as numerology, the Tarot and astrology, we gain a clearer picture of what our own necessity is, and can then travel more consciously on our life's intended path.
