Your Planetary Day

While the calendar we use in the West dates from the 1500s, the seven days of the week have repeated without interruption for over two millennia. From ancient times, each day of the week has been associated with the Sun, Moon or one of the five visible planets. The weekday on which you were born shows where you stand in this ancient seven-fold cycle, and gives you a special link with the quality of its planetary ruler.

You were born on a Wednesday.

This is the day of Mercury, well known as the messenger of the gods and ruler of intelligence, communication, transportation and commerce. Mercury also rules mediumship, magic and the mantic arts, and was the guider of souls in the underworld. In English, Wednesday is named after the great Norse god Woden, who much like Mercury was associated with writing, wisdom, poetry, and also with prophecy, magic, shape-shifting and disguise. Dual in nature, Mercury rules trickery as well as truth, and is as hard to pin down as his metal, quicksilver. The German name for Wednesday means simply mid-week, and of the seven directions of space, Mercury signifies the middle. In the Kabbalah, Mercury is associated with Raphael, the civilizing angel. “Wednesday’s child is full of woe.” — Harper’s Weekly, 1887.

About Personal Numerology

The report that follows explores the numerological meaning of your birth date and the full name that was given to you at birth. Its aim is to make you more aware of the tendencies and patterns in your life, so that you can live more consciously, and more fully become the person you were meant to be.

As you read the following pages, remember that they describe pure types for each number. No one, of course, exhibits these character traits in their pure form. Instead, each of us is multi-dimensional, made up of many energy imperatives vying for expression. Some energies harmonize easily, while others are at cross-purposes, causing us to live with contradictions and inner conflicts. Our task is to honor all parts of ourselves and work at bringing our disparate selves into some kind of balance and cooperation. By making us more aware of our inner tendencies, numerology can help us to do this all-important work on ourselves.

In our families and other groups of which we are a part, some behaviors are encouraged and others are discouraged. If who we are wasn’t acceptable, we probably contorted ourselves to be what others wanted us to be. If so, we may have become what is called a “turn-type.”

For example, we may negatively manifest a number by expressing its opposite, as when the independent number 1 type becomes extremely dependent. Alternatively, the energy is out of balance and expressed extremely, as when the daring number 1 type becomes foolhardy. Or the energy is not developed enough, so that the number 1 is cowardly instead of courageous.

Because we feel that a certain trait is unacceptable and unworthy of us according to the biases of our family, superiors or peers, we may not be able to relate to it in ourselves. We may then spend many years discovering who we really are apart from other people's expectations of us.

Studies such as numerology can help us find our way out of this maze, orienting us toward our true being and the highest manifestation of what we are. They can give us an objective picture of our strengths and weaknesses, show us our place in the larger scheme of things, and help us find the hidden gold in our characters, which we may not have even suspected that we had.

How Numerology Works. Through the use of ancient principles, numerology can derive a world of meaning from your birthdate and birth name. In the course of your life other numbers may become important for you, and you will probably acquire other names, but, like your astrological birth chart, the numerological vibrations at the very beginning of your life set the tone for all that follows.

To find the meaning inherent in your day, month and year of birth, numerologists add the digits in various ways. Most totals turn out to be more than one digit. They therefore reduce them to a single digit by adding the digits together. Whenever a total turns out to be a master number like 11 or 22, however, it is left as-is. These doubled numbers have a special significance, and are given special interpretations.

To find the numerological meaning of your name, numerology assigns a number to each letter of the alphabet. In the Pythagorean system used in this report, A = 1, B = 2, and so on through the first nine letters, and then we repeat the cycle through the rest of the alphabet. We then total the numbers corresponding to the vowels, the numbers corresponding to the consonants, and the numbers corresponding to all the letters to determine specific things about your character.

Each digit from 1 to 9 represents a specific stage in a cycle and has its own set of associations. In general, the odd numbers are considered introverted, in the sense of being primarily focused on inner life. The even numbers tend toward extroversion: that is, being primarily focused on outer activities. The numbers 1, 6, and 22, however, are considered dual in nature.

This said, let us now look first at your basic character and the major themes in your life.

Your Life Path

The total of the day, month and year of your birth is called by numerologists the Life Path, Life Lesson, Birth Path, Birth Force or, sometimes, the Destiny number. This number is chosen by nature rather than by you or your parents, and it reflects the season and historical era of your birth. As its names suggest, it shows your mission in life, your life work and what the universe intends for you. It shows the opportunities you must seize in order to make the most of your potential. Following the life path that has been given to you will enable you to avoid continual discord and frustration, and to unfold in the way that is best for your nature. When you find your true place in the world, you will feel at home.

Your birthdate total is 33/6.

Your Life Path of 33 is a master number. This means that your destiny is a truly special one. Those with this number prominent have a deep faith in life and a strong spiritual thirst for relationship with the divine within, and this strengthens them for heavy responsibility and service. The impulse to understand, to forgive, and to serve others drives these people to sacrifice for a person or a cause. Such service must never be undertaken out of a sense of duty, but should spring from a sincere compassion and from happiness in fulfilling one's destiny. This is known as the number of the martyr, and its danger lies in wasting one's energies on lost causes. When you are living a 33 vibration positively, you will help only those who are ready for help, and will have an effect that empowers rather than weakens.

Before you can fully live up to the full potential of the master number 33, you will probably need to practice living on its lower, reduced vibration of 6. Also, as with all master numbers, it may be too exhausting to maintain the higher demand of the 33 consistently, and so you may often drop back to the 6 level to rest.

At the 6 vibration you help others on a more personal, less demanding level, possibly in marriage and parenthood. You nurture weaker persons, and take responsibility for the welfare of others in family or work situations. You may find yourself leading a group to , make it unified and productive, and you will need to learn to put the welfare of the group before your own interests. As a benign parent-like figure, you become a source of guidance and strength. All this fits you eventually to live up to the higher vibration of your 33 Life Path.

What Motivates You in Life

We now move on to the name that you were given at birth. We first look at the total of the vowels in your full birth name, because this shows the emotional force that drives all that you do. Variously known as the Motivation, Soul Urge, Heart's Desire, or Inner Self number, the vowel total shows what you want out of life. Along with the Impression and Expression numbers that will be discussed below, it is a basic component of your character.

The vowel total in your name is 8.

With 8 as a Motivation number, you love competition, have an aptitude for business, and feel at home in the world of commerce. Basically motivated by material rewards, you're responsible and fair in all money matters. You have good organizational ability, and take pride in your punctuality. Efficient and result-oriented, you like to be in control and regret it when you respond with your emotions. You also have great stamina, both physical and mental.

Colors and gems have number vibrations, too. Your Motivation color is rose and your Motivation gem is the diamond. Wear these when you want to relax and restore your energies.

More about Your Emotions and Motivations

The first vowel in your first name augments or mitigates the force of the vowel total, and gives additional information about your emotional nature and underlying motivations in life. It manifests differently depending on whether the vowel sound is long or short. The long vowel gives a more direct and forthright expression, while the expression of the short vowel is more muted.

The first vowel in your name is I.

'I' feels compassion and the desire to serve. You go the extra mile to work for the good of all. If you feel it will improve the lot of your fellow humans and make the world a better place, you may sometimes even work against your own best interests. You have a passionate nature and can go to great lengths for the causes you embrace. Determined and relentless in the pursuit of a cause that excites you, you may become known for your philanthropy and generosity. Because you are a source of insight and encouragement, others eagerly seek your healing energy and counsel. Inspired, you are also an inspiration to others.

The Impression You Give to Others

The total of the consonants in your name is known as the Impression, Personality, Outer Self or Adapted Self number. As its names suggest, this number signifies your persona, the face you show to the world. It shows the vibrations that you project, how others see you, and the kind of impression that you make on those around you. This has its origin in your illusions and fantasies, the world you create for yourself in daydreams. Given enough energy, your fantasies become reality, because you tend to become who you think you are.

Your consonant total is 4.

Having the Impression number 4, you dream of being a strong, down-to-earth sort of person who is the most necessary part of the lives of your family and friends. You see yourself as a dependable soul who can always be counted upon to do what is required. You have planned for everything that could go wrong, and are well prepared for the future. You use your past experience to your advantage, and can handle any obstacle that threatens your domain.

Your Impression color is green and your Impression gem is the emerald. Wear these when you want to be sociable and enjoy the company of others.

The Way You Express Yourself

The total of all the letters in your full name is variously called the Expression, Mission or Life Purpose number. Composed of both the vowels and the consonants, it represents the blending of your inner and outer selves. It thus shows the natural expression of your goals and desires: what you do best, and, by extension, your talents and career potential. It also indicates how you deal with the outside world: your style of solving problems, getting things done, and negotiating with others to attain what you would consider success.

Your name total is 3.

The Expression number 3 signifies that you tend to be an outgoing, optimistic and ambitious person. Attractive and charming, you will make your way in life through social contacts. Socially adept and facile with words, you are a natural performer who can handle all kinds of people and situations. You also have an artistic flair. Your strong points are versatility; and the fact that you seldom let life get you down. You need, however, to watch out for a tendency to embellish the truth for effect.

When you want to be businesslike, try wearing try wearing yellow as your Expression color and the topaz as your Expression gem.

Careers Offering the Best Self-Expression

With 3 as your Expression number, consider these kinds of jobs:

The Boss: social director, organizer of charity drives or society functions.

On Stage: model, hostess, clergyman, TV or radio journalist, teacher, entertainer, lecturer, salesperson, promoter.

Service: beautician, interior decorator, cosmetician, druggist, social worker, doctor, lawyer, electrician.

Just You: fashion designer, artist, dressmaker, photographer, artisan, chemist, worker with animals.

Words: humorist, cartoonist, literary critic, novelist, linguist; worker in advertising, newspapers or magazines.

Best Bet: any job in communications or entertainment.

The Power You Can Achieve in Maturity

The total of the day, month and year of your birth and your full name at birth is known variously as the Power, Maturity, Reality, Real Self, Final Opportunity, Destiny or Goal Power number. A summation of both your name and your birthdate, this number shows how the two principal streams of energy converge to fulfill the purposes of your true self. The Power number is of great significance because it gives a clue as to what your ultimate life purpose might be.

This vibration usually becomes manifest only in the later part of your life. In the first half of life it tends to exist only as a potential. In these earlier years you live through many experiences that temper and define your character and aptitudes. Not until the age of 35 or 40 do most people live through enough life events to find their life purpose and develop it to the point where it becomes their main focus and direction. It is then that fulfillment comes. But this is usually achieved only after many false starts, and years of struggling to gain self-knowledge.

Finding your right place in life is gratifying. If you have not pushed through to this achievement, you can be dissatisfied and unhappy. You may feel at loose ends, without direction, rudderless and ill at ease. But if you have lived your life in accord with the purpose that was meant to be fulfilled in this life, you will find contentment and peace of mind.

What follows is the mature expression of your Power number. Mature development is not about living out someone else's idea of what you should be. It has more to do with honoring your own way of being in the world and moving from your own center. It is about trusting the process of unfoldment that exists within each of us and making this your guiding principle.

The total of your name and birthdate is 9.

A Power number of 9 signifies the humanitarian and universalist who knows that we are all brothers and sisters living on one earth. Nine is the archetype of the Reformer who has a broad vision that encompasses everyone, everywhere. Wishing to improve the lot of humankind and of the world, nines serve with willingness and compassion. Possessors of deep and powerful emotions, they work for causes with great energy and enthusiasm because of their vision of what the future can be. They weed the garden of the world in order to prepare the ground for the new growth that they envision. Nines have great personal magnetism through which they are able to influence people. Inspired and inspiring, they teach, counsel and heal. Uncomfortable living a personal life, they are at their best living their lives for the greater good.

Tarot Key 9: The Hermit

To gain further insights about your Power number, it can help to look at the Tarot trump that corresponds to it. In your case, this is the Hermit. In his pilgrimage through a dark landscape, the Hermit holds forth a lantern, searching for the truth. He has traveled far, and on his way he has incorporated into his being all facets of life. He has learned compassion and forgiveness. He now seeks only perfection, which he will not find around him. Instead, he will be led within, to a new level of awareness and a new beginning. The hermit is alone, with attention turned inward, but in his search he illuminates the darkness for others as well as himself.

Your Karmic Lessons

Karma numbers are digits that are completely missing in the letters of your name as given at birth. Most people have one or more Karma numbers. These missing digits serve as a guide to the areas of your life and personality that may be lacking. Such areas will benefit from special attention. If you ignore these blind spots, life can have a painful way of making you notice them. This, however, can eventually spur you forward on the path to wisdom. When you develop yourself in these areas, you will feel much more whole and complete.

The number 3 is missing in your name.

With a 3 Karma number, you may lack self-confidence and have problems expressing yourself. Contact with the public can help you to overcome your inhibitions.

The number 4 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 4, you may have to fight a tendency toward laziness and a lack of focus and concentration. You'll strengthen your character when you cultivate discipline and make an effort to work steadily for what you want.

The number 6 is missing in your name.

Having 6 as a Karma number points to a need to work on your relationships. You may find others depending on you. This can force you to learn the value of family and other close ties.

The number 8 is missing in your name.

With an 8 Karma number, you are ambitious, but your judgment may not always be the best. You must learn the value of money, and find out how to use power responsibly.

Your Subconscious Response

Your Subconscious Response is related to how many Karma numbers you have. It shows the way you tend to react in emergencies, when you have no time to consult your intellect.

Your Subconscious Response number is 5.

When the going gets rough, you tend to become very nervous and talk a lot. Though you may have trouble settling on one practical solution, you can be a useful source of ideas about what should be done.

Your Youth, Maturity and Later Years

So far, we've discussed the number vibrations that stay with you throughout your life. Now we move on to the three major periods of your life as shown by your Life Cycle numbers. These are derived from reducing the digits in your month, day and year of birth. The sum of the month digits describes the first period; the day, the second period; and the year, the third period.

Your First Life Cycle starts at birth and lasts until age 4.

Its number is 3.

During a youth bent on expressing yourself at any cost, you have a tendency to go to extremes. A fun-loving chatterbox, you can be quite a handful unless you have the chance to get out and be with people as much as possible. While formal schooling may make you restless, you will probably thrive when you channel your exuberant energy into the areas of art, drama, music or other forms of self-expression.

During the First Life Cycle, your Life Path number and your First Minor Challenge number are also especially important influences.

Your Second Life Cycle starts at age 4 and lasts until age 31.

Its number is 2.

In mid-life your success will arise through cooperation. You should look for work that involves helping people to get along with each other. Put yourself second, attend to details, and be sensitive to the needs of others. This is also an excellent cycle for improving your own partnerships and marriage.

During this Life Cycle or the next, your Power number generally begins to manifest.

Your Third Life Cycle starts at age 31 and lasts until death.

Its number is 1.

Your later years can be dynamic and fertile with accomplishment if you're able to remain self-reliant. You'll have to depend on yourself and choose your own path, but you'll never be bored. Focus on new ideas or on giving new life to old ones. There should be action enough to keep you going to the very end.

Major Decision or Turning Points in Your Life

Your Turning Points or Pinnacles are also derived from your full birthdate. Each of them defines a period in your life and the special issues that you will face during that period. As their name suggests, Turning Points show points of choice where you need to make decisions. Besides showing the issues at stake, the Turning Point number indicates the choice that will be best for you. Turning Points are like tests that you must pass before proceeding forward. The happiness that you feel in a given Turning Point period depends on the choices you've made and the skills you've developed when faced with the previous Turning Point.

Your First Turning Point starts at birth and lasts until age 34.

Its number is 5.

This youthful Turning Point offers a chance for travel, new ideas, and even a new lifestyle. Embrace these fearlessly, and you will develop your character for the next phase. You have a way with people and can now make the most of it. During this period you may feel unstable and rootless, and may need to wait for a more suitable period to build a satisfyingly firm foundation for your adult life.

Your Second Turning Point starts at age 35 and lasts until age 44.

Its number is 3.

The next nine years of your life will test your ability to expand both socially and artistically. It is a time to learn how to be cheerful and friendly, and to develop your ability to create. You may have the opportunity to write, speak publicly, or in other ways to use your mind and be on-stage. Develop your feelings and imagination, and be prepared for prosperity.

Your Third Turning Point starts at age 45 and lasts until age 54.

Its number is 8.

This 8 vibration in the prime of your life gives you the chance for prosperity and power when it is most natural to achieve it. If you've laid the foundations in earlier years, your wealth and fame can be considerable. Your choice is to exercise this power for either your own ego gratification or for the good of others as well as yourself.

Your Fourth Turning Point starts at age 55 and lasts until death.

Its number is 4.

In the last period of your life, a 4 vibration calls you make practical choices, and you will get a good feeling from putting your affairs in order. You may need to live on a tight budget, but if you approach it with the correct attitude, this need not feel like a great burden. You may be one of those for whom thrift is a pleasure and an entertainment. A steady routine of work can keep you on track, and if you so choose, you can derive deep satisfaction by leaving a legacy of tangible achievement.

The Challenges You Will Meet

Everyone is born with special lessons to be learned. Again, your full birth date has inherent in it two Minor Challenges that are usually presented to you earlier in life, and a Major Challenge that is lifelong but which you will probably get to master only later in life.

Challenges may at first present themselves to you as external obstacles to your progress, but they arise from the deficiencies that you are born with, parts that are lacking or underdeveloped. Once you can determine exactly what the weak link is, you can make a conscious effort to strengthen that trait within yourself. This takes willpower and may sometimes feel as if you are going against the grain, but it pays off abundantly in terms of progress and success in life. As you tackle each challenge, your fears are pushed back, your scope enlarges, and you feel more comfortable in the world.

Your First Minor Challenge number is 1.

The First Minor Challenge usually crops up early in life. When its number is 1, this usually means that you must fight to overcome a sense of being held down by those with stronger wills. To meet this challenge, you must learn to assert your independence and discover your own individuality, while at the same time respecting the rights of others. It's important not to get caught up in merely pleasing others, and in a dignified way to assert your right to have your needs met and to determine the course of your own life. When you grow older, you'll then be able to let others have their rights, too.

Your Second Minor Challenge number is 1.

When the number 1 is your Second Minor Challenge, you will probably need to do most of your work on this area in mid-life, during your Second Life Cycle from about ages 35 to 62. This is a time to work on your will power and on asserting yourself as an individual. It is a time to overcome dependency and stand on your own feet so that you don't believe you need to please others in order to survive. Pick a goal, and in working toward it you will realize your own powers. Then you will have earned the respect of others and yourself.

Your Major Challenge number is 0.

You face your Major Challenge throughout life. Most likely, however, you will find yourself needing to do the most work on it during your Third Life Cycle, after the lesser challenges have been met. A zero Challenge number presents no particular challenge, and so it gives you a choice of what to work on. You may be tempted to coast through life, but if you choose instead to work on any problems in your character, you can become truly great. You are evolved enough to be conscious of whatever shortcomings you have, and to deal with them one at a time. Becoming the kind of person you know you could be is the most difficult of challenges, but you are eminently capable of meeting it.

Your Best Activities for the Year

Your Personal Year number combines your birth month and day with the current year. Personal Year numbers go in a recurring nine-year cycle of development. Each time you go around the cycle you have a chance to do things with added wisdom and skill. Keeping your activities in tune with your current year vibration can make your existence more harmonious and keep your unfoldment upon its intended track.

Some numerologists believe that the new personal year number begins on January 1st of the new year. Others believe that it doesn't change until your birthday on that year, so that up until your birthday you would be using the personal year number for the preceding calendar year.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2002 is 9

In a 9 Personal Year, the cycle of Personal Years comes to an end. This is a year to harvest the remaining crop before it rots, time to tie up all the old cycle's loose ends. So clear the decks and weed the garden. Whatever you have put off, you need to finish it now. Next year you'll be starting a new cycle, and you don't want the detritus of the old cycle to impede your progress. Like the 5 Personal Year, this is a pivotal time, one that is appropriate for change. Now you can reinvent yourself, lose weight, toss out old stuff, and get rid of old habits. As people and things fall away because they are no longer appropriate, you may experience this as a year of loss. Say a graceful good-bye, and open yourself to the new cycle to come.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2003 is 10/1

A 1 Personal Year begins a new cycle. This is a time to make a fresh start, a time to plant seeds that will mature in the next nine years. In this opening phase of a new cycle you should make a special effort to maintain your independence and individuality, make your own decisions, and rely on your own abilities and instincts. Stay at the forefront, and do not take a back seat to anyone. This is the year to focus on your ideas, your needs, and the fulfillment of your dreams. Once you get your own thing going, you will be better able to relate to another person in the next stage of the cycle. So for now, exercise your own creative powers as fully as possible, and use all that fresh new energy to plunge ahead into new areas that you can develop more fully later. In all things this, year, Initiate.

- 1: Best day to start something. Good for promoting yourself.
- 2: Try especially hard to be agreeable and to get along with others.
- 3: Be cheerful; be creative; buy something nice. Spoil yourself!
- 4: Do something constructive. Make a schedule and stick to it.
- 5: Get out there and do something you've been dreaming of doing.
- 6: A cozy kind of day best spent with the family and at home.
- 7: Spend time alone, and read a book. A day to sort out problems.
- 8: A day for business and finance. Keep cool and in control.
- 9: Finish up old business, and don't start anything new.
- 11: Forget practicalities. A great day to communicate your ideas.
- 22: A truly special day! Now you can go for the results for which you have long planned and schemed.
- 33: A blessed day for feeling in touch with that which is higher and greater than yourself.
- 44: Seize this day to do something that has lasting value for the world.

Where Do We Go from Here?

If this report has aroused your curiosity and you want to learn more, you may find that exploring your numbers with a deck of Tarot cards is an excellent means for further self-reflection.

Suppose that your birth date were August 19, 1962. The Tarot trump that you would look at for the month would be 8 (Strength, or in some decks, Justice). For the day, you would look at 19 (the Sun), $1+9=10$ (the Wheel of Fortune), and, reducing it even further, $1+0=1$ (the Magician). For the year, you would look at $1+9+6+2=18$ (the Moon), and possibly also $1+8=9$ (the Hermit).

These cards would have something to say about you and how you express these traits as you follow your destiny. Our example birth date would have the Sun in Leo, and trump 19, the Sun, would reinforce the Leo symbolism. You could see that the person is a hard worker (8) with a sunny disposition (19) who is aware of the changes in fortune that life can bring (10). Extremely creative (1), he is also a sensitive, caring person who is tuned in to other people's feelings (18).

It is instructive to buy a Tarot deck, put one of your cards up for a few days, and mull over the symbolism. Remember that there are no truly negative numbers or cards. All participate in the experiences of the soul as it passes through life.

Even trump 15, the Devil, has its place. Everyone has traits that create stumbling blocks or weaknesses. When we work to overcome these we achieve maturity and become more sympathetic to the weaknesses that we see in others. This may be an important focus for a soul with the number 15 prominent.

Also, trump 13, the so-called Death card, is often misunderstood. Remember that in the cycle of seasons the leaves fall and winter comes, but this death is only the precursor of the life that bursts forth in the spring. Life is not all white light and bubbles. There are dark clouds of pain and frustration as well. It's all part of the cycle.

Whatever you find your numbers to be, remember that nobody has it all down pat. We all have plenty to learn. We do have a choice, however. We can, if we wish, fight against our destiny or try to ignore it. Or we can, as the great psychoanalyst C.G. Jung put it, "do willingly what we must do by necessity." Viewing ourselves through the lens of studies such as numerology, the Tarot and astrology, we gain a clearer picture of what our own necessity is, and can then travel more consciously on our life's intended path.
