Your Planetary Day

While the calendar we use in the West dates from the 1500s, the seven days of the week have repeated without interruption for over two millennia. From ancient times, each day of the week has been associated with the Sun, Moon or one of the five visible planets. The weekday on which you were born shows where you stand in this ancient seven-fold cycle, and gives you a special link with the quality of its planetary ruler.

You were born on a Monday.

Monday is named for the Moon, symbolizing all that receives and contains, including the mother, cradling arms, and the home. The Moon's day is the second of seven stages, signifying the division of unity (Stage One, Sunday) into conscious and unconscious, day and night. While the Sun is the unmoving center, the Moon rules all that periodically waxes and wanes. Of the seven directions of space, the Moon's direction is down, inward, and toward the past, toward the hidden night-side of imagination and dreams. In the Kabbalah, the Moon is ruled by Gabriel, angel of dreams and of hope. "Monday's child is fair of face." — Harper's Weekly, 1887.

About Personal Numerology

The report that follows explores the numerological meaning of your birth date and the full name that was given to you at birth. Its aim is to make you more aware of the tendencies and patterns in your life, so that you can live more consciously, and more fully become the person you were meant to be.

As you read the following pages, remember that they describe pure types for each number. No one, of course, exhibits these character traits in their pure form. Instead, each of us is multi-dimensional, made up of many energy imperatives vying for expression. Some energies harmonize easily, while others are at cross-purposes, causing us to live with contradictions and inner conflicts. Our task is to honor all parts of ourselves and work at bringing our disparate selves into some kind of balance and cooperation. By making us more aware of our inner tendencies, numerology can help us to do this all-important work on ourselves.

In our families and other groups of which we are a part, some behaviors are encouraged and others are discouraged. If who we are wasn't acceptable, we probably contorted ourselves to be what others wanted us to be. If so, we may have become what is called a "turn-type."

For example, we may negatively manifest a number by expressing its opposite, as when the independent number 1 type becomes extremely dependent. Alternatively, the energy is out of balance and expressed extremely, as when the daring number 1 type becomes foolhardy. Or the energy is not developed enough, so that the number 1 is cowardly instead of courageous.

Because we feel that a certain trait is unacceptable and unworthy of us according to the biases of our family, superiors or peers, we may not be able to relate to it in ourselves. We may then spend many years discovering who we really are apart from other people's expectations of us.

Studies such as numerology can help us find our way out of this maze, orienting us toward our true being and the highest manifestation of what we are. They can give us an objective picture of our strengths and weaknesses, show us our place in the larger scheme of things, and help us find the hidden gold in our characters, which we may not have even suspected that we had.

How Numerology Works. Through the use of ancient principles, numerology can derive a world of meaning from your birthdate and birth name. In the course of your life other numbers may become important for you, and you will probably acquire other names, but, like your astrological birth chart, the numerological vibrations at the very beginning of your life set the tone for all that follows.

To find the meaning inherent in your day, month and year of birth, numerologists add the digits in various ways. Most totals turn out to be more than one digit. They therefore reduce them to a single digit by adding the digits together. Whenever a total turns out to be a master number like 11 or 22, however, it is left as-is. These doubled numbers have a special significance, and are given special interpretations.

To find the numerological meaning of your name, numerology assigns a number to each letter of the alphabet. In the Pythagorean system used in this report, A = 1, B = 2, and so on through the first nine letters, and then we repeat the cycle through the rest of the alphabet. We then total the numbers corresponding to the vowels, the numbers corresponding to the consonants, and the numbers corresponding to all the letters to determine specific things about your character.

Each digit from 1 to 9 represents a specific stage in a cycle and has its own set of associations. In general, the odd numbers are considered introverted, in the sense of being primarily focused on inner life. The even numbers tend toward extroversion: that is, being primarily focused on outer activities. The numbers 1, 6, and 22, however, are considered dual in nature.

This said, let us now look first at your basic character and the major themes in your life.

Your Life Path

The total of the day, month and year of your birth is called by numerologists the Life Path, Life Lesson, Birth Path, Birth Force or, sometimes, the Destiny number. This number is chosen by nature rather than by you or your parents, and it reflects the season and historical era of your birth. As its names suggest, it shows your mission in life, your life work and what the universe intends for you. It shows the opportunities you must seize in order to make the most of your potential. Following the life path that has been given to you will enable you to avoid continual discord and frustration, and to unfold in the way that is best for your nature. When you find your true place in the world, you will feel at home.

Your birthdate total is 1.

With a Life Path of 1, you have a destiny to stand on your own, to believe in yourself, your own ideas and your own potential. Yours will be the life of the leader and the pioneer. Being a unique individual, you can follow your own path and live free from many of the rules that govern others. You may, however, have to fight to live the way you want and to accomplish what you want to do. Nevertheless, you must not conform or give up your goals.

What Motivates You in Life

We now move on to the name that you were given at birth. We first look at the total of the vowels in your full birth name, because this shows the emotional force that drives all that you do. Variously known as the Motivation, Soul Urge, Heart's Desire, or Inner Self number, the vowel total shows what you want out of life. Along with the Impression and Expression numbers that will be discussed below, it is a basic component of your character.

The vowel total in your name is 9.

With 9 as a Motivation number, you thirst after knowledge and enjoy sharing it with others. Dedicated to that which is universal, you are the eternal student of life, always in search of better understanding. You have humanitarian ideals, and sincerely desire to improve life's conditions. You tend to react emotionally and romantically, and are as much in love with the idea of love as with a person. When help is needed, you are capable of considerable self-sacrifice.

Colors and gems have number vibrations, too. Your Motivation colors are all colors in the brightest hues. Your Motivation gem is the opal. Wear these when you want to relax and restore your energies.

More about Your Emotions and Motivations

The first vowel in your first name augments or mitigates the force of the vowel total, and gives additional information about your emotional nature and underlying motivations in life. It manifests differently depending on whether the vowel sound is long or short. The long vowel gives a more direct and forthright expression, while the expression of the short vowel is more muted.

The first vowel in your name is O.

“O” feels both sympathetic and responsible. You work best with others and prefer not to go it alone. You want to create beautiful and congenial surroundings, and like to support and sustain your loved ones. You are the glue that keeps the family together and the lubricant that smoothes over the rough edges in intimate relationships. You can also be relied upon, such that your friends and family will vouch for your loyalty, stability and steadfastness. You are a refuge for those in need of help, and you have excellent problem- solving skills when the time comes to explore options and plan strategy. You give comfort and lend a sympathetic ear.

The Impression You Give to Others

The total of the consonants in your name is known as the Impression, Personality, Outer Self or Adapted Self number. As its names suggest, this number signifies your persona, the face you show to the world. It shows the vibrations that you project, how others see you, and the kind of impression that you make on those around you. This has its origin in your illusions and fantasies, the world you create for yourself in daydreams. Given enough energy, your fantasies become reality, because you tend to become who you think you are.

Your consonant total is 6.

Having the Impression number 6, you see yourself in the perfect home: a comfortable, cozy house with tasteful decor and objects of great sentimental value. In your dreams this house is warm and welcoming to all those whom you know. You wish for a family to care for, and a loyal mate who will stand by you throughout life. Beyond the home, you dream of a well-balanced, humane and just world where all can thrive and develop without conflict or problems.

Your Impression color is deep blue, and your Impression gems are the pearl and sapphire. Wear these when you want to be sociable and enjoy the company of others.

The Way You Express Yourself

The total of all the letters in your full name is variously called the Expression, Mission or Life Purpose number. Composed of both the vowels and the consonants, it represents the blending of your inner and outer selves. It thus shows the natural expression of your goals and desires: what you do best, and, by extension, your talents and career potential. It also indicates how you deal with the outside world: your style of solving problems, getting things done, and negotiating with others to attain what you would consider success.

Your name total is 6.

The Expression number 6 gives you a wonderful ability to help people sort out their lives. Armed with a clear sense of right and wrong, you have a solution for any dilemma, and you can be extremely logical and capable when dealing with others' problems. The service-oriented professions are perfect for your natural protective instincts. You also make an excellent parent, but must learn to curb a sometimes overly zealous concern that can involve you where you don't belong.

When you want to be businesslike, try wearing deep blue as your Expression color and the pearl or sapphire as your Expression gem.

Careers Offering the Best Self-Expression

With 6 as your Expression number, consider these kinds of jobs:

The Boss: hotel or restaurant manager, hospital or school administrator, director of youth group, social director, union official, publisher, executive in any business dealing with household products.

On Stage: teacher, clergyman, actor, musician, receptionist, hotel desk clerk.

Service: doctor, nurse, welfare worker, counselor or advisor of any kind, nursery- school helper, governess, civil servant, public service employee, cosmetician, real estate agent, therapist, psychologist, industrial designer.

Just You: costume designer, songwriter, poet, artist, merchant, librarian, economist, chemist, rancher.

Living: chef, restaurant worker, dietitian, florist, pet dealer, fabric seller, window designer, interior decorator, furniture dealer, upholsterer, butler, maid, housekeeper, gardener, parent.

Best Bet: Any job related to the home or to better living.

The Power You Can Achieve in Maturity

The total of the day, month and year of your birth and your full name at birth is known variously as the Power, Maturity, Reality, Real Self, Final Opportunity, Destiny or Goal Power number. A summation of both your name and your birthdate, this number shows how the two principal streams of energy converge to fulfill the purposes of your true self. The Power number is of great significance because it gives a clue as to what your ultimate life purpose might be.

This vibration usually becomes manifest only in the later part of your life. In the first half of life it tends to exist only as a potential. In these earlier years you live through many experiences that temper and define your character and aptitudes. Not until the age of 35 or 40 do most people live through enough life events to find their life purpose and develop it to the point where it becomes their main focus and direction. It is then that fulfillment comes. But this is usually achieved only after many false starts, and years of struggling to gain self-knowledge.

Finding your right place in life is gratifying. If you have not pushed through to this achievement, you can be dissatisfied and unhappy. You may feel at loose ends, without direction, rudderless and ill at ease. But if you have lived your life in accord with the purpose that was meant to be fulfilled in this life, you will find contentment and peace of mind.

What follows is the mature expression of your Power number. Mature development is not about living out someone else's idea of what you should be. It has more to do with honoring your own way of being in the world and moving from your own center. It is about trusting the process of unfoldment that exists within each of us and making this your guiding principle.

The total of your name and birthdate is 7.

Seven is the archetype of the Seeker, and a Power number of 7 signifies a life in pursuit of knowledge and perfection. Sevens have a burning desire to know, and so they question, analyze, probe, explore and examine every detail of whatever stimulates their curiosity. Bright and intelligent, they have penetrating minds that miss nothing. They tend to be quiet and are often thought to be rather antisocial and unfriendly, but this is a misunderstanding. Outside pressures interfere with the imperative of this number. Sevens are introverts who require massive amounts of time alone for study and reflection. They must have solitude to think things through with the depth that naturally comes to them

In the company of others, sevens are poised, refined, philosophical and reserved. Their rich inner life fascinates them far more than what is going on in the world around them. They attract situations that stimulate their investigative and analytical abilities, and it is their insights that are their gift to the world.

Tarot Key 7: The Chariot

To gain further insights about your Power number, it can help to look at the Tarot trump that corresponds to it. In your case, this is the card called the Chariot. The charioteer, dressed as a military leader, sets out on a journey with vigor and confidence, drawn forward by sphinxes. Emotions, the motivating force, are harnessed so that the Chariot can move forward. One sphinx is black, the other, white, signifying that motion comes about through the interaction of opposites. At the end of the road will be insights, and possibly invention, in far-ranging areas of the mind such as science, philosophy or the occult.

Your Karmic Lessons

Karma numbers are digits that are completely missing in the letters of your name as given at birth. Most people have one or more Karma numbers. These missing digits serve as a guide to the areas of your life and personality that may be lacking. Such areas will benefit from special attention. If you ignore these blind spots, life can have a painful way of making you notice them. This, however, can eventually spur you forward on the path to wisdom. When you develop yourself in these areas, you will feel much more whole and complete.

The number 3 is missing in your name.

With a 3 Karma number, you may lack self-confidence and have problems expressing yourself. Contact with the public can help you to overcome your inhibitions.

Your Subconscious Response

Your Subconscious Response is related to how many Karma numbers you have. It shows the way you tend to react in emergencies, when you have no time to consult your intellect.

Your Subconscious Response number is 8.

When the going gets rough, you generally take charge of the situation in a calm and businesslike manner. You keep in control with a practical plan of action that is both well- organized and expedient.

Your Youth, Maturity and Later Years

So far, we've discussed the number vibrations that stay with you throughout your life. Now we move on to the three major periods of your life as shown by your Life Cycle numbers. These are derived from reducing the digits in your month, day and year of birth. The sum of the month digits describes the first period; the day, the second period; and the year, the third period.

Your First Life Cycle starts at birth and lasts until age 36.

Its number is 7.

When young, you need much time alone in peace and quiet while you build up deep inner resources. At times misunderstood or considered difficult, you have a natural reserve that keeps you from opening up to others. During this period you would do well to have a specialized education that understands your need to cultivate your inner life, and gives you the chance to read, think, dream and possibly express yourself in one of the arts. If, instead, your parents, teachers or peers did not understand you, try not to take it as a judgment on yourself. Be glad for the rich inner world that you have developed in your youth.

During the First Life Cycle, your Life Path number and your First Minor Challenge number are also especially important influences.

Your Second Life Cycle starts at age 36 and lasts until age 63.

Its number is 9.

Your middle period will be charged with strong emotional vibrations, and during it you may have many changes in your life. This is a time to learn to live with your emotions, and possibly to find an outlet in the arts. Personal relationships often do not fare well in this cycle. Instead, this is the time to be selfless, to cultivate your spiritual life and a broader love for, and service to, humanity. It is good to concentrate on finishing projects during this time, to prepare the way for new starts.

During this Life Cycle or the next, your Power number generally begins to manifest.

Your Third Life Cycle starts at age 63 and lasts until death.

Its number is 3.

You can look forward to an enjoyable last cycle, filled with friendship, socializing, and a renewed pleasure in life. This is a wonderful time for developing artistic talents. Now you can creatively use your life experiences to help others develop the same "joie de vivre" that you are blessed with now.

Major Decision or Turning Points in Your Life

Your Turning Points or Pinnacles are also derived from your full birthdate. Each of them defines a period in your life and the special issues that you will face during that period. As their name suggests, Turning Points show points of choice where you need to make decisions. Besides showing the issues at stake, the Turning Point number indicates the choice that will be best for you. Turning Points are like tests that you must pass before proceeding forward. The happiness that you feel in a given Turning Point period depends on the choices you've made and the skills you've developed when faced with the previous Turning Point.

Your First Turning Point starts at birth and lasts until age 34.

Its number is 7.

This Turning Point may pose the challenge of feeling lonely and isolated when you are young. It's possible that you are either denied the education you wish for, or you are pressured into studying by your parents. If you are lucky, you will be permitted to go inward to study and dream. Doing so can enable you to develop a deep philosophy of life that will sustain you in later years.

Your Second Turning Point starts at age 35 and lasts until age 44.

Its number is 3.

The next nine years of your life will test your ability to expand both socially and artistically. It is a time to learn how to be cheerful and friendly, and to develop your ability to create. You may have the opportunity to write, speak publicly, or in other ways to use your mind and be on-stage. Develop your feelings and imagination, and be prepared for prosperity.

Your Third Turning Point starts at age 45 and lasts until age 54.

Its number is 1.

This 1 vibration during the prime of your life brings a chance to become noted in your own right. Known for your individuality, you have a chance stand out from the crowd and engage in some creative act that proclaims who you really are. It is now best to work alone or to do the bossing yourself.

Your Fourth Turning Point starts at age 55 and lasts until death.

Its number is 1.

In the last period of your life, a 1 vibration calls you to define your individuality and become a person in your own right. It is a time to exercise your own powers and fight for your independence. If you do this with courage and determination, you can have an exhilarating old age and will be remembered long after you're gone.

The Challenges You Will Meet

Everyone is born with special lessons to be learned. Again, your full birth date has inherent in it two Minor Challenges that are usually presented to you earlier in life, and a Major Challenge that is lifelong but which you will probably get to master only later in life.

Challenges may at first present themselves to you as external obstacles to your progress, but they arise from the deficiencies that you are born with, parts that are lacking or underdeveloped. Once you can determine exactly what the weak link is, you can make a conscious effort to strengthen that trait within yourself. This takes willpower and may sometimes feel as if you are going against the grain, but it pays off abundantly in terms of progress and success in life. As you tackle each challenge, your fears are pushed back, your scope enlarges, and you feel more comfortable in the world.

Your First Minor Challenge number is 2.

The First Minor Challenge usually crops up early in life. When its number is 2, you may be painfully timid, thin-skinned, and sensitive to the slightest hurts from others. Your challenge here is to maintain your remarkable sensitivity to feelings and vibrations, but not feel personally hurt or threatened. Remember that when others are cruel it comes from their own unhappiness and really has nothing to do with who you are. Cooperation with others may be a major theme in your life, and an additional challenge with this number is to learn to work with others without either leaning on them or trying to dominate the situation.

Your Second Minor Challenge number is 6.

The Second Minor Challenge is about aspects of your character that you need to work on during your Second Life Cycle, from about ages 35 to 62. With a Challenge of 6, you may need to learn to be helpful and responsible without meddling in others' lives and trying to direct what they think and do. You may need to reexamine your own firmly held philosophy of life and grant the validity of others' opinions. When you learn to be more flexible, your relationships will improve and deepen, and all the hard work you have put into them will now seem to have a point.

Your Major Challenge number is 4.

You face your Major Challenge throughout life. Most likely, however, you will find yourself needing to do the most work on it during your Third Life Cycle, after the lesser challenges have been met. With a Challenge number of 4, you may run into difficulties either through getting lost in details or through not paying enough attention to them. The challenge here is to learn to work in a balanced manner, pacing yourself and fitting the job you do to the requirements of the situation.

Your Best Activities for the Year

Your Personal Year number combines your birth month and day with the current year. Personal Year numbers go in a recurring nine-year cycle of development. Each time you go around the cycle you have a chance to do things with added wisdom and skill. Keeping your activities in tune with your current year vibration can make your existence more harmonious and keep your unfoldment upon its intended track.

Some numerologists believe that the new personal year number begins on January 1st of the new year. Others believe that it doesn't change until your birthday on that year, so that up until your birthday you would be using the personal year number for the preceding calendar year.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2002 is 20/2

In a 2 Personal Year, you become softer and more receptive, and your focus naturally turns toward partnership and cooperation with others. It is time to seek out a person who will help you to crystallize your dreams. Then you should listen to your partner, be diplomatic and patient, and perfect the art of working as a team in a spirit of respect and harmony. When two hearts come together in a common effort, in an atmosphere of give-and-take and mutual regard, you can accomplish wondrous things. As receptive as you are to another person, you should also be receptive to your own inner knowing. In all things, the keyword this year is Accommodate.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2003 is 21/3

A 3 Personal Year is a time to enjoy the good things that are born out of the self-assertion of the first year in the cycle and the pairing-off and gentle accommodations of the second year. When you plant your seeds well in the 1 Personal Year, your 3 Personal Year is indeed a lucky one, full of potential for growth and advancement. If you put yourself forward, you will be popular and will find those who will help you express yourself and further your ideas. So open up and spread the word. It is no time to hide your light under a bushel. Get around, be seen and identified, socialize and network. This is a light-hearted year, a time for exuberant self-expression, a year of fun and rewards in which you can restore your vital energies, explore your creativity, and widen your social contacts before the hard work that lies ahead. The keyword for this year is Enjoy.

Where Do We Go from Here?

If this report has aroused your curiosity and you want to learn more, you may find that exploring your numbers with a deck of Tarot cards is an excellent means for further self-reflection.

Suppose that your birth date were August 19, 1962. The Tarot trump that you would look at for the month would be 8 (Strength, or in some decks, Justice). For the day, you would look at 19 (the Sun), $1+9=10$ (the Wheel of Fortune), and, reducing it even further, $1+0=1$ (the Magician). For the year, you would look at $1+9+6+2=18$ (the Moon), and possibly also $1+8=9$ (the Hermit).

These cards would have something to say about you and how you express these traits as you follow your destiny. Our example birth date would have the Sun in Leo, and trump 19, the Sun, would reinforce the Leo symbolism. You could see that the person is a hard worker (8) with a sunny disposition (19) who is aware of the changes in fortune that life can bring (10). Extremely creative (1), he is also a sensitive, caring person who is tuned in to other people's feelings (18).

It is instructive to buy a Tarot deck, put one of your cards up for a few days, and mull over the symbolism. Remember that there are no truly negative numbers or cards. All participate in the experiences of the soul as it passes through life.

Even trump 15, the Devil, has its place. Everyone has traits that create stumbling blocks or weaknesses. When we work to overcome these we achieve maturity and become more sympathetic to the weaknesses that we see in others. This may be an important focus for a soul with the number 15 prominent.

Also, trump 13, the so-called Death card, is often misunderstood. Remember that in the cycle of seasons the leaves fall and winter comes, but this death is only the precursor of the life that bursts forth in the spring. Life is not all white light and bubbles. There are dark clouds of pain and frustration as well. It's all part of the cycle.

Whatever you find your numbers to be, remember that nobody has it all down pat. We all have plenty to learn. We do have a choice, however. We can, if we wish, fight against our destiny or try to ignore it. Or we can, as the great psychoanalyst C.G. Jung put it, "do willingly what we must do by necessity." Viewing ourselves through the lens of studies such as numerology, the Tarot and astrology, we gain a clearer picture of what our own necessity is, and can then travel more consciously on our life's intended path.
