Your Planetary Day

While the calendar we use in the West dates from the 1500s, the seven days of the week have repeated without interruption for over two millennia. From ancient times, each day of the week has been associated with the Sun, Moon or one of the five visible planets. The weekday on which you were born shows where you stand in this ancient seven-fold cycle, and gives you a special link with the quality of its planetary ruler.

You were born on a Friday.

In English, Friday is named after the Norse goddess Frigga, who protected marriage and made it fruitful. Like Venus, who gives her name to Friday in the Romance languages, Frigga was fond of adornment and carried on dalliances with various gods. Associated with love, beauty, art and creativity, Venus rules green, copper, and the plant kingdom with all its lushness and fertility. Traditionally, the sin of Venus was lust; her virtue, love. In the Kabbalah, Venus is ruled by Anael, angel of love. “Friday’s child is loving and giving.” — Harper’s Weekly, 1887.

About Personal Numerology

The report that follows explores the numerological meaning of your birth date and the full name that was given to you at birth. Its aim is to make you more aware of the tendencies and patterns in your life, so that you can live more consciously, and more fully become the person you were meant to be.

As you read the following pages, remember that they describe pure types for each number. No one, of course, exhibits these character traits in their pure form. Instead, each of us is multi-dimensional, made up of many energy imperatives vying for expression. Some energies harmonize easily, while others are at cross-purposes, causing us to live with contradictions and inner conflicts. Our task is to honor all parts of ourselves and work at bringing our disparate selves into some kind of balance and cooperation. By making us more aware of our inner tendencies, numerology can help us to do this all-important work on ourselves.

In our families and other groups of which we are a part, some behaviors are encouraged and others are discouraged. If what we are wasn’t acceptable, we probably contorted ourselves to be what others wanted us to be. If so, we may have become what is called a “turn-type.”

For example, we may negatively manifest a number by expressing its opposite, as when the independent number 1 type becomes extremely dependent. Alternatively, the energy is out of balance and expressed extremely, as when the daring number 1 type becomes foolhardy. Or the energy is not developed enough, so that the number 1 is cowardly instead of courageous.

Because we feel that a certain trait is unacceptable and unworthy of us according to the biases of our family, superiors or peers, we may not be able to relate to it in ourselves. We may then spend many years discovering who we really are apart from other people’s expectations of us.

Studies such as numerology can help us find our way out of this maze, orienting us toward our true being and the highest manifestation of what we are. They can give us an objective picture of our strengths and weaknesses, show us our place in the larger scheme of things, and help us find the hidden gold in our characters, which we may not have even suspected that we had.

How Numerology Works. Through the use of ancient principles, numerology can derive a world of meaning from your birthdate and birth name. In the course of your life other numbers may become important for you, and you will probably acquire other names, but, like your astrological birth chart, the numerological vibrations at the very beginning of your life set the tone for all that follows.

To find the meaning inherent in your day, month and year of birth, numerologists add the digits in various ways. Most totals turn out to be more than one digit. They therefore reduce them to a single digit by adding the digits together. Whenever a total turns out to be a master number like 11 or 22, however, it is left as-is. These doubled numbers have a special significance, and are given special interpretations.

To find the numerological meaning of your name, numerology assigns a number to each letter of the alphabet. In the Pythagorean system used in this report, A = 1, B = 2, and so on through the first nine letters, and then we repeat the cycle through the rest of the alphabet. We then total the numbers corresponding to the vowels, the numbers corresponding to the consonants, and the numbers corresponding to all the letters to determine specific things about your character.

Each digit from 1 to 9 represents a specific stage in a cycle and has its own set of associations. In general, the odd numbers are considered introverted, in the sense of being primarily focused on inner life. The even numbers tend toward extroversion: that is, being primarily focused on outer activities. The numbers 1, 6, and 22, however, are considered dual in nature.

This said, let us now look first at your basic character and the major themes in your life.

Your Life Path

The total of the day, month and year of your birth is called by numerologists the Life Path, Life Lesson, Birth Path, Birth Force or, sometimes, the Destiny number. This number is chosen by nature rather than by you or your parents, and it reflects the season and historical era of your birth. As its names suggest, it shows your mission in life, your life work and what the universe intends for you. It shows the opportunities you must seize in order to make the most of your potential. Following the life path that has been given to you will enable you to avoid continual discord and frustration, and to unfold in the way that is best for your nature. When you find your true place in the world, you will feel at home.

Your birthdate total is 1.

With a Life Path of 1, you have a destiny to stand on your own, to believe in yourself, your own ideas and your own potential. Yours will be the life of the leader and the pioneer. Being a unique individual, you can follow your own path and live free from many of the rules that govern others. You may, however, have to fight to live the way you want and to accomplish what you want to do. Nevertheless, you must not conform or give up your goals.

This has its origin in your illusions and fantasies, the world you create for yourself in daydreams. The Power You Can Achieve in Maturity

The total of the day, month and year of your birth and your full name at birth is known variously as the Power, Maturity, Reality, Real Self, Final Opportunity, Destiny or Goal Power number. A summation of both your name and your birthdate, this number shows how the two principal streams of energy converge to fulfill the purposes of your true self. The Power number is of great significance because it gives a clue as to what your ultimate life purpose might be.

This vibration usually becomes manifest only in the later part of your life. In the first half of life it tends to exist only as a potential. In these earlier years you live through many experiences that temper and define your character and aptitudes. Not until the age of 35 or 40 do most people live through enough life events to find their life purpose and develop it to the point where it becomes their main focus and direction. It is then that fulfillment comes. But this is usually achieved only after many false starts, and years of struggling to gain self-knowledge.

Finding your right place in life is gratifying. If you have not pushed through to this achievement, you can be dissatisfied and unhappy. You may feel at loose ends, without direction, rudderless and ill at ease. But if you have lived your life in accord with the purpose that was meant to be fulfilled in this life, you will find contentment and peace of mind.

What follows is the mature expression of your Power number. Mature development is not about living out someone else's idea of what you should be. It has more to do with honoring your own way of being in the world and moving from your own center. It is about trusting the process of unfoldment that exists within each of us and making this your guiding principle.

The total of your name and birthdate is 6.

A Power number of 6 signifies an overriding desire to create harmony and balance. Six is the archetype of the Caregiver. Sixes have a rock-solid reputation for being loyal, dependable and conscientious, and they continually attract situations that require these traits. Wanting to live responsibly, they protect and provide for those in their keeping and are steadfast in their devotion to loved ones.

Sixes give time, attention and loving care not just to their families, but also to friends and even to casual acquaintances. Because of this, they make faithful and steadfast life-long friends. They sense another's needs, and freely give of themselves. Through their own sympathetic knowing, they are intuitively able to heal. They are good at helping others sort out and clarify their problems, choose options and find solutions. They create a safe place for people who are in need, and happily lend support in a crisis. Their homes reflect their love of comfort and all that is pleasant, and often become havens for the troubled and perplexed. Also at home on Mother Earth, sixes sense the underlying rhythm of nature, and are able to move in harmony with the cycle of the seasons.

Tarot Key 6: The Lovers

To gain further insights about your Power number, it can help to look at the Tarot trump that corresponds to it. In your case, this is the card called the Lovers. The card depicts a couple watched over by an angel who hovers above them, representing the higher force that unifies opposites. This card obviously signifies romantic love, but in a wider sense it points to the love that people find when they place their ideals of service and dedication, of truth and justice, above their own personal welfare. This may work out first in the personal sphere, and then in the progressively widening spheres of family, community, and humanity.

Your Karmic Lessons

Karma numbers are digits that are completely missing in the letters of your name as given at birth. Most people have one or more Karma numbers. These missing digits serve as a guide to the areas of your life and personality that may be lacking. Such areas will benefit from special attention. If you ignore these blind spots, life can have a painful way of making you notice them. This, however, can eventually spur you forward on the path to wisdom. When you develop yourself in these areas, you will feel much more whole and complete.

There are no numbers missing in your name.

The fact that you have no Karma numbers indicates that you are a very special person! You are unusually well balanced, and have an excellent chance of resolving any personality problems. Your state of evolution is such that you are perfecting your human character and are free to give much service to the world.

Your Subconscious Response

Your Subconscious Response is related to how many Karma numbers you have. It shows the way you tend to react in emergencies, when you have no time to consult your intellect.

Your Subconscious Response number is 9.

When the going gets rough, you can either come across in an extremely valuable way, or you can detach yourself completely from the outcome. When others panic, your ability to see the larger picture can give you a calm philosophical attitude. This can bring a much-needed calm and sense of perspective to the situation, but you must guard against a tendency to ignore the plight of others.

Your Youth, Maturity and Later Years

So far, we've discussed the number vibrations that stay with you throughout your life. Now we move on to the three major periods of your life as shown by your Life Cycle numbers. These are derived from reducing the digits in your month, day and year of birth. The sum of the month digits describes the first period; the day, the second period; and the year, the third period.

Your First Life Cycle starts at birth and lasts until age 27.

Its number is 9.

This is a high vibration for a young person to bear. This is because 9 is not conducive to a sense of security, and because selflessness may be expected of you at a time in your development when it is natural to be selfish. There may be change and instability for you to cope with, and the air may be charged with emotional tensions that you are too young to understand. Your own needs as a child may be neglected, so that you do not know what to do with your own intense feelings. Some form of artistic expression can be a great help in sorting these feelings out, and a good education can provide some structure and resources to deal with life. Toward the end of this cycle you will most likely have gained enough maturity to feel more comfortable with the intense energies of a 9.

During the First Life Cycle, your Life Path number and your First Minor Challenge number are also especially important influences.

Your Second Life Cycle starts at age 27 and lasts until age 54.

Its number is 5.

For you, mid-life is a period best suited change and variety, so you will be happiest if not tied down unnecessarily. You will want to travel, and to experience the new and different in many ways. During this cycle you can get to renew yourself by breaking out of old routines. Now is the time to learn to adapt, to be free and to live for the moment. For the time being, it is best to put aside ideas of permanence.

During this Life Cycle or the next, your Power number generally begins to manifest.

Your Third Life Cycle starts at age 54 and lasts until death.

Its number is 5.

No rocking chair for you! You are inclined to finish your days in a whirlwind of activity and variety. You'll need lots of stimulation, so plan on traveling and making contact with as many different kinds of people as possible. The constant changes in your life should keep you young.

Major Decision or Turning Points in Your Life

Your Turning Points or Pinnacles are also derived from your full birthdate. Each of them defines a period in your life and the special issues that you will face during that period. As their name suggests, Turning Points show points of choice where you need to make decisions. Besides showing the issues at stake, the Turning Point number indicates the choice that will be best for you. Turning Points are like tests that you must pass before proceeding forward. The happiness that you feel in a given Turning Point period depends on the choices you've made and the skills you've developed when faced with the previous Turning Point.

Your First Turning Point starts at birth and lasts until age 34.
Its number is 5.

This youthful Turning Point offers a chance for travel, new ideas, and even a new lifestyle. Embrace these fearlessly, and you will develop your character for the next phase. You have a way with people and can now make the most of it. During this period you may feel unstable and rootless, and may need to wait for a more suitable period to build a satisfyingly firm foundation for your adult life.

Your Second Turning Point starts at age 35 and lasts until age 44.
Its number is 1.

The next nine years of your life will test your ability to strike out on your own, to develop your own individuality, and to create something that is totally your own. To learn the lessons of this Turning Point, prepare either to work alone or to be the boss. Your reward will be recognition of your achievements in later periods.

Your Third Turning Point starts at age 45 and lasts until age 54.
Its number is 6.

This 6 vibration in the prime of your life brings a choice about how you will bear heavy responsibilities, and whether you will let them beat you down or bring you the happiness that comes from helping others. It may also be a time when you are called to make a nest that is a true haven for you, your family and friends.

Your Fourth Turning Point starts at age 55 and lasts until death.
Its number is 5.

In the last period of your life, a 5 vibration calls you to overturn your old routines and renew yourself with travel, new ideas, and possibly even a new lifestyle. Your choice to do something a bit risky will keep you feeling remarkably young for your years. If you go rigid and try to barricade yourself safely away from the possibility of change, it can have a nasty way of seeking you out anyway. It's best to hang loose and roll with it if it comes. Your life will be so much more interesting that way.

The Challenges You Will Meet

Everyone is born with special lessons to be learned. Again, your full birth date has inherent in it two Minor Challenges that are usually presented to you earlier in life, and a Major Challenge that is lifelong but which you will probably get to master only later in life.

Challenges may at first present themselves to you as external obstacles to your progress, but they arise from the deficiencies that you are born with, parts that are lacking or underdeveloped. Once you can determine exactly what the weak link is, you can make a conscious effort to strengthen that trait within yourself. This takes willpower and may sometimes feel as if you are going against the grain, but it pays off abundantly in terms of progress and success in life. As you tackle each challenge, your fears are pushed back, your scope enlarges, and you feel more comfortable in the world.

Your First Minor Challenge number is 4.

The First Minor Challenge usually crops up early in life. When its number is 4, you will need to learn how to work effectively before you can do much else in the world. In youth, the lesson is usually to learn to settle down and concentrate. Later on, it is often to avoid becoming a “grind” and letting work take over your whole life. The challenge, anyway, is to give work its proper place, and learn a balance between work and play.

Your Second Minor Challenge number is 0.

The Second Minor Challenge is about aspects of your character that you need to work on during your Second Life Cycle, from about ages 35 to 62. A zero Challenge number presents no particular challenge. This can mean either that life is easy because you have no large obstacles in your path, or that it is difficult because everything is an obstacle and you don't know which to tackle first. If the latter is true, it is best just to pick one difficulty arbitrarily and work on that until you have mastered it. Your plate is either very full or very empty because you are an old soul. You are evolved enough to be conscious of whatever shortcomings you have, and to deal with them one at a time. Becoming the kind of person you know you could be is the most difficult of challenges, but you are capable of meeting it.

Your Major Challenge number is 4.

You face your Major Challenge throughout life. Most likely, however, you will find yourself needing to do the most work on it during your Third Life Cycle, after the lesser challenges have been met. With a Challenge number of 4, you may run into difficulties either through getting lost in details or through not paying enough attention to them. The challenge here is to learn to work in a balanced manner, pacing yourself and fitting the job you do to the requirements of the situation.

Your Best Activities for the Year

Your Personal Year number combines your birth month and day with the current year. Personal Year numbers go in a recurring nine-year cycle of development. Each time you go around the cycle you have a chance to do things with added wisdom and skill. Keeping your activities in tune with your current year vibration can make your existence more harmonious and keep your unfoldment upon its intended track.

Some numerologists believe that the new personal year number begins on January 1st of the new year. Others believe that it doesn't change until your birthday on that year, so that up until your birthday you would be using the personal year number for the preceding calendar year.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2004 is 20/2

In a 2 Personal Year, you become softer and more receptive, and your focus naturally turns toward partnership and cooperation with others. It is time to seek out a person who will help you to crystallize your dreams. Then you should listen to your partner, be diplomatic and patient, and perfect the art of working as a team in a spirit of respect and harmony. When two hearts come together in a common effort, in an atmosphere of give-and-take and mutual regard, you can accomplish wondrous things. As receptive as you are to another person, you should also be receptive to your own inner knowing. In all things, the keyword this year is Accommodate.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan. 1, 2005 is 21/3

A 3 Personal Year is a time to enjoy the good things that are born out of the self-assertion of the first year in the cycle and the pairing-off and gentle accommodations of the second year. When you plant your seeds well in the 1 Personal Year, your 3 Personal Year is indeed a lucky one, full of potential for growth and advancement. If you put yourself forward, you will be popular and will find those who will help you express yourself and further your ideas. So open up and spread the word. It is no time hide your light under a bushel. Get around, be seen and identified, socialize and network. This is a light-hearted year, a time for exuberant self-expression, a year of fun and rewards in which you can restore your vital energies, explore your creativity, and widen your social contacts before the hard work that lies ahead. The keyword for this year is Enjoy.

Where Do We Go from Here?

If this report has aroused your curiosity and you want to learn more, you may find that exploring your numbers with a deck of Tarot cards is an excellent means for further self- reflection.

Suppose that your birth date were August 19, 1962. The Tarot trump that you would look at for the month would be 8 (Strength, or in some decks, Justice). For the day, you would look at 19 (the Sun), $1+9=10$ (the Wheel of Fortune), and, reducing it even further, $1+0=1$ (the Magician). For the year, you would look at $1+9+6+2=18$ (the Moon), and possibly also $1+8=9$ (the Hermit).

These cards would have something to say about you and how you express these traits as you follow your destiny. Our example birth date would have the Sun in Leo, and trump 19, the Sun, would reinforce the Leo symbolism. You could see that the person is a hard worker (8) with a sunny disposition (19) who is aware of the changes in fortune that life can bring (10). Extremely creative (1), he is also a sensitive, caring person who is tuned in to other people's feelings (18).

It is instructive to buy a Tarot deck, put one of your cards up for a few days, and mull over the symbolism. Remember that there are no truly negative numbers or cards. All participate in the experiences of the soul as it passes through life.

Even trump 15, the Devil, has its place. Everyone has traits that create stumbling blocks or weaknesses. When we work to overcome these we achieve maturity and become more sympathetic to the weaknesses that we see in others. This may be an important focus for a soul with the number 15 prominent.

Also, trump 13, the so-called Death card, is often misunderstood. Remember that in the cycle of seasons the leaves fall and winter comes, but this death is only the precursor of the life that bursts forth in the spring. Life is not all white light and bubbles. There are dark clouds of pain and frustration as well. It's all part of the cycle.

Whatever you find your numbers to be, remember that nobody has it all down pat. We all have plenty to learn. We do have a choice, however. We can, if we wish, fight against our destiny or try to ignore it. Or we can, as the great psychoanalyst C.G. Jung put it, "do willingly what we must do by necessity." Viewing ourselves through the lens of studies such as numerology, the Tarot and astrology, we gain a clearer picture of what our own necessity is, and can then travel more consciously on our life's intended path.
