Your Planetary Day

While the calendar we use in the West dates from the 1500s, the seven days of the week have repeated without interruption for over two millennia. From ancient times, each day of the week has been associated with the Sun, Moon or one of the five visible planets. The weekday on which you were born shows where you stand in this ancient seven-fold cycle, and gives you a special link with the quality of its planetary ruler.

You were born on a Saturday.

This is the day of Saturn, associated with the Greek Chronos, god of time and the scythe-carrying ruler of endings, limitation and boundaries — and therefore of form and solid objects. Saturn rules all that is tangible and material, most especially the mineral kingdom. Saturn's metal is lead; his colors, earth hues and dark shades like black and navy. As a planet, Saturn is the archetype of the elder who embodies rigidity, but also authority and substance. Traditionally, the sin of Saturn was covetousness; his virtue, prudence. In the Kabbalah, Saturn is ruled by Orphiel, angel of care and solicitude. On the Kabbalistic Tree of Life, Saturn is associated with Binah, one of the highest Sephiroth, which signifies the Great Mother, the principle of Form and of Understanding. "Saturday's child must work for a living." — Harper's Weekly, 1887.

About Personal Numerology

The report that follows explores the numerological meaning of your birth date and the full name that was given to you at birth. Its aim is to make you more aware of the tendencies and patterns in your life, so that you can live more consciously, and more fully become the person you were meant to be.

As you read the following pages, remember that they describe pure types for each number. No one, of course, exhibits these character traits in their pure form. Instead, each of us is multi-dimensional, made up of many energy imperatives vying for expression. Some energies harmonize easily, while others are at cross-purposes, causing us to live with contradictions and inner conflicts. Our task is to honor all parts of ourselves and work at bringing our disparate selves into some kind of balance and cooperation. By making us more aware of our inner tendencies, numerology can help us to do this all-important work on ourselves.

In our families and other groups of which we are a part, some behaviors are encouraged and others are discouraged. If who we are wasn't acceptable, we probably contorted ourselves to be what others wanted us to be. If so, we may have become what is called a "turn-type."

For example, we may negatively manifest a number by expressing its opposite, as when the independent number 1 type becomes extremely dependent. Alternatively, the energy is out of balance and expressed extremely, as when the daring number 1 type becomes foolhardy. Or the energy is not developed enough, so that the number 1 is cowardly instead of courageous.

Because we feel that a certain trait is unacceptable and unworthy of us according to the biases of our family, superiors or peers, we may not be able to relate to it in ourselves. We may then spend many years discovering who we really are apart from other people's expectations of us.

Studies such as numerology can help us find our way out of this maze, orienting us toward our true being and the highest manifestation of what we are. They can give us an objective picture of our strengths and weaknesses, show us our place in the larger scheme of things, and help us find the hidden gold in our characters, which we may not have even suspected that we had.

How Numerology Works. Through the use of ancient principles, numerology can derive a world of meaning from your birthdate and birth name. In the course of your life other numbers may become important for you, and you will probably acquire other names, but, like your astrological birth chart, the numerological vibrations at the very beginning of your life set the tone for all that follows.

To find the meaning inherent in your day, month and year of birth, numerologists add the digits in various ways. Most totals turn out to be more than one digit. They therefore reduce them to a single digit by adding the digits together. Whenever a total turns out to be a master number like 11 or 22, however, it is left as-is. These doubled numbers have a special significance, and are given special interpretations.

To find the numerological meaning of your name, numerology assigns a number to each letter of the alphabet. In the Pythagorean system used in this report, A = 1, B = 2, and so on through the first nine letters, and then we repeat the cycle through the rest of the alphabet. We then total the numbers corresponding to the vowels, the numbers corresponding to the consonants, and the numbers corresponding to all the letters to determine specific things about your character.

Each digit from 1 to 9 represents a specific stage in a cycle and has its own set of associations. In general, the odd numbers are considered introverted, in the sense of being primarily focused on inner life. The even numbers tend toward extroversion: that is, being primarily focused on outer activities. The numbers 1, 6, and 22, however, are considered dual in nature.

This said, let us now look first at your basic character and the major themes in your life.

Your Life Path

The total of the day, month and year of your birth is called by numerologists the Life Path, Life Lesson, Birth Path, Birth Force or, sometimes, the Destiny number. This number is chosen by nature rather than by you or your parents, and it reflects the season and historical era of your birth. As its names suggest, it shows your mission in life, your life work and what the universe intends for you. It shows the opportunities you must seize in order to make the most of your potential. Following the life path that has been given to you will enable you to avoid continual discord and frustration, and to unfold in the way that is best for your nature. When you find your true place in the world, you will feel at home.

Your birthdate total is 7.

Your Life Path of 7 means that your destiny lies with the mental and spiritual: the path of study and the search for life's meaning. A certain solitude is necessary for your development. Your natural aloofness and detachment aren't well suited to superficial social relationships or heavy family responsibility. It's important that you specialize in a philosophical or scientific field. Don't be aggressive; instead, let opportunities come to you.

What Motivates You in Life

We now move on to the name that you were given at birth. We first look at the total of the vowels in your full birth name, because this shows the emotional force that drives all that you do. Variously known as the Motivation, Soul Urge, Heart's Desire, or Inner Self number, the vowel total shows what you want out of life. Along with the Impression and Expression numbers that will be discussed below, it is a basic component of your character.

The vowel total in your name is 4.

With 4 as a Motivation number, you need to live an orderly life governed by definite rules. The basic criterion of your life is practicality. Whatever you do must have a definite purpose and payoff. Being an honest, straightforward person, you have no patience with pretense. A product of the old school, you have well-defined loyalties. You value your home and your job, and take pride in your work. Do, however, watch out for a tendency to be narrow-minded.

Colors and gems have number vibrations, too. Your Motivation color is green and your Motivation gem is the emerald. Wear these when you want to relax and restore your energies.

More about Your Emotions and Motivations

The first vowel in your first name augments or mitigates the force of the vowel total, and gives additional information about your emotional nature and underlying motivations in life. It manifests differently depending on whether the vowel sound is long or short. The long vowel gives a more direct and forthright expression, while the expression of the short vowel is more muted.

The first vowel in your name is U.

"U" feels lucky and joyful. One who approaches life with confidence and faith in the outcome, you are the soul of conviviality. Seeking out pleasure and laughter, you are the life of any party. You are also talented and creative, and enjoy expressing yourself through artistic endeavors. You are fond of travel and faraway places, so that you are always open to going off on a jaunt if you can arrange it. Never one to hold a grudge, you don't dwell on past slights and quickly forget any infractions. You are always willing to share your energy, joy, talents and love with those who appreciate your gifts.

The Impression You Give to Others

The total of the consonants in your name is known as the Impression, Personality, Outer Self or Adapted Self number. As its names suggest, this number signifies your persona, the face you show to the world. It shows the vibrations that you project, how others see you, and the kind of impression that you make on those around you. This has its origin in your illusions and fantasies, the world you create for yourself in daydreams. Given enough energy, your fantasies become reality, because you tend to become who you think you are.

Your consonant total is 7.

Having the Impression number 7, you dream of being a sage who is removed from the chaos of the world, and who, from this detached position, is able to meditate on the meaning of the universe. You feel that your perception of the world is all encompassing, and wish to have a well-developed philosophy of life. You would also prefer the rest of the world to be a quiet, calm and peaceful place where the spiritual and the intellectual are widely valued.

Your Impression color is violet, and your Impression gems are the aquamarine and amethyst. Wear these when you want to be sociable and enjoy the company of others.

The Way You Express Yourself

The total of all the letters in your full name is variously called the Expression, Mission or Life Purpose number. Composed of both the vowels and the consonants, it represents the blending of your inner and outer selves. It thus shows the natural expression of your goals and desires: what you do best, and, by extension, your talents and career potential. It also indicates how you deal with the outside world: your style of solving problems, getting things done, and negotiating with others to attain what you would consider success.

Your name total is 11/2.

As an Expression number, the master number 11 can indicate great potential as an enlightened thinker with excellent intuition and vision. You have the ability to create harmony out of conflict, but can have difficulty maintaining your own equilibrium. Your tastes run to the exotic, and you have a mysterious and otherworldly air. Spiritual in nature and high-strung, you are best off when working with others who are more practical than you. The supreme idealist, you need to become more grounded if you are to apply your ideals to the real world.

A master number is too powerful a vibration to be used all the time. Instead, it requires special circumstances and energies. In daily life, you will find that you tend to express yourself on a more human 2 level. Here you can sense the feelings of others, and this enables you to be a natural peacemaker. You bring love to your circle of family and friends, and inspire others to be more patient and tolerant. You dress modestly, as you are not really interested in being the center of attention. You are quite happy to go along with the crowd. Do not allow a tendency toward passivity to cause you to end up with the short end of things.

When you are feeling inspired and operating on your 11 level, you are more likely to be at your serious best when you are wearing the color silver and/or the metal platinum. When you want to be businesslike but are living at your more human 2 level, it's best to wear orange and/or the moonstone.

Careers Offering the Best Self-Expression

Having the master number 11 as your name total gives you great flexibility in your choice of careers. To work up to the demands of your 11 Expression number, consider these kinds of jobs:

The Boss: the leader of a reform movement.

On Stage: clergyman, reformer, religious leader, actor, promoter, musician, political campaigner, teacher, lecturer, auctioneer, any work with the mass media.

Service: diplomat, revenue collector, beauty specialist; lawyer, psychiatrist, psychologist; charity, welfare or social worker; counselor for the elderly, young, or unemployed,.

Just You: inventor, philosopher, poet, biographer, composer, novelist, writer on religious or spiritual matters, critic, explorer, antique dealer, filmmaker, psychic, mystic, searcher for spiritual enlightenment or expanded consciousness.

Best Bet: any job where your special talents can reach the public.

Alternatively, to work at the less demanding level of a 2 Expression number, consider the following careers:

The Boss: club organizer, tour director, producer, publisher.

On Stage: politician, musician, entertainer in a group, teacher.

Service: diplomat, secretary, civil servant, office worker, analyst, collection agent, nurse, psychologist, homemaker, waitperson, mechanic, psychic or medium.

Just You: bookkeeper, librarian, antique dealer, poet, novelist.

Best Bet: any job where you work as a member of a team.

The Power You Can Achieve in Maturity

The total of the day, month and year of your birth and your full name at birth is known variously as the Power, Maturity, Reality, Real Self, Final Opportunity, Destiny or Goal Power number. A summation of both your name and your birthdate, this number shows how the two principal streams of energy converge to fulfill the purposes of your true self. The Power number is of great significance because it gives a clue as to what your ultimate life purpose might be.

This vibration usually becomes manifest only in the later part of your life. In the first half of life it tends to exist only as a potential. In these earlier years you live through many experiences that temper and define your character and aptitudes. Not until the age of 35 or 40 do most people live through enough life events to find their life purpose and develop it to the point where it becomes their main focus and direction. It is then that fulfillment comes. But this is usually achieved only after many false starts, and years of struggling to gain self-knowledge.

Finding your right place in life is gratifying. If you have not pushed through to this achievement, you can be dissatisfied and unhappy. You may feel at loose ends, without direction, rudderless and ill at ease. But if you have lived your life in accord with the purpose that was meant to be fulfilled in this life, you will find contentment and peace of mind.

What follows is the mature expression of your Power number. Mature development is not about living out someone else's idea of what you should be. It has more to do with honoring your own way of being in the world and moving from your own center. It is about trusting the process of unfoldment that exists within each of us and making this your guiding principle.

The total of your name and birthdate is 9.

A Power number of 9 signifies the humanitarian and universalist who knows that we are all brothers and sisters living on one earth. Nine is the archetype of the Reformer who has a broad vision that encompasses everyone, everywhere. Wishing to improve the lot of humankind and of the world, nines serve with willingness and compassion. Possessors of deep and powerful emotions, they work for causes with great energy and enthusiasm because of their vision of what the future can be. They weed the garden of the world in order to prepare the ground for the new growth that they envision. Nines have great personal magnetism through which they are able to influence people. Inspired and inspiring, they teach, counsel and heal. Uncomfortable living a personal life, they are at their best living their lives for the greater good.

Tarot Key 9: The Hermit

To gain further insights about your Power number, it can help to look at the Tarot trump that corresponds to it. In your case, this is the Hermit. In his pilgrimage through a dark landscape, the Hermit holds forth a lantern, searching for the truth. He has traveled far, and on his way he has incorporated into his being all facets of life. He has learned compassion and forgiveness. He now seeks only perfection, which he will not find around him. Instead, he will be led within, to a new level of awareness and a new beginning. The hermit is alone, with attention turned inward, but in his search he illuminates the darkness for others as well as himself.

Your Karmic Lessons

Karma numbers are digits that are completely missing in the letters of your name as given at birth. Most people have one or more Karma numbers. These missing digits serve as a guide to the areas of your life and personality that may be lacking. Such areas will benefit from special attention. If you ignore these blind spots, life can have a painful way of making you notice them. This, however, can eventually spur you forward on the path to wisdom. When you develop yourself in these areas, you will feel much more whole and complete.

The number 4 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 4, you may have to fight a tendency toward laziness and a lack of focus and concentration. You'll strengthen your character when you cultivate discipline and make an effort to work steadily for what you want.

The number 7 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 7, it's possible that you have many fears and anxieties. You will find that the path out of your worry is to develop your intellect and spirituality.

The number 8 is missing in your name.

With an 8 Karma number, you are ambitious, but your judgment may not always be the best. You must learn the value of money, and find out how to use power responsibly.

Your Subconscious Response

Your Subconscious Response is related to how many Karma numbers you have. It shows the way you tend to react in emergencies, when you have no time to consult your intellect.

Your Subconscious Response number is 6.

In rough times, you think first of your family, friends, loved ones and possessions. You are very protective of what is yours, and your responses are generally practical and responsible. The main thing to be aware of is that your sentimental attachments tend to win out, even in situations where a more reasoned approach would be more appropriate.

Your Youth, Maturity and Later Years

So far, we've discussed the number vibrations that stay with you throughout your life. Now we move on to the three major periods of your life as shown by your Life Cycle numbers. These are derived from reducing the digits in your month, day and year of birth. The sum of the month digits describes the first period; the day, the second period; and the year, the third period.

Your First Life Cycle starts at birth and lasts until age 30.

Its number is 1.

This can be a difficult first cycle, because independence is usually not very compatible with youth. When you insist upon doing things your way, you may encounter great conflicts of will with those in charge. Alternatively, at a time of life when one is naturally dependent, circumstances may force you to stand on your own, to follow your own path and not depend on others. You may be given too much freedom for you to handle at this early age. Your task is to develop your own individuality so that you can stand on your own feet gracefully.

During the First Life Cycle, your Life Path number and your First Minor Challenge number are also especially important influences.

Your Second Life Cycle starts at age 30 and lasts until age 57.

Its number is 1.

This is an especially good vibration for the middle cycle, because it allows you to become truly independent and to work on your self-development. This is an ideal period to launch your own business or a new career. There can be strain on partnerships, however, if your need for self-assertion during this time is not understood.

During this Life Cycle or the next, your Power number generally begins to manifest.

Your Third Life Cycle starts at age 57 and lasts until death.

Its number is 5.

No rocking chair for you! You are inclined to finish your days in a whirlwind of activity and variety. You'll need lots of stimulation, so plan on traveling and making contact with as many different kinds of people as possible. The constant changes in your life should keep you young.

Major Decision or Turning Points in Your Life

Your Turning Points or Pinnacles are also derived from your full birthdate. Each of them defines a period in your life and the special issues that you will face during that period. As their name suggests, Turning Points show points of choice where you need to make decisions. Besides showing the issues at stake, the Turning Point number indicates the choice that will be best for you. Turning Points are like tests that you must pass before proceeding forward. The happiness that you feel in a given Turning Point period depends on the choices you've made and the skills you've developed when faced with the previous Turning Point.

Your First Turning Point starts at birth and lasts until age 34.

Its number is 2.

This youthful Turning Point may find you battling with a tendency toward being timid and easily hurt, and you may have a strong attachment to your mother. But it also offers you a chance to learn to work constructively as a team member, and to hone your skills as a tactful diplomat and peacemaker.

Your Second Turning Point starts at age 35 and lasts until age 44.

Its number is 6.

The next nine years of your life will test your ability to take on domestic responsibilities with grace. You must avoid getting hung up on delivering the material necessities to your near and dear, and remember that it is your love and acceptance of who they really are that is the most important give you can give.

Your Third Turning Point starts at age 45 and lasts until age 54.

Its number is 8.

This 8 vibration in the prime of your life gives you the chance for prosperity and power when it is most natural to achieve it. If you've laid the foundations in earlier years, your wealth and fame can be considerable. Your choice is to exercise this power for either your own ego gratification or for the good of others as well as yourself.

Your Fourth Turning Point starts at age 55 and lasts until death.

Its number is 6.

In the last period of your life, a 6 vibration calls you to build a secure and cozy retreat for you and your loved ones. At this time of life it is especially important to guard against becoming set in your routine and rigid in your opinions. If responsibilities are thrust upon you for care of your loved ones, you have the choice of whether or not to accept your duties wholeheartedly. Will this be just another burden to bear, or will you use it for practice in opening your heart and discovering strengths you never knew you had? The choice is yours.

The Challenges You Will Meet

Everyone is born with special lessons to be learned. Again, your full birth date has inherent in it two Minor Challenges that are usually presented to you earlier in life, and a Major Challenge that is lifelong but which you will probably get to master only later in life.

Challenges may at first present themselves to you as external obstacles to your progress, but they arise from the deficiencies that you are born with, parts that are lacking or underdeveloped. Once you can determine exactly what the weak link is, you can make a conscious effort to strengthen that trait within yourself. This takes willpower and may sometimes feel as if you are going against the grain, but it pays off abundantly in terms of progress and success in life. As you tackle each challenge, your fears are pushed back, your scope enlarges, and you feel more comfortable in the world.

Your First Minor Challenge number is 0.

The Challenge number zero presents no particular challenge, but this does not mean that you should rest on your laurels. It just gives you a choice of what to work on. During your youth you may be tempted to coast through life, but if you choose instead to work on any problems in your character, you can become truly great. It's possible that you might need some practice in making choices and then acting upon them. Generally, however, you are evolved enough to be conscious of whatever shortcomings you have, and to deal with them one at a time. Becoming the kind of person you know you could be is the most difficult of challenges, but you are capable of meeting it.

Your Second Minor Challenge number is 4.

The Second Minor Challenge is about aspects of your character that you need to work on during your Second Life Cycle, from about ages 35 to 62. With a Challenge of 4 in mid- life, you may find become a workaholic to a degree where it squeezes out all the joy of living. If so, you need to put work into its proper place and realize some proportion in your life. Life your eyes up, schedule time for fun, and remember that the real point is life itself, with all its juice and joy. If, on the other hand, you have not yet learned to apply yourself, now is the time to buckle down and do so. Whatever the job at hand is, get to it at once, be attentive to the details without getting hung up on them, and finish quickly so that you can then relax and enjoy.

Your Major Challenge number is 4.

You face your Major Challenge throughout life. Most likely, however, you will find yourself needing to do the most work on it during your Third Life Cycle, after the lesser challenges have been met. With a Challenge number of 4, you may run into difficulties either through getting lost in details or through not paying enough attention to them. The challenge here is to learn to work in a balanced manner, pacing yourself and fitting the job you do to the requirements of the situation.

Your Best Activities for the Year

Your Personal Year number combines your birth month and day with the current year. Personal Year numbers go in a recurring nine-year cycle of development. Each time you go around the cycle you have a chance to do things with added wisdom and skill. Keeping your activities in tune with your current year vibration can make your existence more harmonious and keep your unfoldment upon its intended track.

Some numerologists believe that the new personal year number begins on January 1st of the new year. Others believe that it doesn't change until your birthday on that year, so that up until your birthday you would be using the personal year number for the preceding calendar year.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2002 is 6

In this 6 Personal Year, relationships will be a major focus and you may need to make some adjustments in this area of your life. Money and jobs are not likely to be a problem, and your energies now best directed toward home, family and friends. It is time really to take responsibility for those about whom you care. If your responsibilities toward others become heavy this year, remember that meeting them wholeheartedly can add immense emotional richness to your life. So, for now, put career demands and a desire for self-assertion and self-expression on the back burner. Concentrate on creating a loving home life and possibly also on making your physical home more comfortable and pleasing. In all ways, it is time to seek harmony and balance in your relationships and personal life. The keyword to remember this year is Harmonize.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2003 is 7

In a 7 Personal Year the tide once more turns inward. More than at any other time during the nine-year cycle, you will require time alone. This is especially true if you are an introverted type to begin with, but even extroverts will be somewhat less enthusiastic about mixing with others. The energy this year is just not right for gadabouting or for dealing with practical matters in the outside world. You'll want to retreat from the hubbub of life in the fast lane and perhaps study or meditate. This year is a time of pause when you go into the deepest parts of yourself and integrate all that has come before. If you feel depressed, it may be because your energy has gone below the surface, where it is busily gestating something new. Don't despair, and don't feel you should be cheerful and outgoing right now. Respect this part of the cycle. Ride it out fully, and it will pass, leaving you with renewed inner riches. Let your inward journey take you to where you are now supposed to be in the unfoldment process of your life. This is a year for re-discovering your spiritual resources. Its watchwords are Retreat and Reflect.

- 1: Best day to start something. Good for promoting yourself.
- 2: Try especially hard to be agreeable and to get along with others.
- 3: Be cheerful; be creative; buy something nice. Spoil yourself!
- 4: Do something constructive. Make a schedule and stick to it.
- 5: Get out there and do something you've been dreaming of doing.
- 6: A cozy kind of day best spent with the family and at home.
- 7: Spend time alone, and read a book. A day to sort out problems.
- 8: A day for business and finance. Keep cool and in control.
- 9: Finish up old business, and don't start anything new.
- 11: Forget practicalities. A great day to communicate your ideas.
- 22: A truly special day! Now you can go for the results for which you have long planned and schemed.
- 33: A blessed day for feeling in touch with that which is higher and greater than yourself.
- 44: Seize this day to do something that has lasting value for the world.

Where Do We Go from Here?

If this report has aroused your curiosity and you want to learn more, you may find that exploring your numbers with a deck of Tarot cards is an excellent means for further self-reflection.

Suppose that your birth date were August 19, 1962. The Tarot trump that you would look at for the month would be 8 (Strength, or in some decks, Justice). For the day, you would look at 19 (the Sun), $1+9=10$ (the Wheel of Fortune), and, reducing it even further, $1+0=1$ (the Magician). For the year, you would look at $1+9+6+2=18$ (the Moon), and possibly also $1+8=9$ (the Hermit).

These cards would have something to say about you and how you express these traits as you follow your destiny. Our example birth date would have the Sun in Leo, and trump 19, the Sun, would reinforce the Leo symbolism. You could see that the person is a hard worker (8) with a sunny disposition (19) who is aware of the changes in fortune that life can bring (10). Extremely creative (1), he is also a sensitive, caring person who is tuned in to other people's feelings (18).

It is instructive to buy a Tarot deck, put one of your cards up for a few days, and mull over the symbolism. Remember that there are no truly negative numbers or cards. All participate in the experiences of the soul as it passes through life.

Even trump 15, the Devil, has its place. Everyone has traits that create stumbling blocks or weaknesses. When we work to overcome these we achieve maturity and become more sympathetic to the weaknesses that we see in others. This may be an important focus for a soul with the number 15 prominent.

Also, trump 13, the so-called Death card, is often misunderstood. Remember that in the cycle of seasons the leaves fall and winter comes, but this death is only the precursor of the life that bursts forth in the spring. Life is not all white light and bubbles. There are dark clouds of pain and frustration as well. It's all part of the cycle.

Whatever you find your numbers to be, remember that nobody has it all down pat. We all have plenty to learn. We do have a choice, however. We can, if we wish, fight against our destiny or try to ignore it. Or we can, as the great psychoanalyst C.G. Jung put it, "do willingly what we must do by necessity." Viewing ourselves through the lens of studies such as numerology, the Tarot and astrology, we gain a clearer picture of what our own necessity is, and can then travel more consciously on our life's intended path.
