Your Planetary Day

While the calendar we use in the West dates from the 1500s, the seven days of the week have repeated without interruption for over two millennia. From ancient times, each day of the week has been associated with the Sun, Moon or one of the five visible planets. The weekday on which you were born shows where you stand in this ancient seven-fold cycle, and gives you a special link with the quality of its planetary ruler.

You were born on a Wednesday.

This is the day of Mercury, well known as the messenger of the gods and ruler of intelligence, communication, transportation and commerce. Mercury also rules mediumship, magic and the mantic arts, and was the guider of souls in the underworld. In English, Wednesday is named after the great Norse god Woden, who much like Mercury was associated with writing, wisdom, poetry, and also with prophecy, magic, shape-shifting and disguise. Dual in nature, Mercury rules trickery as well as truth, and is as hard to pin down as his metal, quicksilver. The German name for Wednesday means simply mid-week, and of the seven directions of space, Mercury signifies the middle. In the Kabbalah, Mercury is associated with Raphael, the civilizing angel. “Wednesday’s child is full of woe.” — Harper’s Weekly, 1887.

About Personal Numerology

The report that follows explores the numerological meaning of your birth date and the full name that was given to you at birth. Its aim is to make you more aware of the tendencies and patterns in your life, so that you can live more consciously, and more fully become the person you were meant to be.

As you read the following pages, remember that they describe pure types for each number. No one, of course, exhibits these character traits in their pure form. Instead, each of us is multi-dimensional, made up of many energy imperatives vying for expression. Some energies harmonize easily, while others are at cross-purposes, causing us to live with contradictions and inner conflicts. Our task is to honor all parts of ourselves and work at bringing our disparate selves into some kind of balance and cooperation. By making us more aware of our inner tendencies, numerology can help us to do this all-important work on ourselves.

In our families and other groups of which we are a part, some behaviors are encouraged and others are discouraged. If who we are wasn’t acceptable, we probably contorted ourselves to be what others wanted us to be. If so, we may have become what is called a “turn-type.”

For example, we may negatively manifest a number by expressing its opposite, as when the independent number 1 type becomes extremely dependent. Alternatively, the energy is out of balance and expressed extremely, as when the daring number 1 type becomes foolhardy. Or the energy is not developed enough, so that the number 1 is cowardly instead of courageous.

Because we feel that a certain trait is unacceptable and unworthy of us according to the biases of our family, superiors or peers, we may not be able to relate to it in ourselves. We may then spend many years discovering who we really are apart from other people’s expectations of us.

Studies such as numerology can help us find our way out of this maze, orienting us toward our true being and the highest manifestation of what we are. They can give us an objective picture of our strengths and weaknesses, show us our place in the larger scheme of things, and help us find the hidden gold in our characters, which we may not have even suspected that we had.

How Numerology Works. Through the use of ancient principles, numerology can derive a world of meaning from your birthdate and birth name. In the course of your life other numbers may become important for you, and you will probably acquire other names, but, like your astrological birth chart, the numerological vibrations at the very beginning of your life set the tone for all that follows.

To find the meaning inherent in your day, month and year of birth, numerologists add the digits in various ways. Most totals turn out to be more than one digit. They therefore reduce them to a single digit by adding the digits together. Whenever a total turns out to be a master number like 11 or 22, however, it is left as-is. These doubled numbers have a special significance, and are given special interpretations.

To find the numerological meaning of your name, numerology assigns a number to each letter of the alphabet. In the Pythagorean system used in this report, A = 1, B = 2, and so on through the first nine letters, and then we repeat the cycle through the rest of the alphabet. We then total the numbers corresponding to the vowels, the numbers corresponding to the consonants, and the numbers corresponding to all the letters to determine specific things about your character.

Each digit from 1 to 9 represents a specific stage in a cycle and has its own set of associations. In general, the odd numbers are considered introverted, in the sense of being primarily focused on inner life. The even numbers tend toward extroversion: that is, being primarily focused on outer activities. The numbers 1, 6, and 22, however, are considered dual in nature.

This said, let us now look first at your basic character and the major themes in your life.

Your Life Path

The total of the day, month and year of your birth is called by numerologists the Life Path, Life Lesson, Birth Path, Birth Force or, sometimes, the Destiny number. This number is chosen by nature rather than by you or your parents, and it reflects the season and historical era of your birth. As its names suggest, it shows your mission in life, your life work and what the universe intends for you. It shows the opportunities you must seize in order to make the most of your potential. Following the life path that has been given to you will enable you to avoid continual discord and frustration, and to unfold in the way that is best for your nature. When you find your true place in the world, you will feel at home.

Your birthdate total is 6.

Your Life Path of 6 means that your destiny is to serve and to be responsible for the welfare of others. Be it the home, the family or a work situation, your task is to lead the group and make it unified and productive. You'll be involved with nurturing weaker persons, and you must learn to put the welfare of the group before your own interests. Aspire to be the benign parent figure, a source of guidance and strength. Marriage is ideal for you.

What Motivates You in Life

We now move on to the name that you were given at birth. We first look at the total of the vowels in your full birth name, because this shows the emotional force that drives all that you do. Variously known as the Motivation, Soul Urge, Heart's Desire, or Inner Self number, the vowel total shows what you want out of life. Along with the Impression and Expression numbers that will be discussed below, it is a basic component of your character.

The vowel total in your name is 11/2.

As a Motivation number, the master number 11 indicates the potential for creative genius. You could be a special person possessing great vision and ideals, one who sees beyond ordinary horizons. You tend to be the dreamer who envisions a better world, but who can have difficulties adjusting to the realities of this one. To see your ideas take form, you need to work at developing the practical side of your nature. It helps to have a strong, down-to-earth partner who understands your most special spirit and who can help you to accomplish your goals.

As a master number, 11 is too high and potent a vibration to be used continuously. You will find that it is, in fact, a 2 vibration that motivates you in daily life. At the 2 level, you desire much love and understanding, and are at your best when following another person's ideas or direction within a marriage or other type of partnership. Highly motivated to cooperate with others, you enjoy sharing. Your life centers around a harmonious and peaceful existence, a life that is comfortable, but where the material aspects take second place to human and social values.

Colors, gems and metals have number vibrations, too. When you're feeling the inspiration of your 11 vibration and wish to relax and be at peace with yourself, wear the color silver or the metal platinum. When you're feeling the more human 2 vibration and want to relax, you should wear orange as a color and the moonstone as a gem.

More about Your Emotions and Motivations

The first vowel in your first name augments or mitigates the force of the vowel total, and gives additional information about your emotional nature and underlying motivations in life. It manifests differently depending on whether the vowel sound is long or short. The long vowel gives a more direct and forthright expression, while the expression of the short vowel is more muted.

The first vowel in your name is O.

"O" feels both sympathetic and responsible. You work best with others and prefer not to go it alone. You want to create beautiful and congenial surroundings, and like to support and sustain your loved ones. You are the glue that keeps the family together and the lubricant that smoothes over the rough edges in intimate relationships. You can also be relied upon, such that your friends and family will vouch for your loyalty, stability and steadfastness. You are a refuge for those in need of help, and you have excellent problem-solving skills when the time comes to explore options and plan strategy. You give comfort and lend a sympathetic ear.

The Impression You Give to Others

The total of the consonants in your name is known as the Impression, Personality, Outer Self or Adapted Self number. As its names suggest, this number signifies your persona, the face you show to the world. It shows the vibrations that you project, how others see you, and the kind of impression that you make on those around you. This has its origin in your illusions and fantasies, the world you create for yourself in daydreams. Given enough energy, your fantasies become reality, because you tend to become who you think you are.

Your consonant total is 4.

Having the Impression number 4, you dream of being a strong, down-to-earth sort of person who is the most necessary part of the lives of your family and friends. You see yourself as a dependable soul who can always be counted upon to do what is required. You have planned for everything that could go wrong, and are well prepared for the future. You use your past experience to your advantage, and can handle any obstacle that threatens your domain.

Your Impression color is green and your Impression gem is the emerald. Wear these when you want to be sociable and enjoy the company of others.

The Way You Express Yourself

The total of all the letters in your full name is variously called the Expression, Mission or Life Purpose number. Composed of both the vowels and the consonants, it represents the blending of your inner and outer selves. It thus shows the natural expression of your goals and desires: what you do best, and, by extension, your talents and career potential. It also indicates how you deal with the outside world: your style of solving problems, getting things done, and negotiating with others to attain what you would consider success.

Your name total is 6.

The Expression number 6 gives you a wonderful ability to help people sort out their lives. Armed with a clear sense of right and wrong, you have a solution for any dilemma, and you can be extremely logical and capable when dealing with others' problems. The service-oriented professions are perfect for your natural protective instincts. You also make an excellent parent, but must learn to curb a sometimes overly zealous concern that can involve you where you don't belong.

When you want to be businesslike, try wearing deep blue as your Expression color and the pearl or sapphire as your Expression gem.

Careers Offering the Best Self-Expression

With 6 as your Expression number, consider these kinds of jobs:

The Boss: hotel or restaurant manager, hospital or school administrator, director of youth group, social director, union official, publisher, executive in any business dealing with household products.

On Stage: teacher, clergyman, actor, musician, receptionist, hotel desk clerk.

Service: doctor, nurse, welfare worker, counselor or advisor of any kind, nursery- school helper, governess, civil servant, public service employee, cosmetician, real estate agent, therapist, psychologist, industrial designer.

Just You: costume designer, songwriter, poet, artist, merchant, librarian, economist, chemist, rancher.

Living: chef, restaurant worker, dietitian, florist, pet dealer, fabric seller, window designer, interior decorator, furniture dealer, upholsterer, butler, maid, housekeeper, gardener, parent.

Best Bet: Any job related to the home or to better living.

The Power You Can Achieve in Maturity

The total of the day, month and year of your birth and your full name at birth is known variously as the Power, Maturity, Reality, Real Self, Final Opportunity, Destiny or Goal Power number. A summation of both your name and your birthdate, this number shows how the two principal streams of energy converge to fulfill the purposes of your true self. The Power number is of great significance because it gives a clue as to what your ultimate life purpose might be.

This vibration usually becomes manifest only in the later part of your life. In the first half of life it tends to exist only as a potential. In these earlier years you live through many experiences that temper and define your character and aptitudes. Not until the age of 35 or 40 do most people live through enough life events to find their life purpose and develop it to the point where it becomes their main focus and direction. It is then that fulfillment comes. But this is usually achieved only after many false starts, and years of struggling to gain self-knowledge.

Finding your right place in life is gratifying. If you have not pushed through to this achievement, you can be dissatisfied and unhappy. You may feel at loose ends, without direction, rudderless and ill at ease. But if you have lived your life in accord with the purpose that was meant to be fulfilled in this life, you will find contentment and peace of mind.

What follows is the mature expression of your Power number. Mature development is not about living out someone else's idea of what you should be. It has more to do with honoring your own way of being in the world and moving from your own center. It is about trusting the process of unfoldment that exists within each of us and making this your guiding principle.

The total of your name and birthdate is 3.

A Power number of 3 signifies a life in pursuit of beauty, love, pleasure, and self-expression. Three is the archetype of the Performer. Talented, imaginative and with a genius for the spoken word, threes must have an outlet for their energy and creativity. Expressing themselves is a necessity. They love being in the spotlight and thrive on the attention they receive when they do something noteworthy.

Threes attract situations that demand vibrancy and cordiality. There is a restlessness in their nature and a need to remain occupied and involved. With their positive, optimistic outlook, these are the upbeat people who are sought after because of their joyful, fun-loving style. Good-natured, witty and the life of any party, threes have an eye for what is stylish and “in.” Sociable and friendly, they are bright and breezy, adding color and vigor to the world.

Tarot Key 3: The Empress

To gain further insights about your Power number, it can help to look at the Tarot trump that corresponds to it. In your case, this is the Empress. Great with child, she wields her scepter amidst the lush bounty of a garden. The matriarch, she symbolizes nature's powers of creation. Her domain includes fertility, productivity, creative talent, love, pleasure, happiness and luck.

Your Karmic Lessons

Karma numbers are digits that are completely missing in the letters of your name as given at birth. Most people have one or more Karma numbers. These missing digits serve as a guide to the areas of your life and personality that may be lacking. Such areas will benefit from special attention. If you ignore these blind spots, life can have a painful way of making you notice them. This, however, can eventually spur you forward on the path to wisdom. When you develop yourself in these areas, you will feel much more whole and complete.

The number 2 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 2, you may lack patience and tend to be overly sensitive. You may have experiences where you are forced to learn to get along better with others.

The number 7 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 7, it's possible that you have many fears and anxieties. You will find that the path out of your worry is to develop your intellect and spirituality.

The number 8 is missing in your name.

With an 8 Karma number, you are ambitious, but your judgment may not always be the best. You must learn the value of money, and find out how to use power responsibly.

Your Subconscious Response

Your Subconscious Response is related to how many Karma numbers you have. It shows the way you tend to react in emergencies, when you have no time to consult your intellect.

Your Subconscious Response number is 6.

In rough times, you think first of your family, friends, loved ones and possessions. You are very protective of what is yours, and your responses are generally practical and responsible. The main thing to be aware of is that your sentimental attachments tend to win out, even in situations where a more reasoned approach would be more appropriate.

Your Youth, Maturity and Later Years

So far, we've discussed the number vibrations that stay with you throughout your life. Now we move on to the three major periods of your life as shown by your Life Cycle numbers. These are derived from reducing the digits in your month, day and year of birth. The sum of the month digits describes the first period; the day, the second period; and the year, the third period.

Your First Life Cycle starts at birth and lasts until age 31.

Its number is 3.

During a youth bent on expressing yourself at any cost, you have a tendency to go to extremes. A fun-loving chatterbox, you can be quite a handful unless you have the chance to get out and be with people as much as possible. While formal schooling may make you restless, you will probably thrive when you channel your exuberant energy into the areas of art, drama, music or other forms of self-expression.

During the First Life Cycle, your Life Path number and your First Minor Challenge number are also especially important influences.

Your Second Life Cycle starts at age 31 and lasts until age 58.

Its number is 3.

This middle period of your life is a time for love, friendship, beauty and creativity. It will be happiest revolving around social contacts and your own self-realization and expression through art, music or words. You are also able to sell anything during this time, and would do well to find work that brings you in contact with the public.

During this Life Cycle or the next, your Power number generally begins to manifest.

Your Third Life Cycle starts at age 58 and lasts until death.

Its number is 9.

In later years you can expect many changes in your life situation, and much will be discarded. It's a high-powered last cycle, so learn to pace yourself. Helping others, and cultivating compassion and tolerance, are the best paths to achieving your own happiness. This is a good time to retire, study and learn. You can also further your creative expression by associating with sensitive and artistic friends.

Major Decision or Turning Points in Your Life

Your Turning Points or Pinnacles are also derived from your full birthdate. Each of them defines a period in your life and the special issues that you will face during that period. As their name suggests, Turning Points show points of choice where you need to make decisions. Besides showing the issues at stake, the Turning Point number indicates the choice that will be best for you. Turning Points are like tests that you must pass before proceeding forward. The happiness that you feel in a given Turning Point period depends on the choices you've made and the skills you've developed when faced with the previous Turning Point.

Your First Turning Point starts at birth and lasts until age 34.

Its number is 6.

This youthful Turning Point may call you to take on heavy domestic responsibilities at an early age, such that you feel denied a carefree childhood. If you shoulder these responsibilities with good grace, your reward may be love, security, protection, loyalty and sympathy, both given and received. This Turning Point may also take the form of an early marriage that comes when you are still really too young to settle down.

Your Second Turning Point starts at age 35 and lasts until age 44.

Its number is 3.

The next nine years of your life will test your ability to expand both socially and artistically. It is a time to learn how to be cheerful and friendly, and to develop your ability to create. You may have the opportunity to write, speak publicly, or in other ways to use your mind and be on-stage. Develop your feelings and imagination, and be prepared for prosperity.

Your Third Turning Point starts at age 45 and lasts until age 54.

Its number is 9.

This 9 vibration in the prime of your life can lead you into situations of high emotion and possibly loss. You have the choice of how to react. If you play the victim, you regress and create unhappiness. If you take the long view of loss and are able to accept its necessity and absorb its message, you will realize that you have the power to create your own happiness and life will take on a luminous kind of beauty.

Your Fourth Turning Point starts at age 55 and lasts until death.

Its number is 3.

In the last period of your life, a 3 vibration calls you to gather your friends around you and take up new forms of self-expression. This is a time when you can be thankful for companionship and good cheer, and you can explore new and interesting parts of yourself in writing, painting or other arts or crafts. No matter if your physical body isn't what it used to be. You now have the chance to be utterly vibrant on the mental level.

The Challenges You Will Meet

Everyone is born with special lessons to be learned. Again, your full birth date has inherent in it two Minor Challenges that are usually presented to you earlier in life, and a Major Challenge that is lifelong but which you will probably get to master only later in life.

Challenges may at first present themselves to you as external obstacles to your progress, but they arise from the deficiencies that you are born with, parts that are lacking or underdeveloped. Once you can determine exactly what the weak link is, you can make a conscious effort to strengthen that trait within yourself. This takes willpower and may sometimes feel as if you are going against the grain, but it pays off abundantly in terms of progress and success in life. As you tackle each challenge, your fears are pushed back, your scope enlarges, and you feel more comfortable in the world.

Your First Minor Challenge number is 0.

The Challenge number zero presents no particular challenge, but this does not mean that you should rest on your laurels. It just gives you a choice of what to work on. During your youth you may be tempted to coast through life, but if you choose instead to work on any problems in your character, you can become truly great. It's possible that you might need some practice in making choices and then acting upon them. Generally, however, you are evolved enough to be conscious of whatever shortcomings you have, and to deal with them one at a time. Becoming the kind of person you know you could be is the most difficult of challenges, but you are capable of meeting it.

Your Second Minor Challenge number is 6.

The Second Minor Challenge is about aspects of your character that you need to work on during your Second Life Cycle, from about ages 35 to 62. With a Challenge of 6, you may need to learn to be helpful and responsible without meddling in others' lives and trying to direct what they think and do. You may need to reexamine your own firmly held philosophy of life and grant the validity of others' opinions. When you learn to be more flexible, your relationships will improve and deepen, and all the hard work you have put into them will now seem to have a point.

Your Major Challenge number is 6.

You face your Major Challenge throughout life. Most likely, however, you will find yourself needing to do the most work on it during your Third Life Cycle, after the lesser challenges have been met. With a Challenge number of 6, you may find yourself with great responsibilities in caring for others, and what you must guard against is trying to control them. Make an effort to let others do and believe their own way. Learn to serve others while still allowing them to be free. When you take on great responsibilities and feel unappreciated, make it your first priority to appreciate others.

Your Best Activities for the Year

Your Personal Year number combines your birth month and day with the current year. Personal Year numbers go in a recurring nine-year cycle of development. Each time you go around the cycle you have a chance to do things with added wisdom and skill. Keeping your activities in tune with your current year vibration can make your existence more harmonious and keep your unfoldment upon its intended track.

Some numerologists believe that the new personal year number begins on January 1st of the new year. Others believe that it doesn't change until your birthday on that year, so that up until your birthday you would be using the personal year number for the preceding calendar year.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Mar. 21, 2003 is 11/2

An 11 Personal Year is rare and special. When you are living on this higher vibration, it can be a phenomenal time for inspiration, illumination, creativity and inventiveness. Your ideas may be avant-garde, and your ingenuity may create great beauty. If you follow the intuitions that this vibration brings, you can bring something truly new into the world and may come to the notice of others. Because this is such a high vibration, you may feel some nervous tension during the year. With the great power that you are given now, it is best to flow with your inspiration and intuitions, and to live in the service of others.

At at least some points during the year, you may find yourself "resting" at the lower 2 vibration. This means that you become softer and more receptive, and your focus naturally turns toward partnership and cooperation with others. It is time to seek out a person who will help you to crystallize your dreams. Then you should listen to your partner, be diplomatic and patient, and perfect the art of working as a team in a spirit of respect and harmony. As receptive as you are to another person, you should also be receptive to your own inner knowing.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Mar. 21, 2004 is 12/3

A 3 Personal Year is a time to enjoy the good things that are born out of the self-assertion of the first year in the cycle and the pairing-off and gentle accommodations of the second year. When you plant your seeds well in the 1 Personal Year, your 3 Personal Year is indeed a lucky one, full of potential for growth and advancement. If you put yourself forward, you will be popular and will find those who will help you express yourself and further your ideas. So open up and spread the word. It is no time hide your light under a bushel. Get around, be seen and identified, socialize and network. This is a light-hearted year, a time for exuberant self-expression, a year of fun and rewards in which you can restore your vital energies, explore your creativity, and widen your social contacts before the hard work that lies ahead. The keyword for this year is Enjoy.

Where Do We Go from Here?

If this report has aroused your curiosity and you want to learn more, you may find that exploring your numbers with a deck of Tarot cards is an excellent means for further self- reflection.

Suppose that your birth date were August 19, 1962. The Tarot trump that you would look at for the month would be 8 (Strength, or in some decks, Justice). For the day, you would look at 19 (the Sun), $1+9=10$ (the Wheel of Fortune), and, reducing it even further, $1+0=1$ (the Magician). For the year, you would look at $1+9+6+2=18$ (the Moon), and possibly also $1+8=9$ (the Hermit).

These cards would have something to say about you and how you express these traits as you follow your destiny. Our example birth date would have the Sun in Leo, and trump 19, the Sun, would reinforce the Leo symbolism. You could see that the person is a hard worker (8) with a sunny disposition (19) who is aware of the changes in fortune that life can bring (10). Extremely creative (1), he is also a sensitive, caring person who is tuned in to other people's feelings (18).

It is instructive to buy a Tarot deck, put one of your cards up for a few days, and mull over the symbolism. Remember that there are no truly negative numbers or cards. All participate in the experiences of the soul as it passes through life.

Even trump 15, the Devil, has its place. Everyone has traits that create stumbling blocks or weaknesses. When we work to overcome these we achieve maturity and become more sympathetic to the weaknesses that we see in others. This may be an important focus for a soul with the number 15 prominent.

Also, trump 13, the so-called Death card, is often misunderstood. Remember that in the cycle of seasons the leaves fall and winter comes, but this death is only the precursor of the life that bursts forth in the spring. Life is not all white light and bubbles. There are dark clouds of pain and frustration as well. It's all part of the cycle.

Whatever you find your numbers to be, remember that nobody has it all down pat. We all have plenty to learn. We do have a choice, however. We can, if we wish, fight against our destiny or try to ignore it. Or we can, as the great psychoanalyst C.G. Jung put it, "do willingly what we must do by necessity." Viewing ourselves through the lens of studies such as numerology, the Tarot and astrology, we gain a clearer picture of what our own necessity is, and can then travel more consciously on our life's intended path.
