Your Planetary Day

While the calendar we use in the West dates from the 1500s, the seven days of the week have repeated without interruption for over two millennia. From ancient times, each day of the week has been associated with the Sun, Moon or one of the five visible planets. The weekday on which you were born shows where you stand in this ancient seven-fold cycle, and gives you a special link with the quality of its planetary ruler.

You were born on a Tuesday.

In English, Tuesday is named for Tiu, a Norse god who, like his Romance-language counterpart Mars, is associated with war and athletics. Astrologically, Mars, rules red, iron, blood, and the animal kingdom. In the Kabbalah, Mars is associated with Samael, angel of destruction, who clears the way for new creation. The sin of Mars is wrath and destructiveness, but his virtues are courage, activity, frankness and fairness. Keeping order and proportion in human affairs, fighting for justice, and defending the weak are among the highest uses of Mars energy. “Tuesday’s child is full of grace.” — Harper’s Weekly, 1887.

About Personal Numerology

The report that follows explores the numerological meaning of your birth date and the full name that was given to you at birth. Its aim is to make you more aware of the tendencies and patterns in your life, so that you can live more consciously, and more fully become the person you were meant to be.

As you read the following pages, remember that they describe pure types for each number. No one, of course, exhibits these character traits in their pure form. Instead, each of us is multi-dimensional, made up of many energy imperatives vying for expression. Some energies harmonize easily, while others are at cross-purposes, causing us to live with contradictions and inner conflicts. Our task is to honor all parts of ourselves and work at bringing our disparate selves into some kind of balance and cooperation. By making us more aware of our inner tendencies, numerology can help us to do this all-important work on ourselves.

In our families and other groups of which we are a part, some behaviors are encouraged and others are discouraged. If who we are wasn’t acceptable, we probably contorted ourselves to be what others wanted us to be. If so, we may have become what is called a “turn-type.”

For example, we may negatively manifest a number by expressing its opposite, as when the independent number 1 type becomes extremely dependent. Alternatively, the energy is out of balance and expressed extremely, as when the daring number 1 type becomes foolhardy. Or the energy is not developed enough, so that the number 1 is cowardly instead of courageous.

Because we feel that a certain trait is unacceptable and unworthy of us according to the biases of our family, superiors or peers, we may not be able to relate to it in ourselves. We may then spend many years discovering who we really are apart from other people’s expectations of us.

Studies such as numerology can help us find our way out of this maze, orienting us toward our true being and the highest manifestation of what we are. They can give us an objective picture of our strengths and weaknesses, show us our place in the larger scheme of things, and help us find the hidden gold in our characters, which we may not have even suspected that we had.

How Numerology Works. Through the use of ancient principles, numerology can derive a world of meaning from your birthdate and birth name. In the course of your life other numbers may become important for you, and you will probably acquire other names, but, like your astrological birth chart, the numerological vibrations at the very beginning of your life set the tone for all that follows.

To find the meaning inherent in your day, month and year of birth, numerologists add the digits in various ways. Most totals turn out to be more than one digit. They therefore reduce them to a single digit by adding the digits together. Whenever a total turns out to be a master number like 11 or 22, however, it is left as-is. These doubled numbers have a special significance, and are given special interpretations.

To find the numerological meaning of your name, numerology assigns a number to each letter of the alphabet. In the Pythagorean system used in this report, A = 1, B = 2, and so on through the first nine letters, and then we repeat the cycle through the rest of the alphabet. We then total the numbers corresponding to the vowels, the numbers corresponding to the consonants, and the numbers corresponding to all the letters to determine specific things about your character.

Each digit from 1 to 9 represents a specific stage in a cycle and has its own set of associations. In general, the odd numbers are considered introverted, in the sense of being primarily focused on inner life. The even numbers tend toward extroversion: that is, being primarily focused on outer activities. The numbers 1, 6, and 22, however, are considered dual in nature.

This said, let us now look first at your basic character and the major themes in your life.

Your Life Path

The total of the day, month and year of your birth is called by numerologists the Life Path, Life Lesson, Birth Path, Birth Force or, sometimes, the Destiny number. This number is chosen by nature rather than by you or your parents, and it reflects the season and historical era of your birth. As its names suggest, it shows your mission in life, your life work and what the universe intends for you. It shows the opportunities you must seize in order to make the most of your potential. Following the life path that has been given to you will enable you to avoid continual discord and frustration, and to unfold in the way that is best for your nature. When you find your true place in the world, you will feel at home.

Your birthdate total is 4.

Your Life Path of 4 means that your destiny is closely allied to the work ethic. It is through self-discipline and conscientious labor that you will advance in life. You are best at endeavors that deal in facts and require a logical solution. You will be known as the one who gets the job done in the most effective and efficient way possible. Routine, hard work, dependability, practicality and service are the keys to your success.

What Motivates You in Life

We now move on to the name that you were given at birth. We first look at the total of the vowels in your full birth name, because this shows the emotional force that drives all that you do. Variously known as the Motivation, Soul Urge, Heart's Desire, or Inner Self number, the vowel total shows what you want out of life. Along with the Impression and Expression numbers that will be discussed below, it is a basic component of your character.

The vowel total in your name is 11/2.

As a Motivation number, the master number 11 indicates the potential for creative genius. You could be a special person possessing great vision and ideals, one who sees beyond ordinary horizons. You tend to be the dreamer who envisions a better world, but who can have difficulties adjusting to the realities of this one. To see your ideas take form, you need to work at developing the practical side of your nature. It helps to have a strong, down-to-earth partner who understands your most special spirit and who can help you to accomplish your goals.

As a master number, 11 is too high and potent a vibration to be used continuously. You will find that it is, in fact, a 2 vibration that motivates you in daily life. At the 2 level, you desire much love and understanding, and are at your best when following another person's ideas or direction within a marriage or other type of partnership. Highly motivated to cooperate with others, you enjoy sharing. Your life centers around a harmonious and peaceful existence, a life that is comfortable, but where the material aspects take second place to human and social values.

Colors, gems and metals have number vibrations, too. When you're feeling the inspiration of your 11 vibration and wish to relax and be at peace with yourself, wear the color silver or the metal platinum. When you're feeling the more human 2 vibration and want to relax, you should wear orange as a color and the moonstone as a gem.

More about Your Emotions and Motivations

The first vowel in your first name augments or mitigates the force of the vowel total, and gives additional information about your emotional nature and underlying motivations in life. It manifests differently depending on whether the vowel sound is long or short. The long vowel gives a more direct and forthright expression, while the expression of the short vowel is more muted.

The first vowel in your name is I.

The Impression You Give to Others

The total of the consonants in your name is known as the Impression, Personality, Outer Self or Adapted Self number. As its names suggest, this number signifies your persona, the face you show to the world. It shows the vibrations that you project, how others see you, and the kind of impression that you make on those around you. This has its origin in your illusions and fantasies, the world you create for yourself in daydreams. Given enough energy, your fantasies become reality, because you tend to become who you think you are.

Your consonant total is 3.

Having the Impression number 3, you dream of being a very popular person: magnetically attractive, and even a sex symbol. You are the actor on center stage, the movie star, the life of the party, charming everyone with your wit. Since you are conscious of the image you project, only the latest and best in fashion will do. You may dream of the jet-set life or another glamorous lifestyle in which you are the star.

Your Impression color is yellow, and your Impression gem is the topaz. Wear these when you want to be sociable and enjoy the company of others.

The Way You Express Yourself

The total of all the letters in your full name is variously called the Expression, Mission or Life Purpose number. Composed of both the vowels and the consonants, it represents the blending of your inner and outer selves. It thus shows the natural expression of your goals and desires: what you do best, and, by extension, your talents and career potential. It also indicates how you deal with the outside world: your style of solving problems, getting things done, and negotiating with others to attain what you would consider success.

Your name total is 5.

The Expression number 5 makes you tend to be the well-traveled, experienced person who can fit in with any group of people. Your finest talent lies in your ability to cope with anything. People notice you because you're different and a bit daring. Never predictable, even to yourself, you need great variety in your work and life. The Power You Can Achieve in Maturity

The total of the day, month and year of your birth and your full name at birth is known variously as the Power, Maturity, Reality, Real Self, Final Opportunity, Destiny or Goal Power number. A summation of both your name and your birthdate, this number shows how the two principal streams of energy converge to fulfill the purposes of your true self. The Power number is of great significance because it gives a clue as to what your ultimate life purpose might be.

This vibration usually becomes manifest only in the later part of your life. In the first half of life it tends to exist only as a potential. In these earlier years you live through many experiences that temper and define your character and aptitudes. Not until the age of 35 or 40 do most people live through enough life events to find their life purpose and develop it to the point where it becomes their main focus and direction. It is then that fulfillment comes. But this is usually achieved only after many false starts, and years of struggling to gain self-knowledge.

Finding your right place in life is gratifying. If you have not pushed through to this achievement, you can be dissatisfied and unhappy. You may feel at loose ends, without direction, rudderless and ill at ease. But if you have lived your life in accord with the purpose that was meant to be fulfilled in this life, you will find contentment and peace of mind.

What follows is the mature expression of your Power number. Mature development is not about living out someone else's idea of what you should be. It has more to do with honoring your own way of being in the world and moving from your own center. It is about trusting the process of unfoldment that exists within each of us and making this your guiding principle.

The total of your name and birthdate is 9.

A Power number of 9 signifies the humanitarian and universalist who knows that we are all brothers and sisters living on one earth. Nine is the archetype of the Reformer who has a broad vision that encompasses everyone, everywhere. Wishing to improve the lot of humankind and of the world, nines serve with willingness and compassion. Possessors of deep and powerful emotions, they work for causes with great energy and enthusiasm because of their vision of what the future can be. They weed the garden of the world in order to prepare the ground for the new growth that they envision. Nines have great personal magnetism through which they are able to influence people. Inspired and inspiring, they teach, counsel and heal. Uncomfortable living a personal life, they are at their best living their lives for the greater good.

Tarot Key 9: The Hermit

To gain further insights about your Power number, it can help to look at the Tarot trump that corresponds to it. In your case, this is the Hermit. In his pilgrimage through a dark landscape, the Hermit holds forth a lantern, searching for the truth. He has traveled far, and on his way he has incorporated into his being all facets of life. He has learned compassion and forgiveness. He now seeks only perfection, which he will not find around him. Instead, he will be led within, to a new level of awareness and a new beginning. The hermit is alone, with attention turned inward, but in his search he illuminates the darkness for others as well as himself.

Your Karmic Lessons

Karma numbers are digits that are completely missing in the letters of your name as given at birth. Most people have one or more Karma numbers. These missing digits serve as a guide to the areas of your life and personality that may be lacking. Such areas will benefit from special attention. If you ignore these blind spots, life can have a painful way of making you notice them. This, however, can eventually spur you forward on the path to wisdom. When you develop yourself in these areas, you will feel much more whole and complete.

The number 8 is missing in your name.

With an 8 Karma number, you are ambitious, but your judgment may not always be the best. You must learn the value of money, and find out how to use power responsibly.

Your Subconscious Response

Your Subconscious Response is related to how many Karma numbers you have. It shows the way you tend to react in emergencies, when you have no time to consult your intellect.

Your Subconscious Response number is 8.

When the going gets rough, you generally take charge of the situation in a calm and businesslike manner. You keep in control with a practical plan of action that is both well- organized and expedient.

Your Youth, Maturity and Later Years

So far, we've discussed the number vibrations that stay with you throughout your life. Now we move on to the three major periods of your life as shown by your Life Cycle numbers. These are derived from reducing the digits in your month, day and year of birth. The sum of the month digits describes the first period; the day, the second period; and the year, the third period.

Your First Life Cycle starts at birth and lasts until age 33.

Its number is 6.

Your home life has a profound effect on your childhood, and during this cycle you are most comfortable in the protection of the home. Indeed, you may marry early to preserve this sheltered life. You tend to worry, and need much reassurance. A family fight can leave you miserable. While you are sheltered, you may also feel restricted with family duties and responsibilities.

During the First Life Cycle, your Life Path number and your First Minor Challenge number are also especially important influences.

Your Second Life Cycle starts at age 33 and lasts until age 60.

Its number is 2.

In mid-life your success will arise through cooperation. You should look for work that involves helping people to get along with each other. Put yourself second, attend to details, and be sensitive to the needs of others. This is also an excellent cycle for improving your own partnerships and marriage.

During this Life Cycle or the next, your Power number generally begins to manifest.

Your Third Life Cycle starts at age 60 and lasts until death.

Its number is 5.

No rocking chair for you! You are inclined to finish your days in a whirlwind of activity and variety. You'll need lots of stimulation, so plan on traveling and making contact with as many different kinds of people as possible. The constant changes in your life should keep you young.

Major Decision or Turning Points in Your Life

Your Turning Points or Pinnacles are also derived from your full birthdate. Each of them defines a period in your life and the special issues that you will face during that period. As their name suggests, Turning Points show points of choice where you need to make decisions. Besides showing the issues at stake, the Turning Point number indicates the choice that will be best for you. Turning Points are like tests that you must pass before proceeding forward. The happiness that you feel in a given Turning Point period depends on the choices you've made and the skills you've developed when faced with the previous Turning Point.

Your First Turning Point starts at birth and lasts until age 34.

Its number is 8.

This youthful Turning Point forces you to deal with issues of money and power at an early age, possibly at the expense of childhood fun. Hone your organizational abilities, learn to work hard, and expect success. The skills you acquire and the material comfort you can achieve early in life can serve as the foundation for future endeavors.

Your Second Turning Point starts at age 35 and lasts until age 44.

Its number is 7.

The next nine years of your life will test your ability to go inward, meditate and study. Now is your chance to develop a philosophy that sustains you through the rest of your life. Ensure that you get enough intellectual stimulation, and that you learn how to analyze and evaluate.

Your Third Turning Point starts at age 45 and lasts until age 54.

Its number is 6.

This 6 vibration in the prime of your life brings a choice about how you will bear heavy responsibilities, and whether you will let them beat you down or bring you the happiness that comes from helping others. It may also be a time when you are called to make a nest that is a true haven for you, your family and friends.

Your Fourth Turning Point starts at age 55 and lasts until death.

Its number is 11/2.

In the last period of your life, an 11 master number bids you to call upon all that you have achieved so far, and use this to make a lasting contribution to the world. You will be gifted with unusual inspiration and insight and could leave the world a legacy of innovation. This is a difficult vibration, and it can be nervously exhausting, but should you choose to go with it, you will have the exhilaration of knowing that your life has made a difference.

The Challenges You Will Meet

Everyone is born with special lessons to be learned. Again, your full birth date has inherent in it two Minor Challenges that are usually presented to you earlier in life, and a Major Challenge that is lifelong but which you will probably get to master only later in life.

Challenges may at first present themselves to you as external obstacles to your progress, but they arise from the deficiencies that you are born with, parts that are lacking or underdeveloped.

Once you can determine exactly what the weak link is, you can make a conscious effort to strengthen that trait within yourself. This takes willpower and may sometimes feel as if you are going against the grain, but it pays off abundantly in terms of progress and success in life. As you tackle each challenge, your fears are pushed back, your scope enlarges, and you feel more comfortable in the world.

Your First Minor Challenge number is 4.

The First Minor Challenge usually crops up early in life. When its number is 4, you will need to learn how to work effectively before you can do much else in the world. In youth, the lesson is usually to learn to settle down and concentrate. Later on, it is often to avoid becoming a “grind” and letting work take over your whole life. The challenge, anyway, is to give work its proper place, and learn a balance between work and play.

Your Second Minor Challenge number is 3.

The Second Minor Challenge is about aspects of your character that you need to work on during your Second Life Cycle, from about ages 35 to 62. With a Challenge of 3, your task is to channel your energies so that you can truly express yourself. You may need to learn not to scatter your attention and squander your time and energy. You may need either to avoid being a chatterbox, or to come out of your shell and not be daunted by criticism. When you find your stride, life will feel like a dance, and your self-expression will be natural and unimpeded.

Your Major Challenge number is 1.

You face your Major Challenge throughout life. Most likely, however, you will find yourself needing to do the most work on it during your Third Life Cycle, after the lesser challenges have been met. With a Challenge number of 1, you must fight to overcome a sense of being held down by those with stronger wills. To meet this challenge, you must learn to assert your independence and discover your own individuality, while at the same time respecting the rights of others.

Your Best Activities for the Year

Your Personal Year number combines your birth month and day with the current year. Personal Year numbers go in a recurring nine-year cycle of development. Each time you go around the cycle you have a chance to do things with added wisdom and skill. Keeping your activities in tune with your current year vibration can make your existence more harmonious and keep your unfoldment upon its intended track.

Some numerologists believe that the new personal year number begins on January 1st of the new year. Others believe that it doesn't change until your birthday on that year, so that up until your birthday you would be using the personal year number for the preceding calendar year.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2002 is 12/3

A 3 Personal Year is a time to enjoy the good things that are born out of the self-assertion of the first year in the cycle and the pairing-off and gentle accommodations of the second year. When you plant your seeds well in the 1 Personal Year, your 3 Personal Year is indeed a lucky one, full of potential for growth and advancement. If you put yourself forward, you will be popular and will find those who will help you express yourself and further your ideas. So open up and spread the word. It is no time to hide your light under a bushel. Get around, be seen and identified, socialize and network. This is a light-hearted year, a time for exuberant self-expression, a year of fun and rewards in which you can restore your vital energies, explore your creativity, and widen your social contacts before the hard work that lies ahead. The keyword for this year is Enjoy.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2003 is 13/4

In this 4 Personal Year it is time to slow down, turn inward, and get down to the hard work that is needed to make your dream a reality. The first step is to get rid of the dead wood and focus on what is truly effective. It is time to put your affairs in order and keep them that way. Have a physical checkup, and do whatever is needed in the way of diet, exercise, and good health habits to get your body in tune. In all areas, get your tools in order, and cultivate the habit of practicality in order to build a solid foundation for future years. Work out the details and follow through. This is no time to kick back, so roll up your sleeves and dig in. If you let yourself flow with the tide of this year, you will eventually find yourself feeling a deep kind of satisfaction as your efforts produce tangible results. As you clean out your closets and tidy your desk, you will feel a new kind of serenity as your life becomes more calm, orderly and in-control. The word to remember this year is Concretize.

Where Do We Go from Here?

If this report has aroused your curiosity and you want to learn more, you may find that exploring your numbers with a deck of Tarot cards is an excellent means for further self-reflection.

Suppose that your birth date were August 19, 1962. The Tarot trump that you would look at for the month would be 8 (Strength, or in some decks, Justice). For the day, you would look at 19 (the Sun), $1+9=10$ (the Wheel of Fortune), and, reducing it even further, $1+0=1$ (the Magician). For the year, you would look at $1+9+6+2=18$ (the Moon), and possibly also $1+8=9$ (the Hermit).

These cards would have something to say about you and how you express these traits as you follow your destiny. Our example birth date would have the Sun in Leo, and trump 19, the Sun, would reinforce the Leo symbolism. You could see that the person is a hard worker (8) with a sunny disposition (19) who is aware of the changes in fortune that life can bring (10). Extremely creative (1), he is also a sensitive, caring person who is tuned in to other people's feelings (18).

It is instructive to buy a Tarot deck, put one of your cards up for a few days, and mull over the symbolism. Remember that there are no truly negative numbers or cards. All participate in the experiences of the soul as it passes through life.

Even trump 15, the Devil, has its place. Everyone has traits that create stumbling blocks or weaknesses. When we work to overcome these we achieve maturity and become more sympathetic to the weaknesses that we see in others. This may be an important focus for a soul with the number 15 prominent.

Also, trump 13, the so-called Death card, is often misunderstood. Remember that in the cycle of seasons the leaves fall and winter comes, but this death is only the precursor of the life that bursts forth in the spring. Life is not all white light and bubbles. There are dark clouds of pain and frustration as well. It's all part of the cycle.

Whatever you find your numbers to be, remember that nobody has it all down pat. We all have plenty to learn. We do have a choice, however. We can, if we wish, fight against our destiny or try to ignore it. Or we can, as the great psychoanalyst C.G. Jung put it, "do willingly what we must do by necessity." Viewing ourselves through the lens of studies such as numerology, the Tarot and astrology, we gain a clearer picture of what our own necessity is, and can then travel more consciously on our life's intended path.
