Your Planetary Day

While the calendar we use in the West dates from the 1500s, the seven days of the week have repeated without interruption for over two millennia. From ancient times, each day of the week has been associated with the Sun, Moon or one of the five visible planets. The weekday on which you were born shows where you stand in this ancient seven-fold cycle, and gives you a special link with the quality of its planetary ruler.

You were born on a Tuesday.

In English, Tuesday is named for Tiu, a Norse god who, like his Romance-language counterpart Mars, is associated with war and athletics. Astrologically, Mars, rules red, iron, blood, and the animal kingdom. In the Kabbalah, Mars is associated with Samael, angel of destruction, who clears the way for new creation. The sin of Mars is wrath and destructiveness, but his virtues are courage, activity, frankness and fairness. Keeping order and proportion in human affairs, fighting for justice, and defending the weak are among the highest uses of Mars energy. “Tuesday’s child is full of grace.” — Harper’s Weekly, 1887.

About Personal Numerology

The report that follows explores the numerological meaning of your birth date and the full name that was given to you at birth. Its aim is to make you more aware of the tendencies and patterns in your life, so that you can live more consciously, and more fully become the person you were meant to be.

As you read the following pages, remember that they describe pure types for each number. No one, of course, exhibits these character traits in their pure form. Instead, each of us is multi-dimensional, made up of many energy imperatives vying for expression. Some energies harmonize easily, while others are at cross-purposes, causing us to live with contradictions and inner conflicts. Our task is to honor all parts of ourselves and work at bringing our disparate selves into some kind of balance and cooperation. By making us more aware of our inner tendencies, numerology can help us to do this all-important work on ourselves.

In our families and other groups of which we are a part, some behaviors are encouraged and others are discouraged. If who we are wasn’t acceptable, we probably contorted ourselves to be what others wanted us to be. If so, we may have become what is called a “turn-type.”

For example, we may negatively manifest a number by expressing its opposite, as when the independent number 1 type becomes extremely dependent. Alternatively, the energy is out of balance and expressed extremely, as when the daring number 1 type becomes foolhardy. Or the energy is not developed enough, so that the number 1 is cowardly instead of courageous.

Because we feel that a certain trait is unacceptable and unworthy of us according to the biases of our family, superiors or peers, we may not be able to relate to it in ourselves. We may then spend many years discovering who we really are apart from other people’s expectations of us.

Studies such as numerology can help us find our way out of this maze, orienting us toward our true being and the highest manifestation of what we are. They can give us an objective picture of our strengths and weaknesses, show us our place in the larger scheme of things, and help us find the hidden gold in our characters, which we may not have even suspected that we had.

How Numerology Works. Through the use of ancient principles, numerology can derive a world of meaning from your birthdate and birth name. In the course of your life other numbers may become important for you, and you will probably acquire other names, but, like your astrological birth chart, the numerological vibrations at the very beginning of your life set the tone for all that follows.

To find the meaning inherent in your day, month and year of birth, numerologists add the digits in various ways. Most totals turn out to be more than one digit. They therefore reduce them to a single digit by adding the digits together. Whenever a total turns out to be a master number like 11 or 22, however, it is left as-is. These doubled numbers have a special significance, and are given special interpretations.

To find the numerological meaning of your name, numerology assigns a number to each letter of the alphabet. In the Pythagorean system used in this report, A = 1, B = 2, and so on through the first nine letters, and then we repeat the cycle through the rest of the alphabet. We then total the numbers corresponding to the vowels, the numbers corresponding to the consonants, and the numbers corresponding to all the letters to determine specific things about your character.

Each digit from 1 to 9 represents a specific stage in a cycle and has its own set of associations. In general, the odd numbers are considered introverted, in the sense of being primarily focused on inner life. The even numbers tend toward extroversion: that is, being primarily focused on outer activities. The numbers 1, 6, and 22, however, are considered dual in nature.

This said, let us now look first at your basic character and the major themes in your life.

Your Life Path

The total of the day, month and year of your birth is called by numerologists the Life Path, Life Lesson, Birth Path, Birth Force or, sometimes, the Destiny number. This number is chosen by nature rather than by you or your parents, and it reflects the season and historical era of your birth. As its names suggest, it shows your mission in life, your life work and what the universe intends for you. It shows the opportunities you must seize in order to make the most of your potential. Following the life path that has been given to you will enable you to avoid continual discord and frustration, and to unfold in the way that is best for your nature. When you find your true place in the world, you will feel at home.

Your birthdate total is 3.

Your Life Path of 3 means that that your destiny is involved with the development of social graces and good communication skills. You have a wonderful ability to inspire and amuse people. It is through those you favorably impress that your opportunities in life will come. Be creative, be artistic, and learn to use words to your advantage. You have an appealing charm and a real charisma. Versatility is vital to your success, but you must pace yourself. Learn not to scatter your energy.

What Motivates You in Life

We now move on to the name that you were given at birth. We first look at the total of the vowels in your full birth name, because this shows the emotional force that drives all that you do. Variously known as the Motivation, Soul Urge, Heart's Desire, or Inner Self number, the vowel total shows what you want out of life. Along with the Impression and Expression numbers that will be discussed below, it is a basic component of your character.

The vowel total in your name is 4.

With 4 as a Motivation number, you need to live an orderly life governed by definite rules. The basic criterion of your life is practicality. Whatever you do must have a definite purpose and payoff. Being an honest, straightforward person, you have no patience with pretense. A product of the old school, you have well-defined loyalties. You value your home and your job, and take pride in your work. Do, however, watch out for a tendency to be narrow-minded.

Colors and gems have number vibrations, too. Your Motivation color is green and your Motivation gem is the emerald. Wear these when you want to relax and restore your energies.

More about Your Emotions and Motivations

The first vowel in your first name augments or mitigates the force of the vowel total, and gives additional information about your emotional nature and underlying motivations in life. It manifests differently depending on whether the vowel sound is long or short. The long vowel gives a more direct and forthright expression, while the expression of the short vowel is more muted.

The first vowel in your name is E.

“E” feels changeable and restless, and gives you a love of freedom and excitement. You tend to be on the move, always on the lookout for the next interesting event. For you, variety is truly the spice of life. You are mentally stimulating and stimulated mentally by all that passes before you. Preferring to remain unfettered and free to explore new horizons, you find it difficult to take root. A “people” person, you are outgoing and have many friends who enjoy your optimism and good humor. You also work well with your hands and are very versatile.

The Impression You Give to Others

The total of the consonants in your name is known as the Impression, Personality, Outer Self or Adapted Self number. As its names suggest, this number signifies your persona, the face you show to the world. It shows the vibrations that you project, how others see you, and the kind of impression that you make on those around you. This has its origin in your illusions and fantasies, the world you create for yourself in daydreams. Given enough energy, your fantasies become reality, because you tend to become who you think you are.

Your consonant total is 4.

Having the Impression number 4, you dream of being a strong, down-to-earth sort of person who is the most necessary part of the lives of your family and friends. You see yourself as a dependable soul who can always be counted upon to do what is required. You have planned for everything that could go wrong, and are well prepared for the future. You use your past experience to your advantage, and can handle any obstacle that threatens your domain.

Your Impression color is green and your Impression gem is the emerald. Wear these when you want to be sociable and enjoy the company of others.

The Way You Express Yourself

The total of all the letters in your full name is variously called the Expression, Mission or Life Purpose number. Composed of both the vowels and the consonants, it represents the blending of your inner and outer selves. It thus shows the natural expression of your goals and desires: what you do best, and, by extension, your talents and career potential. It also indicates how you deal with the outside world: your style of solving problems, getting things done, and negotiating with others to attain what you would consider success.

Your name total is 8.

The Expression number 8 makes you the business leader, the organizer and the practical achiever. You get what you want through resolve and stamina. You have an air of authority that instills confidence, and your innate business sense attracts success. You're quick to seize opportunity and enlist others to help you. Power comes easily to you, and it is sometimes hard for you to relinquish your natural tendency to dominate.

When you want to be businesslike, try wearing try wearing rose as your Expression color and the diamond as your Expression gem.

Careers Offering the Best Self-Expression

With 8 as your Expression number, consider these kinds of jobs:

The Boss: bank director, manufacturer, military officer, head of a public institution, publishing executive, corporation head, real estate developer, developer of chain stores or franchises, contractor, financier, judge, buyer, office manager, coach.

On Stage: public official, orchestra leader, promoter.

Service: banker, cashier, broker, compiler, engineer, shipper, corporation or tax lawyer, purchasing agent, insurance agent, business consultant, investment advisor, office worker at a credit or loan company or stock brokerage.

Just You: statistician, critic, business analyst.

Best Bet: any job dealing with money, big business or power.

The Power You Can Achieve in Maturity

The total of the day, month and year of your birth and your full name at birth is known variously as the Power, Maturity, Reality, Real Self, Final Opportunity, Destiny or Goal Power number. A summation of both your name and your birthdate, this number shows how the two principal streams of energy converge to fulfill the purposes of your true self. The Power number is of great significance because it gives a clue as to what your ultimate life purpose might be.

This vibration usually becomes manifest only in the later part of your life. In the first half of life it tends to exist only as a potential. In these earlier years you live through many experiences that temper and define your character and aptitudes. Not until the age of 35 or 40 do most people live through enough life events to find their life purpose and develop it to the point where it becomes their main focus and direction. It is then that fulfillment comes. But this is usually achieved only after many false starts, and years of struggling to gain self-knowledge.

Finding your right place in life is gratifying. If you have not pushed through to this achievement, you can be dissatisfied and unhappy. You may feel at loose ends, without direction, rudderless and ill at ease. But if you have lived your life in accord with the purpose that was meant to be fulfilled in this life, you will find contentment and peace of mind.

What follows is the mature expression of your Power number. Mature development is not about living out someone else's idea of what you should be. It has more to do with honoring your own way of being in the world and moving from your own center. It is about trusting the process of unfoldment that exists within each of us and making this your guiding principle.

The total of your name and birthdate is 11/2.

A Power number of 11 is too high and intense a vibration for many people to live up to, at least at first. Most people who have 11 as a Power number will begin by operating on the lower vibration of 2. For you this means perfecting the art of functioning in groups or as a couple, and exercising your emotional intelligence and people skills to mediate and bring harmony between opposing factions. You may also take your pursuit of harmony into art, music or dance. Twos have a reputation for having a kind and sensitive nature, and are happy to remain in the background, leaving the spotlight for more extroverted types.

As time passes and you become more skilled at life, you may leap into the higher orbit of the 11 vibration from time to time, possibly with increasing frequency over the years. This is a whole new sphere where fame is a definite possibility. You will develop a more far-reaching vision and a wider (perhaps worldwide) sphere of action. As you draw more and more upon your higher mind, you will increase in intuitive abilities, possibly even becoming psychic. Brimming with insights to share, you are likely to be drawn to teaching, speaking or writing. This could be on a variety of topics. With your spiritual inspirations you may become a preacher or religious leader. With your compassionate idealism and sense of justice, you may crusade for causes such as peace. Or with your original, inventive mind you may find yourself on the cutting edge of science or technology. Whatever you do on your 11 Power vibration, your life will most likely be an extremely active one of successfully meeting challenges and taking big risks.

Tarot Key 11: Justice

To gain further insights about your Power number, it can help to look at the Tarot trump that corresponds to it. In your case, this is the card called Justice. The card shows her seated, holding the scales of balance and the sword that cuts through to the truth. The balance tries out first one side, and then the other, before achieving equilibrium. Then the sword makes a clean decision, at one stroke severing right from wrong. In numerology, the Justice Card represents the higher vibration of Key 2, the High Priestess. Whereas the High Priestess bridges the opposites of the conscious and the unconscious in the inner, personal realm, Justice mediates between persons and ideas in the outward, social realm, and must actively make a decision.

In some Tarot decks, Key 11 is the card called Strength. This is also a card that you might want to contemplate.

Your Karmic Lessons

Karma numbers are digits that are completely missing in the letters of your name as given at birth. Most people have one or more Karma numbers. These missing digits serve as a guide to the areas of your life and personality that may be lacking. Such areas will benefit from special attention. If you ignore these blind spots, life can have a painful way of making you notice them. This, however, can eventually spur you forward on the path to wisdom. When you develop yourself in these areas, you will feel much more whole and complete.

The number 7 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 7, it's possible that you have many fears and anxieties. You will find that the path out of your worry is to develop your intellect and spirituality.

Your Subconscious Response

Your Subconscious Response is related to how many Karma numbers you have. It shows the way you tend to react in emergencies, when you have no time to consult your intellect.

Your Subconscious Response number is 8.

When the going gets rough, you generally take charge of the situation in a calm and businesslike manner. You keep in control with a practical plan of action that is both well- organized and expedient.

Your Youth, Maturity and Later Years

So far, we've discussed the number vibrations that stay with you throughout your life. Now we move on to the three major periods of your life as shown by your Life Cycle numbers. These are derived from reducing the digits in your month, day and year of birth. The sum of the month digits describes the first period; the day, the second period; and the year, the third period.

Your First Life Cycle starts at birth and lasts until age 34.

Its number is 1.

This can be a difficult first cycle, because independence is usually not very compatible with youth. When you insist upon doing things your way, you may encounter great conflicts of will with those in charge. Alternatively, at a time of life when one is naturally dependent, circumstances may force you to stand on your own, to follow your own path and not depend on others. You may be given too much freedom for you to handle at this early age. Your task is to develop your own individuality so that you can stand on your own feet gracefully.

During the First Life Cycle, your Life Path number and your First Minor Challenge number are also especially important influences.

Your Second Life Cycle starts at age 34 and lasts until age 61.

Its number is 9.

Your middle period will be charged with strong emotional vibrations, and during it you may have many changes in your life. This is a time to learn to live with your emotions, and possibly to find an outlet in the arts. Personal relationships often do not fare well in this cycle. Instead, this is the time to be selfless, to cultivate your spiritual life and a broader love for, and service to, humanity. It is good to concentrate on finishing projects during this time, to prepare the way for new starts.

During this Life Cycle or the next, your Power number generally begins to manifest.

Your Third Life Cycle starts at age 61 and lasts until death.

Its number is 2.

Your later years will be peaceful, and will be happiest if they are full of social interaction. This can be a time of quiet accumulation in which you will become a collector of things, ideas, and even people. Concentrate on developing your relationships, for as you grow older they'll become an increasingly important part of your life.

Major Decision or Turning Points in Your Life

Your Turning Points or Pinnacles are also derived from your full birthdate. Each of them defines a period in your life and the special issues that you will face during that period. As their name suggests, Turning Points show points of choice where you need to make decisions. Besides showing the issues at stake, the Turning Point number indicates the choice that will be best for you. Turning Points are like tests that you must pass before proceeding forward. The happiness that you feel in a given Turning Point period depends on the choices you've made and the skills you've developed when faced with the previous Turning Point.

Your First Turning Point starts at birth and lasts until age 34.

Its number is 1.

This youthful Turning Point asks you to strike out on your own, to develop your own individuality, and to create something original. During this period it is best to lead rather than being led. You may feel frustrated, because early in your life others will probably be in a better position to lead you, and they may not tolerate your expressions of individuality. Your task is not to respond by being stubborn and self-centered.

Your Second Turning Point starts at age 35 and lasts until age 44.

Its number is 11/2.

In the next nine years of your life you will be given innovative ideas and possibly spiritual insights, and you will have an unusual opportunity for fame. Your task is to direct these gifts for the benefit of others.

Your Third Turning Point starts at age 45 and lasts until age 54.

Its number is 3.

This 3 vibration in the prime of your life demands that you now actualize your creative powers. Your imagination is fertile, and this is a great time to express yourself, especially in words. This is also a chance for networking and making yourself known, and it can be a time when you have the choice of wearing prosperity badly or well.

Your Fourth Turning Point starts at age 55 and lasts until death.

Its number is 3.

In the last period of your life, a 3 vibration calls you to gather your friends around you and take up new forms of self-expression. This is a time when you can be thankful for companionship and good cheer, and you can explore new and interesting parts of yourself in writing, painting or other arts or crafts. No matter if your physical body isn't what it used to be. You now have the chance to be utterly vibrant on the mental level.

The Challenges You Will Meet

Everyone is born with special lessons to be learned. Again, your full birth date has inherent in it two Minor Challenges that are usually presented to you earlier in life, and a Major Challenge that is lifelong but which you will probably get to master only later in life.

Challenges may at first present themselves to you as external obstacles to your progress, but they arise from the deficiencies that you are born with, parts that are lacking or underdeveloped. Once you can determine exactly what the weak link is, you can make a conscious effort to strengthen that trait within yourself. This takes willpower and may sometimes feel as if you are going against the grain, but it pays off abundantly in terms of progress and success in life. As you tackle each challenge, your fears are pushed back, your scope enlarges, and you feel more comfortable in the world.

Your First Minor Challenge number is 8.

The First Minor Challenge usually crops up early in life. When its number is 8, you may grow up with the mistaken idea that money and power are what make a person worth while. If so, your peers may give you painful lessons about what is truly important in life. Alternatively, you may disdain people simply because they are rich or prominent. Either way, your challenge is to learn the true place of power, financial and otherwise, in the total scheme of things. The lesson is to know when there is enough, and to know that outward trappings are not the same as true personal worth.

Your Second Minor Challenge number is 7.

The Second Minor Challenge is about aspects of your character that you need to work on during your Second Life Cycle, from about ages 35 to 62. With a Challenge of 7, you may be so caught up in your inner life that you have a hard time connecting with the outer world. This could take the form of depression, in which your energy is unavailable to you because it is working deep beneath the surface of your consciousness. It could also work out as pursuing an impossible purity, which causes you to feel so deeply critical of the world that you shun it. When you learn to come out of your ivory tower and give more of yourself to others, the world will feel like a much lovelier place to you.

Your Major Challenge number is 1.

You face your Major Challenge throughout life. Most likely, however, you will find yourself needing to do the most work on it during your Third Life Cycle, after the lesser challenges have been met. With a Challenge number of 1, you must fight to overcome a sense of being held down by those with stronger wills. To meet this challenge, you must learn to assert your independence and discover your own individuality, while at the same time respecting the rights of others.

Your Best Activities for the Year

Your Personal Year number combines your birth month and day with the current year. Personal Year numbers go in a recurring nine-year cycle of development. Each time you go around the cycle you have a chance to do things with added wisdom and skill. Keeping your activities in tune with your current year vibration can make your existence more harmonious and keep your unfoldment upon its intended track.

Some numerologists believe that the new personal year number begins on January 1st of the new year. Others believe that it doesn't change until your birthday on that year, so that up until your birthday you would be using the personal year number for the preceding calendar year.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2002 is 14/5

A 5 Personal Year is a time to lift your nose from the grindstone and go adventuring. If you've been diligent in your 4 year, it's now time to break away from your routine and refresh yourself. Try meeting new people, going to new places, involving yourself in new situations, and participating in a wide variety of activities. Opportunity won't necessarily come knocking at your door, so put yourself out there and see what comes your way. The excitement level is high, and the energy is there for the untried and the unusual. Like the 1 Personal Year, this is a pivotal time for shifts, twists and turns, so prepare yourself for the unexpected. The keyword for this year is Change. If you bounce along with the tide and remember to keep circulating, this should be a year of progress.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2003 is 15/6

In this 6 Personal Year, relationships will be a major focus and you may need to make some adjustments in this area of your life. Money and jobs are not likely to be a problem, and your energies now best directed toward home, family and friends. It is time really to take responsibility for those about whom you care. If your responsibilities toward others become heavy this year, remember that meeting them wholeheartedly can add immense emotional richness to your life. So, for now, put career demands and a desire for self-assertion and self-expression on the back burner. Concentrate on creating a loving home life and possibly also on making your physical home more comfortable and pleasing. In all ways, it is time to seek harmony and balance in your relationships and personal life. The keyword to remember this year is Harmonize.

- 1: Best day to start something. Good for promoting yourself.
- 2: Try especially hard to be agreeable and to get along with others.
- 3: Be cheerful; be creative; buy something nice. Spoil yourself!
- 4: Do something constructive. Make a schedule and stick to it.
- 5: Get out there and do something you've been dreaming of doing.
- 6: A cozy kind of day best spent with the family and at home.
- 7: Spend time alone, and read a book. A day to sort out problems.
- 8: A day for business and finance. Keep cool and in control.
- 9: Finish up old business, and don't start anything new.
- 11: Forget practicalities. A great day to communicate your ideas.
- 22: A truly special day! Now you can go for the results for which you have long planned and schemed.
- 33: A blessed day for feeling in touch with that which is higher and greater than yourself.
- 44: Seize this day to do something that has lasting value for the world.

Where Do We Go from Here?

If this report has aroused your curiosity and you want to learn more, you may find that exploring your numbers with a deck of Tarot cards is an excellent means for further self-reflection.

Suppose that your birth date were August 19, 1962. The Tarot trump that you would look at for the month would be 8 (Strength, or in some decks, Justice). For the day, you would look at 19 (the Sun), $1+9=10$ (the Wheel of Fortune), and, reducing it even further, $1+0=1$ (the Magician). For the year, you would look at $1+9+6+2=18$ (the Moon), and possibly also $1+8=9$ (the Hermit).

These cards would have something to say about you and how you express these traits as you follow your destiny. Our example birth date would have the Sun in Leo, and trump 19, the Sun, would reinforce the Leo symbolism. You could see that the person is a hard worker (8) with a sunny disposition (19) who is aware of the changes in fortune that life can bring (10). Extremely creative (1), he is also a sensitive, caring person who is tuned in to other people's feelings (18).

It is instructive to buy a Tarot deck, put one of your cards up for a few days, and mull over the symbolism. Remember that there are no truly negative numbers or cards. All participate in the experiences of the soul as it passes through life.

Even trump 15, the Devil, has its place. Everyone has traits that create stumbling blocks or weaknesses. When we work to overcome these we achieve maturity and become more sympathetic to the weaknesses that we see in others. This may be an important focus for a soul with the number 15 prominent.

Also, trump 13, the so-called Death card, is often misunderstood. Remember that in the cycle of seasons the leaves fall and winter comes, but this death is only the precursor of the life that bursts forth in the spring. Life is not all white light and bubbles. There are dark clouds of pain and frustration as well. It's all part of the cycle.

Whatever you find your numbers to be, remember that nobody has it all down pat. We all have plenty to learn. We do have a choice, however. We can, if we wish, fight against our destiny or try to ignore it. Or we can, as the great psychoanalyst C.G. Jung put it, "do willingly what we must do by necessity." Viewing ourselves through the lens of studies such as numerology, the Tarot and astrology, we gain a clearer picture of what our own necessity is, and can then travel more consciously on our life's intended path.
