Your Planetary Day

While the calendar we use in the West dates from the 1500s, the seven days of the week have repeated without interruption for over two millennia. From ancient times, each day of the week has been associated with the Sun, Moon or one of the five visible planets. The weekday on which you were born shows where you stand in this ancient seven-fold cycle, and gives you a special link with the quality of its planetary ruler.

You were born on a Wednesday.

This is the day of Mercury, well known as the messenger of the gods and ruler of intelligence, communication, transportation and commerce. Mercury also rules mediumship, magic and the mantic arts, and was the guider of souls in the underworld. In English, Wednesday is named after the great Norse god Woden, who much like Mercury was associated with writing, wisdom, poetry, and also with prophecy, magic, shape-shifting and disguise. Dual in nature, Mercury rules trickery as well as truth, and is as hard to pin down as his metal, quicksilver. The German name for Wednesday means simply mid-week, and of the seven directions of space, Mercury signifies the middle. In the Kabbalah, Mercury is associated with Raphael, the civilizing angel. “Wednesday’s child is full of woe.” — Harper’s Weekly, 1887.

About Personal Numerology

The report that follows explores the numerological meaning of your birth date and the full name that was given to you at birth. Its aim is to make you more aware of the tendencies and patterns in your life, so that you can live more consciously, and more fully become the person you were meant to be.

As you read the following pages, remember that they describe pure types for each number. No one, of course, exhibits these character traits in their pure form. Instead, each of us is multi-dimensional, made up of many energy imperatives vying for expression. Some energies harmonize easily, while others are at cross-purposes, causing us to live with contradictions and inner conflicts. Our task is to honor all parts of ourselves and work at bringing our disparate selves into some kind of balance and cooperation. By making us more aware of our inner tendencies, numerology can help us to do this all-important work on ourselves.

In our families and other groups of which we are a part, some behaviors are encouraged and others are discouraged. If who we are wasn’t acceptable, we probably contorted ourselves to be what others wanted us to be. If so, we may have become what is called a “turn-type.”

For example, we may negatively manifest a number by expressing its opposite, as when the independent number 1 type becomes extremely dependent. Alternatively, the energy is out of balance and expressed extremely, as when the daring number 1 type becomes foolhardy. Or the energy is not developed enough, so that the number 1 is cowardly instead of courageous.

Because we feel that a certain trait is unacceptable and unworthy of us according to the biases of our family, superiors or peers, we may not be able to relate to it in ourselves. We may then spend many years discovering who we really are apart from other people's expectations of us.

Studies such as numerology can help us find our way out of this maze, orienting us toward our true being and the highest manifestation of what we are. They can give us an objective picture of our strengths and weaknesses, show us our place in the larger scheme of things, and help us find the hidden gold in our characters, which we may not have even suspected that we had.

How Numerology Works. Through the use of ancient principles, numerology can derive a world of meaning from your birthdate and birth name. In the course of your life other numbers may become important for you, and you will probably acquire other names, but, like your astrological birth chart, the numerological vibrations at the very beginning of your life set the tone for all that follows.

To find the meaning inherent in your day, month and year of birth, numerologists add the digits in various ways. Most totals turn out to be more than one digit. They therefore reduce them to a single digit by adding the digits together. Whenever a total turns out to be a master number like 11 or 22, however, it is left as-is. These doubled numbers have a special significance, and are given special interpretations.

To find the numerological meaning of your name, numerology assigns a number to each letter of the alphabet. In the Pythagorean system used in this report, A = 1, B = 2, and so on through the first nine letters, and then we repeat the cycle through the rest of the alphabet. We then total the numbers corresponding to the vowels, the numbers corresponding to the consonants, and the numbers corresponding to all the letters to determine specific things about your character.

Each digit from 1 to 9 represents a specific stage in a cycle and has its own set of associations. In general, the odd numbers are considered introverted, in the sense of being primarily focused on inner life. The even numbers tend toward extroversion: that is, being primarily focused on outer activities. The numbers 1, 6, and 22, however, are considered dual in nature.

This said, let us now look first at your basic character and the major themes in your life.

Your Life Path

The total of the day, month and year of your birth is called by numerologists the Life Path, Life Lesson, Birth Path, Birth Force or, sometimes, the Destiny number. This number is chosen by nature rather than by you or your parents, and it reflects the season and historical era of your birth. As its names suggest, it shows your mission in life, your life work and what the universe intends for you. It shows the opportunities you must seize in order to make the most of your potential. Following the life path that has been given to you will enable you to avoid continual discord and frustration, and to unfold in the way that is best for your nature. When you find your true place in the world, you will feel at home.

Your birthdate total is 7.

Your Life Path of 7 means that your destiny lies with the mental and spiritual: the path of study and the search for life's meaning. A certain solitude is necessary for your development. Your natural aloofness and detachment aren't well suited to superficial social relationships or heavy family responsibility. It's important that you specialize in a philosophical or scientific field. Don't be aggressive; instead, let opportunities come to you.

What Motivates You in Life

We now move on to the name that you were given at birth. We first look at the total of the vowels in your full birth name, because this shows the emotional force that drives all that you do. Variously known as the Motivation, Soul Urge, Heart's Desire, or Inner Self number, the vowel total shows what you want out of life. Along with the Impression and Expression numbers that will be discussed below, it is a basic component of your character.

The vowel total in your name is 1.

With 1 as a Motivation number, you are essentially a leader, and you feel most comfortable when in control. Because you have more ideas than time to pursue them, you can often be very impatient. You relate best to those who admire you and who will let you dominate. This drive of yours to lead and be independent at all costs will allow you to accomplish a lot in life, but it could make you somewhat of a loner. Nevertheless, your own strong will must prevail.

Colors and gems have number vibrations, too. Your Motivation color is red and your Motivation gem is the ruby. Wear these when you want to relax and restore your energies.

More about Your Emotions and Motivations

The first vowel in your first name augments or mitigates the force of the vowel total, and gives additional information about your emotional nature and underlying motivations in life. It manifests differently depending on whether the vowel sound is long or short. The long vowel gives a more direct and forthright expression, while the expression of the short vowel is more muted.

The first vowel in your name is A.

"A" feels courageous and daring, and gives you the soul of a warrior. Often you do not look before you leap, impulsively getting yourself into more hot water than you'd like. But you have the dash and flair to extricate yourself no matter what. You like to be on the front line, and are not afraid to go out on a limb for your beliefs. Preferring to be the one in control, you do not take well to authority. You want to call the shots and go it alone, because you are often too impatient to wait for others.

The Impression You Give to Others

The total of the consonants in your name is known as the Impression, Personality, Outer Self or Adapted Self number. As its names suggest, this number signifies your persona, the face you show to the world. It shows the vibrations that you project, how others see you, and the kind of impression that you make on those around you. This has its origin in your illusions and fantasies, the world you create for yourself in daydreams. Given enough energy, your fantasies become reality, because you tend to become who you think you are.

Your consonant total is 1.

Having the Impression number 1, you dream of being a pioneer for mankind: an original, daring trendsetter who is strongly individual. As the number 1 represents ego and self-realization, you see yourself as forceful and effective in obtaining what others can't even see. You want always to be first and best, and for others to be in awe of your abilities and accomplishments. Most of all, you always want to feel that you are in control.

Your Impression color is red, and your Impression gem is the ruby. Wear these when you want to be sociable and enjoy the company of others.

The Way You Express Yourself

The total of all the letters in your full name is variously called the Expression, Mission or Life Purpose number. Composed of both the vowels and the consonants, it represents the blending of your inner and outer selves. It thus shows the natural expression of your goals and desires: what you do best, and, by extension, your talents and career potential. It also indicates how you deal with the outside world: your style of solving problems, getting things done, and negotiating with others to attain what you would consider success.

Your name total is 11/2.

As an Expression number, the master number 11 can indicate great potential as an enlightened thinker with excellent intuition and vision. You have the ability to create harmony out of conflict, but can have difficulty maintaining your own equilibrium. Your tastes run to the exotic, and you have a mysterious and otherworldly air. Spiritual in nature and high-strung, you are best off when working with others who are more practical than you. The supreme idealist, you need to become more grounded if you are to apply your ideals to the real world.

A master number is too powerful a vibration to be used all the time. Instead, it requires special circumstances and energies. In daily life, you will find that you tend to express yourself on a more human 2 level. Here you can sense the feelings of others, and this enables you to be a natural peacemaker. You bring love to your circle of family and friends, and inspire others to be more patient and tolerant. You dress modestly, as you are not really interested in being the center of attention. You are quite happy to go along with the crowd. Do not allow a tendency toward passivity to cause you to end up with the short end of things.

When you are feeling inspired and operating on your 11 level, you are more likely to be at your serious best when you are wearing the color silver and/or the metal platinum. When you want to be businesslike but are living at your more human 2 level, it's best to wear orange and/or the moonstone.

Careers Offering the Best Self-Expression

Having the master number 11 as your name total gives you great flexibility in your choice of careers. To work up to the demands of your 11 Expression number, consider these kinds of jobs:

The Boss: the leader of a reform movement.

On Stage: clergyman, reformer, religious leader, actor, promoter, musician, political campaigner, teacher, lecturer, auctioneer, any work with the mass media.

Service: diplomat, revenue collector, beauty specialist; lawyer, psychiatrist, psychologist; charity, welfare or social worker; counselor for the elderly, young, or unemployed,.

Just You: inventor, philosopher, poet, biographer, composer, novelist, writer on religious or spiritual matters, critic, explorer, antique dealer, filmmaker, psychic, mystic, searcher for spiritual enlightenment or expanded consciousness.

Best Bet: any job where your special talents can reach the public.

Alternatively, to work at the less demanding level of a 2 Expression number, consider the following careers:

The Boss: club organizer, tour director, producer, publisher.

On Stage: politician, musician, entertainer in a group, teacher.

Service: diplomat, secretary, civil servant, office worker, analyst, collection agent, nurse, psychologist, homemaker, waitperson, mechanic, psychic or medium.

Just You: bookkeeper, librarian, antique dealer, poet, novelist.

Best Bet: any job where you work as a member of a team.

The Power You Can Achieve in Maturity

The total of the day, month and year of your birth and your full name at birth is known variously as the Power, Maturity, Reality, Real Self, Final Opportunity, Destiny or Goal Power number. A summation of both your name and your birthdate, this number shows how the two principal streams of energy converge to fulfill the purposes of your true self. The Power number is of great significance because it gives a clue as to what your ultimate life purpose might be.

This vibration usually becomes manifest only in the later part of your life. In the first half of life it tends to exist only as a potential. In these earlier years you live through many experiences that temper and define your character and aptitudes. Not until the age of 35 or 40 do most people live through enough life events to find their life purpose and develop it to the point where it becomes their main focus and direction. It is then that fulfillment comes. But this is usually achieved only after many false starts, and years of struggling to gain self-knowledge.

Finding your right place in life is gratifying. If you have not pushed through to this achievement, you can be dissatisfied and unhappy. You may feel at loose ends, without direction, rudderless and ill at ease. But if you have lived your life in accord with the purpose that was meant to be fulfilled in this life, you will find contentment and peace of mind.

What follows is the mature expression of your Power number. Mature development is not about living out someone else's idea of what you should be. It has more to do with honoring your own way of being in the world and moving from your own center. It is about trusting the process of unfoldment that exists within each of us and making this your guiding principle.

The total of your name and birthdate is 9.

A Power number of 9 signifies the humanitarian and universalist who knows that we are all brothers and sisters living on one earth. Nine is the archetype of the Reformer who has a broad vision that encompasses everyone, everywhere. Wishing to improve the lot of humankind and of the world, nines serve with willingness and compassion. Possessors of deep and powerful emotions, they work for causes with great energy and enthusiasm because of their vision of what the future can be. They weed the garden of the world in order to prepare the ground for the new growth that they envision. Nines have great personal magnetism through which they are able to influence people. Inspired and inspiring, they teach, counsel and heal. Uncomfortable living a personal life, they are at their best living their lives for the greater good.

Tarot Key 9: The Hermit

To gain further insights about your Power number, it can help to look at the Tarot trump that corresponds to it. In your case, this is the Hermit. In his pilgrimage through a dark landscape, the Hermit holds forth a lantern, searching for the truth. He has traveled far, and on his way he has incorporated into his being all facets of life. He has learned compassion and forgiveness. He now seeks only perfection, which he will not find around him. Instead, he will be led within, to a new level of awareness and a new beginning. The hermit is alone, with attention turned inward, but in his search he illuminates the darkness for others as well as himself.

Your Karmic Lessons

Karma numbers are digits that are completely missing in the letters of your name as given at birth. Most people have one or more Karma numbers. These missing digits serve as a guide to the areas of your life and personality that may be lacking. Such areas will benefit from special attention. If you ignore these blind spots, life can have a painful way of making you notice them. This, however, can eventually spur you forward on the path to wisdom. When you develop yourself in these areas, you will feel much more whole and complete.

The number 2 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 2, you may lack patience and tend to be overly sensitive. You may have experiences where you are forced to learn to get along better with others.

The number 6 is missing in your name.

Having 6 as a Karma number points to a need to work on your relationships. You may find others depending on you. This can force you to learn the value of family and other close ties.

The number 7 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 7, it's possible that you have many fears and anxieties. You will find that the path out of your worry is to develop your intellect and spirituality.

Your Subconscious Response

Your Subconscious Response is related to how many Karma numbers you have. It shows the way you tend to react in emergencies, when you have no time to consult your intellect.

Your Subconscious Response number is 6.

In rough times, you think first of your family, friends, loved ones and possessions. You are very protective of what is yours, and your responses are generally practical and responsible. The main thing to be aware of is that your sentimental attachments tend to win out, even in situations where a more reasoned approach would be more appropriate.

Your Youth, Maturity and Later Years

So far, we've discussed the number vibrations that stay with you throughout your life. Now we move on to the three major periods of your life as shown by your Life Cycle numbers. These are derived from reducing the digits in your month, day and year of birth. The sum of the month digits describes the first period; the day, the second period; and the year, the third period.

Your First Life Cycle starts at birth and lasts until age 30.

Its number is 4.

At an age that is naturally concerned with experiment and play, your youth is full of hard work, practical concerns and restrictions. Don't worry. The stability, self-discipline and tolerance for routine that you develop in your First Cycle can be made to pay off later, giving you a secure foundation that allows you to enjoy yourself. You don't readily express your emotional needs, but you still desire much affection and praise. It is good during this period to learn to work with your hands, and to wait to cultivate your emotional self at the appropriate time.

During the First Life Cycle, your Life Path number and your First Minor Challenge number are also especially important influences.

Your Second Life Cycle starts at age 30 and lasts until age 57.

Its number is 1.

This is an especially good vibration for the middle cycle, because it allows you to become truly independent and to work on your self-development. This is an ideal period to launch your own business or a new career. There can be strain on partnerships, however, if your need for self-assertion during this time is not understood.

During this Life Cycle or the next, your Power number generally begins to manifest.

Your Third Life Cycle starts at age 57 and lasts until death.

Its number is 2.

Your later years will be peaceful, and will be happiest if they are full of social interaction. This can be a time of quiet accumulation in which you will become a collector of things, ideas, and even people. Concentrate on developing your relationships, for as you grow older they'll become an increasingly important part of your life.

Major Decision or Turning Points in Your Life

Your Turning Points or Pinnacles are also derived from your full birthdate. Each of them defines a period in your life and the special issues that you will face during that period. As their name suggests, Turning Points show points of choice where you need to make decisions. Besides showing the issues at stake, the Turning Point number indicates the choice that will be best for you. Turning Points are like tests that you must pass before proceeding forward. The happiness that you feel in a given Turning Point period depends on the choices you've made and the skills you've developed when faced with the previous Turning Point.

Your First Turning Point starts at birth and lasts until age 34.

Its number is 5.

This youthful Turning Point offers a chance for travel, new ideas, and even a new lifestyle. Embrace these fearlessly, and you will develop your character for the next phase. You have a way with people and can now make the most of it. During this period you may feel unstable and rootless, and may need to wait for a more suitable period to build a satisfyingly firm foundation for your adult life.

Your Second Turning Point starts at age 35 and lasts until age 44.

Its number is 3.

The next nine years of your life will test your ability to expand both socially and artistically. It is a time to learn how to be cheerful and friendly, and to develop your ability to create. You may have the opportunity to write, speak publicly, or in other ways to use your mind and be on-stage. Develop your feelings and imagination, and be prepared for prosperity.

Your Third Turning Point starts at age 45 and lasts until age 54.

Its number is 8.

This 8 vibration in the prime of your life gives you the chance for prosperity and power when it is most natural to achieve it. If you've laid the foundations in earlier years, your wealth and fame can be considerable. Your choice is to exercise this power for either your own ego gratification or for the good of others as well as yourself.

Your Fourth Turning Point starts at age 55 and lasts until death.

Its number is 6.

In the last period of your life, a 6 vibration calls you to build a secure and cozy retreat for you and your loved ones. At this time of life it is especially important to guard against becoming set in your routine and rigid in your opinions. If responsibilities are thrust upon you for care of your loved ones, you have the choice of whether or not to accept your duties wholeheartedly. Will this be just another burden to bear, or will you use it for practice in opening your heart and discovering strengths you never knew you had? The choice is yours.

The Challenges You Will Meet

Everyone is born with special lessons to be learned. Again, your full birth date has inherent in it two Minor Challenges that are usually presented to you earlier in life, and a Major Challenge that is lifelong but which you will probably get to master only later in life.

Challenges may at first present themselves to you as external obstacles to your progress, but they arise from the deficiencies that you are born with, parts that are lacking or underdeveloped. Once you can determine exactly what the weak link is, you can make a conscious effort to strengthen that trait within yourself. This takes willpower and may sometimes feel as if you are going against the grain, but it pays off abundantly in terms of progress and success in life. As you tackle each challenge, your fears are pushed back, your scope enlarges, and you feel more comfortable in the world.

Your First Minor Challenge number is 3.

The First Minor Challenge usually crops up early in life. When its number is 3, you will feel impeded until you learn to overcome the barriers to the free expression of your natural talents. You may need to overcome shyness and learn to express yourself clearly. Once you learn to relax with people, you may exhibit an unusual facility for expressing yourself in conversation and lending life and enjoyment to social situations. You should seize every opportunity to realize your creative potential, taking lessons when you can and letting enjoyment of what you are doing break down any barriers to your spontaneity.

Your Second Minor Challenge number is 1.

When the number 1 is your Second Minor Challenge, you will probably need to do most of your work on this area in mid-life, during your Second Life Cycle from about ages 35 to 62. This is a time to work on your will power and on asserting yourself as an individual. It is a time to overcome dependency and stand on your own feet so that you don't believe you need to please others in order to survive. Pick a goal, and in working toward it you will realize your own powers. Then you will have earned the respect of others and yourself.

Your Major Challenge number is 2.

You face your Major Challenge throughout life. Most likely, however, you will find yourself needing to do the most work on it during your Third Life Cycle, after the lesser challenges have been met. With a Challenge number of 2, the thing to master is cooperating with others without either leaning on them or trying to dominate the situation. Balance is the watchword here. Also, when you find yourself hurt or slighted, you will be much happier when you learn not to take it personally.

Your Best Activities for the Year

Your Personal Year number combines your birth month and day with the current year. Personal Year numbers go in a recurring nine-year cycle of development. Each time you go around the cycle you have a chance to do things with added wisdom and skill. Keeping your activities in tune with your current year vibration can make your existence more harmonious and keep your unfoldment upon its intended track.

Some numerologists believe that the new personal year number begins on January 1st of the new year. Others believe that it doesn't change until your birthday on that year, so that up until your birthday you would be using the personal year number for the preceding calendar year.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2002 is 9

In a 9 Personal Year, the cycle of Personal Years comes to an end. This is a year to harvest the remaining crop before it rots, time to tie up all the old cycle's loose ends. So clear the decks and weed the garden. Whatever you have put off, you need to finish it now. Next year you'll be starting a new cycle, and you don't want the detritus of the old cycle to impede your progress. Like the 5 Personal Year, this is a pivotal time, one that is appropriate for change. Now you can reinvent yourself, lose weight, toss out old stuff, and get rid of old habits. As people and things fall away because they are no longer appropriate, you may experience this as a year of loss. Say a graceful good-bye, and open yourself to the new cycle to come.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2003 is 10/1

A 1 Personal Year begins a new cycle. This is a time to make a fresh start, a time to plant seeds that will mature in the next nine years. In this opening phase of a new cycle you should make a special effort to maintain your independence and individuality, make your own decisions, and rely on your own abilities and instincts. Stay at the forefront, and do not take a back seat to anyone. This is the year to focus on your ideas, your needs, and the fulfillment of your dreams. Once you get your own thing going, you will be better able to relate to another person in the next stage of the cycle. So for now, exercise your own creative powers as fully as possible, and use all that fresh new energy to plunge ahead into new areas that you can develop more fully later. In all things this, year, Initiate.

- 1: Best day to start something. Good for promoting yourself.
- 2: Try especially hard to be agreeable and to get along with others.
- 3: Be cheerful; be creative; buy something nice. Spoil yourself!
- 4: Do something constructive. Make a schedule and stick to it.
- 5: Get out there and do something you've been dreaming of doing.
- 6: A cozy kind of day best spent with the family and at home.
- 7: Spend time alone, and read a book. A day to sort out problems.
- 8: A day for business and finance. Keep cool and in control.
- 9: Finish up old business, and don't start anything new.
- 11: Forget practicalities. A great day to communicate your ideas.
- 22: A truly special day! Now you can go for the results for which you have long planned and schemed.
- 33: A blessed day for feeling in touch with that which is higher and greater than yourself.
- 44: Seize this day to do something that has lasting value for the world.

Where Do We Go from Here?

If this report has aroused your curiosity and you want to learn more, you may find that exploring your numbers with a deck of Tarot cards is an excellent means for further self-reflection.

Suppose that your birth date were August 19, 1962. The Tarot trump that you would look at for the month would be 8 (Strength, or in some decks, Justice). For the day, you would look at 19 (the Sun), $1+9=10$ (the Wheel of Fortune), and, reducing it even further, $1+0=1$ (the Magician). For the year, you would look at $1+9+6+2=18$ (the Moon), and possibly also $1+8=9$ (the Hermit).

These cards would have something to say about you and how you express these traits as you follow your destiny. Our example birth date would have the Sun in Leo, and trump 19, the Sun, would reinforce the Leo symbolism. You could see that the person is a hard worker (8) with a sunny disposition (19) who is aware of the changes in fortune that life can bring (10). Extremely creative (1), he is also a sensitive, caring person who is tuned in to other people's feelings (18).

It is instructive to buy a Tarot deck, put one of your cards up for a few days, and mull over the symbolism. Remember that there are no truly negative numbers or cards. All participate in the experiences of the soul as it passes through life.

Even trump 15, the Devil, has its place. Everyone has traits that create stumbling blocks or weaknesses. When we work to overcome these we achieve maturity and become more sympathetic to the weaknesses that we see in others. This may be an important focus for a soul with the number 15 prominent.

Also, trump 13, the so-called Death card, is often misunderstood. Remember that in the cycle of seasons the leaves fall and winter comes, but this death is only the precursor of the life that bursts forth in the spring. Life is not all white light and bubbles. There are dark clouds of pain and frustration as well. It's all part of the cycle.

Whatever you find your numbers to be, remember that nobody has it all down pat. We all have plenty to learn. We do have a choice, however. We can, if we wish, fight against our destiny or try to ignore it. Or we can, as the great psychoanalyst C.G. Jung put it, "do willingly what we must do by necessity." Viewing ourselves through the lens of studies such as numerology, the Tarot and astrology, we gain a clearer picture of what our own necessity is, and can then travel more consciously on our life's intended path.
